Mayoralty Issues Aired By Two City Candidates

DOORS TO CITY HALL. Mayor George Willshaw, Republican incumbent, and Robert Owen, Democrat nominee, pause at the entrance of East Liverpool City Hall where one or the other will serve after being elected Nov. 7 as the city's first four-year term mayor.

East Liverpool will choose Nov. 7 between George E. Willshaw, the Republican incumbent, and Robert Owen, the Democrat nominee, in naming a mayor for the next four years.

The election is particularly significant because the mayor named next month will serve from Jan. 1, 1968, until Dec. 31, 1971. The mayor—and the safety-service director he appoints—will help set the general tone of the municipal administration for the next four years.

Willshaw has been mayor since late in the fall of 1965. He was serving as Council president when Merrill D. Hall resigned as mayor close to the end of his term. Willshaw automatically moved up to the mayor's office under state law. About two months later he was elected to his current two year term.

Before taking the Council presidency, Willshaw served several terms as a member-at-large. He resides on Idaho Ave. and is a retired district representative of the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio.

Owen, a resident of Ohio Ave., had his longest tenure of public service as safety-service director under former Mayor Bert H. Goodballet. He also served as First Ward councilman and was an interim county commissioner in 1966. He was elected Council president a few years ago, but resigned to continue his service in the director's office. He is a member of the City Planning Commission and chairman of the City Park Commission.

To present the community with the candidates' views on major issues facing East Liverpool, Robert Popp, Review City Hall reporter, asked four general questions of Owen and Willshaw—questions covering such things as the city "master plan"; capital improvements; municipal finances and the continuing quest for new industries.

Their answers follow:

1. What steps will you take to implement the city's "master plan" and what is your position on the need for a coordinator to see that the program moves forward?

Willshaw

I feel that taking full advantage of the "master plan" and all the federal - aid projects that will grow out of it is one of the most important opportunities East Liverpool has had in many years.

Knowing from experience the long hours of work and detailed paper work that are required, I am heartily in favor of appointment of a full-time coordinator to make certain that all the proper state, county and federal agencies are contacted and that all applications for projects are pressed through to a successful conclusion.

This is not a case of a federal "gift" to our community, but rather our opportunity to get back some of the money we already have paid the central government in taxes. East Liverpool has invested over $21,000 and many, many hours of hard work in this "master plan" effort over the last few years. The overall investment is more than $50,000 counting federal aid. But we need to bring that plan to full realization in order to realize a return on our investment.

The first sign of my return for our efforts came a few months ago when the federal government approved the two 130-unit housing developments planned here by the

Owen

As a member of the City Planning Commission and a candidate for mayor, I am heartily in favor of moving ahead with the "master plan" because it means progress for East Liverpool, the kind of progress that improves a community which in turn would help bring in new industry. Any mayor should take all steps necessary to implement the "master plan" and see that all the monies spent to obtain it and the efforts put forth toward it produce needed improvements for the city and its citizens.

That's what it's intended for and no one can deny this city has to go forward.

I would, if elected, do all in my power to implement the "master plan," especially in the areas of recreation and low-cost housing. A coordinator would be able to do a job for the city that has been only barely touched up to now. In my estimation, this is the one position that the city needs badly.

The coordinator, in dealing with federal, state and county governments, would be able to produce results — would be the one person who could produce the most for the city. If we had had a coordinator in the past the 9th St. overpass, the Lisbon St. improvement and the high-rise apart-

Wilson Hints At New Viet Peace Effort

Would Seek Soviet Help If U.S. Halts Bombing Of North

LONDON (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Wilson intends to seek Soviet support for new Vietnam peace moves if the United States suspends bombing of North Vietnam.

Informed sources said Wilson may go to Moscow for talks with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

A hint of Wilson's approach emerged during an interview with The Associated Press when he said he was in close contact with Kosygin about chances of joint peacemaking action in Vietnam.

"We would be ready to try any time when we felt joint action on our part could help to bring the parties together," Wilson said.

An opportunity for joint action may arise next month. South Vietnam's president-elect Lt. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu, has said he would ask the United States after his inauguration Oct. 30 to stop bombing the Communist North for about a week in order to test Hanoi's willingness for peace talks.

Wilson would like a longer bombing pause—long enough to enable him to consult Kosygin in Moscow. He said in the interview he had no immediate plans to visit either Moscow or Washington but recalled he had arranged with Kosygin to travel to the Soviet capital "at an appropriate time."

The Soviet Union and Britain were cochairmen of the 1954 Geneva conference that ended the French Indochina war.

In answer to other questions on Vietnam in the interview marking the start of his fourth year in office, Wilson also said:

—Britain is against any invasion of North Vietnam. This is a possibility that British newspaper claim has been under serious study by President Johnson's administration.

—North Vietnam would not advance toward peace if it used any American bombing pause to build up its own power or increase military activity.

—Wilson personally is "100 per cent convinced" of the American desire for peace in Vietnam.

3 Men Held To Court On Store Entry

Defendants Waive City Court Hearing In Loblaw Thefts

Three Jefferson County men pleaded not guilty and waived preliminary hearings today in Municipal Court when arraigned before Acting Judge Robert A. Kapp on burglary charges in connection with an entry at the Loblaw, Inc., Market on Dresden Ave., early Sunday in which the loot included 175 to 200 cartons of cigarettes, meat and other merchandise.

Taken into custody Tuesday with the aid of the Steubenville police department, the suspects were identified as:

Sam Shephard, 20, of 219 S. Commercial Ave., Steubenville: Richard L. Thorne, 26, of Richmond RD 1, and Vincent DiMichele, 26, of 115 Welday Ave., Steubenvlle.

The acting judge held all three to the grand jury on charges filed by Patrolmen William A. Devon and Charles A. Winters. Bond was set at $2,500 for Thorne and Shephard and $1,000 for DiMichele.

Officers said only two cartons of cigarettes were recovered. Meat, patent medicine, household utensils and other miscellaneous loot had been burned by DiMichele on Jewett Hill back of Steubenville, he said in a statement to the local officers.

Winters and Devon said a telephone call from an alert Trentvale St. resident and preliminary police work by Patrolmen Charles Coen, James Woods and Jerry F. Adkins aided in solution of the case.

They also praised Chief Robert Cornelius, Detective Capt. George Mavromatis and Detective R. F. Tost of the Steubenville department for aid in solving the case.

Police said a telephone call was received from a Trentvale St. resident about 11 Sunday night reporting a "suspicious truck" parked at the rear of the Loblaw store. Coen and Woods investigated, checked the store and found nothing amiss.

But they recorded the license number of the parked panel truck. The suspects may have hidden in the woods near by

Man Escapes As Explosion Rips Tanker

Howard Pettigrew of Lisbon escaped serious injury today when an empty tanker of a tractor - trailer rig exploded at the Industrial Wastes, Inc., garage on Route 51 at Fallston, Pa.

Several thousand dollars damage resulted to the building, but Pettigrew was only shaken and complained of a slight neck injury.

The explosion ripped the building at 8:15 a. m.

Pettigrew had climbed a five-foot wooden ladder at the rear of the tanker, parked inside the building, to do some welding.

"As soon as I struck the lighter — boom!" he commented. He said he had worked on tankers before without trouble.

The lid was blown through the roof and the front end was blown out like it had been cut with a huge knife. The front section went through four garage door sections and wood from the doors and roof was scattered 100 feet into the yard.

The explosion also blew out windows on the opposite side of the building, a door to the office. But strangely, a large plate glass window remained intact.

Communist Regiment Springs Ambush

58 GIs, 103 Reds Killed In Fierce Day Of Fighting

SAIGON (AP) — A veteran Communist regiment ambushed two companies of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division in canopied jungles 41 miles north of Saigon Tuesday. After a day of fierce fighting, 58 Americans and at least 103 Communists had been killed and 61 Americans were wounded.

The battle took costly toll of U.S. offcers. Among them were Maj. Don W. Holleder, voted most valuable player on Army's 1955 football team, and Lt. Col. Terry Allen Jr., whose father commanded the 1st Division in Tunisia and Sicily in World War II.

Holleder, a brigade operations officer, had replaced Allen in command of a battalion after the latter was killed. A battalion intelligence officer and a platoon commander also were killed and two company commanders were wounded.

A fresh battalion was sent into the jungle area this morning but made no contact with the enemy.

Over North Vietnam, meanwhile, U.S. planes flew close to Red China Tuesday to attack the Lang Son railroad bridge 10 miles from the frontier and the Lang Giai railroad yards 20 miles south of the border.

The U.S. Command said four American planes were lost—three Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs and one A4 Navy Skyhawk. This raised the total of U.S. planes announced lost in combat over the North to 705.

Hanoi claimed five planes were shot down Tuesday.

As the pace of the war quickened, there were these other developments:

1. The Australian Destroyer Perth came under one of the heaviest coastal shellings of the war off North Vietnam and one hit wounded four of her crewmen. North Vietnamese shore batteries fired an estimated 300 rounds at the Perth, which arrived for duty off Vietnam a month ago.

2. South Korean Marines reported 431 enemy troops killed and 16 captured on the Batangan Peninsula about 350 miles northeast of Saigon in a sweep that began Sept. 5 about 12

Old Ordinance Invoked

Police Cite 11 Young Men In Loitering On Sidewalk

Invoking a city ordinance that dates back at least 60 years, police arrested 11 young men at 1:48 a. m. today on charges of loitering on the sidewalk in front of a business place.

All the defendants entered "no contest" pleas when arraigned this morning before Acting Municipal Judge Robert A. Kapp and each was fined $5 and $7.50 costs.

Six paid the $12.50 penalties a short time later in the clerk's office, but the five others pleaded lack of funds and said they would "lay out" the fines and costs in jail. They were returned to jail.

Police said the 11 were taken into custody by Patrolmen David Huffman and William Copestick while standing on the sidewalk in front of the New York Restaurant in such a way that they blocked the restaurant's doorway. A 12th young man arrested at the same time and the same place was charged with intoxication and disorderly conduct by using indecent language and profanity.

Area Eclipse 'Washed Out' By Showers

Rain washed out this morning's eclipse of the moon so far as tri-state area residents were concerned.

Most areas of the eastern coast were in the same boat. West coast observers were reported to have received the best view of the celestial spectacular.

The forecast calls for considerable cloudiness and cooler tonight and Thursday, with showers.

Temperatures will average below normal Thursday through Monday with daily highs mostly in the mid 50s to the low 60's. Nighttime lows will be in the mid 30's and low 40's.

Nail-Tossing Halts Trucks In Hancock

Drivers Wait New Tires; Five Men Arrested In Beaver

A compromise plan for settling the steel haulers' strike was expected to get approval from trucking company officials at Pittsburgh today following another night of violence and harrassment, including nail-tossing in Hancock County.

An 18-rig convoy of Tom's Express of Weirton was stopped on Route 66 about 7:30 a. m. on Washington St., Newell, when ten trucks received flat tires from nails.

The convoy was headed west for Route 30 and Ohio where Ohio Highway Patrolmen were on alert. The Patrol's helicopter was out this morning despite rainy skies.

Road crews were called to clear the nails, but drivers were awaiting new tires to replace he flattened ones.

Five men were arrested in Beaver Falls Tuesday afternoon after a tractor-trailer rig deliberately rammed a pickup truck being operated by dissident truck strikers.

Police said a convoy of trucks were leaving the Union Drawn plant. The striking truck drivers heard of the convoy and went to the scene.

Three strikers in a pickup truck attempted to pull in front of one of the rigs near the entrance to Reeves Field.

The driver of the lead truck slowed to a near stop, but the second swung out of line, almost hitting a car coming in the opposite direction and aimed his rig at the pickup, witnesses said.

The pickup was caught nearly broadside, pushed up a hill and then shoved around until it smashed into the side of a building.

The three men in the pickup piled out and attempted to get into the cab of the tractor trailer. A fight started, and after the melee was over, police placed five under arrest.

Some men in a car shot out the windshields of two steel - hauling trucks near Fort Wayne, Ind. Rocks hurled from embankments shattered windshields of two trucks on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

2 Men Seek Board Posts As A 'Slate'

Two candidates for the East Liverpool Board of Education—Tom Rodfong and George Ward—have announced they are seeking election as a two - man slate.

Ward of Southview Dr., a ceramic engineer at the H. K. Porter Co., and Rodfong of 1416 Pennsylvania Ave., staff aide in the Crucible Steel Co. Midland Division offices, said the move has been made "because we have essentially the same general attitudes about helping East Liverpool's education system."

They said they believe their interests and backgrounds complement each other — Rodfong, a former teacher with experience in personnel matters, Ward, an engineer with experience in administration.

The two said they felt that they could pool their resources for the campaign and as a pair better achieve their objectives.

There are seven other active candidates for the three posts on the board, including the three incumbents. Clarence Powell and Robert Dawson had also filed as candidates, but later announced they were not seeking the posts.

Freeway, St. Clair Projects Cited Again By Businessmen

The East Liverpool Merchants Association, meeting Tuesday in the Chamber of Commerce office, cited again to City Council the need for action to extend the Freeway into East End and to improve lower St. Clair Ave.

The businessmen voted to send a letter to Council asking it to consider the two projects when mapping plans for future municipal programs. In the same letter, ELMA praised Council for its role in the blacktop surfacing of major streets in the central business area, declaring that the project "added considerably to the appearance of the district and is appreciated by motorists and pedestrians alike."

THE BUSINESSMEN received a request from Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey that they instruct their employes to clean up debris swept from sidewalks in the morning and deposit it in refuse cans along the sidewalks, rather than pushing it over the curb into the gutter.

The director pointed out that the city's mechanized sweeper cleans the streets at night and when trash is left in the gutter in the morning, it detracts from the appearance of the business area all day.

After hearing Vodrey's request, the businessmen agreed to stress an anti - litter campaign in the shopping area.

The association held another discussion on a "crime alert" system it will sponsor with the cooperation of the police department. The plan calls for distribution of printed placards to all residents, urging them to notify police immediately if they observe suspicious actions that might indicate a crime was about to be committed. The literature will list typical suspicious actions, along with the police department's telephone number.

James Locke Jr., chairman, asked the downtown improvement committee to take the "crime alert" system as its project and work out a way of distributing the circulars.

HAROLD ALLISON, reporting for the Christmas activities committee, said preparations are moving ahead and work has started on erecting decorations in the business district. He said a large evergreen has been obtained for use as a community Christmas tree on the Diamond. The Junior Chamber of Commerce again will arrange the annual "Santa Claus" parade on Nov. 24, he added. Persons wishing to enter floats should contact the Jaycees, Allison said.

The association gave approval to a proposed schedule of store hours for the Christmas shopping season.

The merchants also approved plans for a Halloween season promotion outlined by Max Shoff, chairman of the promotion committee.

Leo Lawrence thanked the group for its assistance in the annual show of the East Liverpool Dahlia and Floral Society held in late September at Westgate School. He presented the association a bouquet of dahlias.

The next regular meeting will be Nov. 21.

Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority. That's just a hint of the things in store for this community if the "master plan" effort is kept vital and moving.

Before the end of the year, we must obtain recertification of our workable program for community development. That's the federal approval that makes the community eligible for all sorts of projects with U.S. aid. Our efforts have borne fruit in the last few months. East Liverpool now has a zoning ordinance and soon will have subdivision regulations and a housing code, including provisions for plumbing, building and fire inspections.

2. What do you rate as the most important major capital improvements the city should undertake in the next few years?

It's difficult to assign definite priorities, but I believe everyone recognizes the need for a citywide street improvement program that would be continued on a regular annual basis for resurfacing some of our heavily - used streets. This would be a supplement to the usual summer low-cost surfacing program that has done so much to improve our secondary streets in the last few years.

I refer to the need for resurfacing streets throughout the city which are widely used by the general public—thoroughfares such as Bradshaw Ave., lower St. Clair Ave. and Avondale St., for example. This work would be done with city operating funds bearing the brunt of the cost.

There are many other capital improvement needs that can be cited. For instance, we need modernization of our fire department through acquisition of new equipment and construction of a new North Side Fire Station, probably in a more central location.

Also there is a pressing need to move forward with plans for extension of the Freeway through East End. The first step in this project will be updating of the arterial highway survey filed in 1955. This would entail expenditure of $20,000 or more, but it is necessary if East Liverpool is to keep pace with the modern highway network in this area.

We need more recreation facilities of all kinds for persons in all age groups. Although a lot has been done in the last four years, particularly through improvements at Thompson Park, I think everyone recognizes the need for adequate recreation facilities for youngsters, teenagers, adults and senior citizens. Three new playgrounds have been established and there is space on the Bloomfield landfill for two additional ball fields. But we must move forward in other areas of recreation.

From the standpoint of capital improvements, the acquisition of a new landfill site in Madison Township and a new equipment barn in East End within the last year were big steps forward.

Other needed capital improvements that could be cited are: A new dog pound to provide humane treatment for animals, replacing the temporary quarters in the old incinerator department building on Washington St., and updating of our streetlight system with powerful mercury vapor fixtures, particularly along Pennsylvania Ave. in East End. We need new off-street parking facilities, especially in the eastern section of the downtown area.

3. Where and how can the city raise the additional new funds required for federal aid projects and locally - financed capital improvements, recognizing that at present there's very little extra in the way of available money?

Several sources are available to any Ohio muncipality, but of course the fiscal matters lie entirely with Council, not the administration. The mayor may suggest or propose and lend moral support, but in the final analysis the question of the city's purse - strings lies with the legislative body.

There's the possibility of raising the city income tax, but of course that would require study to determine the amount needed and the reaction of the community to such a proposal. Probably the best method for financing specific projects is to place a levy on the ballot for the required sum, allowing the public to decide. Before any new financial program could be undertaken, the needs would have to be surveyed to draw at least the broad outlines.

4. What can East Liverpool and its citizens do to attract new industry or broaden the tax base in any way so that some of the real estate tax load is shifted from residential property - owners?

Attracting new industry is the best way of broadening the tax base and at the same time providing more job opportunities for our local residents and additional dollars for retail business and service trades.

I am ready and anxious to work at any time with any civic group or individual who can help us attract new industry, including the Community Improvement Corp., the Chamber of Commerce or any others. East Liverpool has many advantages for industry, including fine river, rail and highway transportation, an abundant supply of pure water, attractive utility rates and a sensible tax structure.

The principal drawback is a shortage of available, unoccupied large tracts of ground within the city limits. Those industries which occupy sites on our perimeter are a major help to East Liverpool from the standpoint of offering jobs and bringing new payroll dollars into the community.

Annexation of some of the suburban areas immediately adjacent to the city limits would be another — though more limited — way of broadening the tax base. In return, these new residents would receive greatly improved fire and police protection and other services not available to them now.

This is a proposition that has been talked about a great deal in the last few years, but I believe it would bear further, more intensive investigation on the part of both the suburbanites and the city and its people.

180 Due For Fete At East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Some 180 tickets have been sold for an all-city appreciation dinner to be sponsored Thursday night at 6:30 at the high school cafeteria by the Chamber of Commerce.

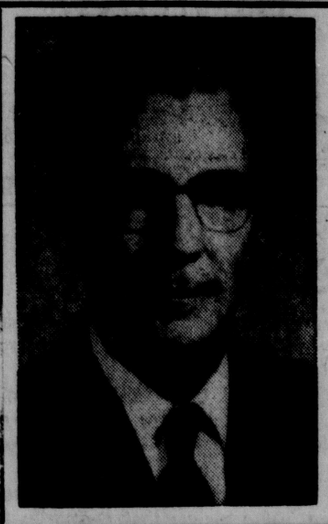

The event will honor various people for contributions to the community. Fred P. Neuenschwander, director of the Ohio Department of Economic Development, will be speaker, and Atty. Jack Cohen will be toastmaster.

The Crucible Steel Co. Chorus will sing.

Hard Look At 'Easy' Credit

Mayor George E. Willshaw's reminder to Council Monday night on the increase in the statutory debt limit for municipal corporations could be interpreted as good news or bad news, depending upon one's viewpoint.

On one hand, it opens the way for various municipal capital improvement projects for which money previously was unavailable.

On the other hand, it raises the specter of additional local public debt — all of it dollars that must be paid back by local taxpayers — plus interest.

Credit is not bad, if it is used properly. In the case of individuals and governments alike, it can be a real blessing, if utilized sparingly and sensibly.

The mayor pointed out that East Liverpool previously was required to hew to a limit of 1½ per cent of its tax valuation, or $653,627, as the limit of debt that could be incurred by Council issuing bonds without a vote of the people.

The General Assembly's action raised the debt limit to 2½ per cent, or an additional $435,000. At present, bonds have been issued to within $48,206 of the 1½ per cent limit.

THERE ARE projects that have been on the shelf for months or years simply because the city lacked the money to undertake them —things such as updating an engineering report to clear the way for extension of the Freeway into East End or resurfacing some of the heavily - traveled streets that are in such deplorable condition.

Projects such as these promise good for the entire community and should be considered seriously in the light of the new borrowing power.

But Council and the administration must keep in mind at all times that every dollar that is borrowed on bond issues must be paid back in the future, plus interest.

Bonds of this type are retired in annual installments, using money that ordinarily would be utilized for the city government's operating expenses.

So far every dollar that is borrowed, the city must be prepared to face the prospect of being short a dollar, plus interest, for the life of the bond issue.

THIS COUNCIL and administration have displayed a commendable attitude toward fiscal responsibility and we hope that attitude will continue.

If money must be borrowed for badly-needed programs and projects that cannot be financed in any other way, the community will understand. But the community will not understand if funds are borrowed to undertake work that well could be delayed until the financial picture improves.

Bankruptcy may be an impossibility for a governmental entity, but severe lack of funds caused by incautious borrowing is not unknown to cities, villages, townships and states throughout the nation.

Council and the administration must pick and choose carefully as they decide how to use the city's new - found credit. Restraint is the key to intelligent borrowing.

Helping Hand On A Tiger Tail

Official casualty statistics from Saigon are casting another critical reflection on U.S. involvement in Vietnam.

One tabulations shows 70 per cent of all casualties in Vietnam are Americans. While the United States has been intensifying its activity on the Vietnam battlefield, South Vietnanese participation has been declining.

The coat-holding role of the South Vietnamese is strongly resented by many Americans who remember the United States got into the act to assist, not fight the whole war.

The United States moved directly into Southeast Asian affairs in 1950 under President Harry S. Truman when military advisers were sent to assist Bao Dai's newly formed State of Vietnam with its capital in Saigon.

A mutual defense pact between the United States and the Saigon government quickly followed. Direct economic assistance was pledged in 1951.

In 1954, under President Dwight D. Eisenhower, economic aid was reaffirmed. In 1955 the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization agreed to extend its protection to South Vietnam.

Under President John F. Kennedy, the United States signed a Treaty of Amity and Economic Relations with South Vietnam in 1961. President Kennedy said: "We are prepared to help the Republic of Vietnam to protect its people and to preserve its independence."

President Lyndon B. Johnson has steadily escalated the war effort but has said publicly many times the United States is in Vietnam by request and seeks to help the South Vietnamese stop aggression.

Under four presidents, United States policy in South Vietnam has been to help the people of a country defend their homes and lives. The words "help" and "assist" have been used repeatedly.

Yet, for all practical purposes, the United States is carrying the war burden. This condition came about for protection of American troops. It was learned quickly that too many South Vietnamese would rather run than fight.

Also, the philosophy that the American fighting machine could mop up the situation in a hurry played a part in early handling of the war.

Mishandling fighting responsibilities was another way the United States got a death-grip hold on the Southeast Asia tiger tail early in the game.

Back in 1950 when United States' officialdom was blindly running into the Vietnam tragedy secure in the thought that the mightiest nation on earth could easily handle the Vietnam situation, one voice was raised loud and clear in warning.

Former President Herbert C. Hoover urged the United States on Dec. 20, 1950, to limit its defenses to the Western Hemisphere plus Japan, Formosa and the Philippines in the Pacific and Britain in the Atlantic.

He said fighting the Communists on the continents of Asia or Europe would be "sheer folly" a war "without victory." He suggested the United States steer away from "hopeless campaigns."

American official took Mr. Hoover to task for his remarks. Criticism was heavy. His statements were ridiculed in some quarters.

Time has showed the wisdom of his thinking as officials today try to find a way to turn loose Southeast Asia tiger tail without being eaten alive.

Taking Dead Aim At Slums

A movement is under way that holds promise of being able to do some of the things everyone is saying should be done to combat slum conditions.

It is a program to use a community's human resources in a manner that will do the most good.

The idea is to form a working unit from representatives of the total community including those who know slum living conditions first hand.

There is a statewide coalition in Minnesota. Detroit has its own group. The latest group is a New York coalation. Others are to be formed.

Specific targets are jobs, housing and education. Those participating do so on a voluntary basis. Special teams will be assigned to particular areas that need work.

No one is expecting overnight results. This is one of the encouraging aspects of the program. Any project advocating instant success cannot be taken seriously. Neither can the job be left up to the federal government.

Until local people become interested in local problems and are willing to do something about them, no amount of federal aid will do any good.

Community coalition groups are aiming at solution through involvement. These groups are not to be confused with the national coalition which is primarily a pressure-lobby organization.

We find thinking along this line much more realistic than talk in Congress about model cities and pouring billions into other dubious programs.

Slums are here. They have been here for a long time. Talking isn't going to make them go away. Money alone cannot get the job done.

Slum residents must show a constructive desire to eliminate ghettos and those outside the slums must work together to provide the opportunity for environmental improvement.

Key Economic Indicators Weaken

By Joseph R. Coyne

WASHINGTON

Key segments of the economy have temporarily lost some of their bloom at a time the Johnson administration needs help the most in pulling its tax chestnuts from congressional fires.

The unemployment rate, industrial output and personal income weakened in September, although the basic economy remained strong.

Government economists insist their economic arguments for a tax increase are still as valid as ever, perhaps more so, and blame special circumstances — strikes and a fantastic number of women seeking work—for the weakening.

The point to a bullish $15 billion advance in gross national product — the value of all goods and services produced in the economy during the third quarter. It was the biggest increase in 1½ years.

AND THEY foresee an even larger increase —perhaps as high as an inflationary $23 billion — during the fourth quarter unless taxes are raised. But with President Johnson's request for a 10 per cent surcharge on individual and corporate income taxes locked in the congressional - administration fight over spending cuts, the administration now needs all the help it can get to bolster its position.

The weakening in three key economic indicators will hardly accomplish this.

The administration contends the surcharge is needed to stem inflationary pressures in an over - expanding economy.

One surcharge opponent. Chairman William Proxmire, D-Wis., of the Senate - House Economic Committee, has already cited the weakened indicators as vindication for his position.

"There is no economic case for a tax increase now." Proxmire said in a Senate speech Tuesday.

He said a drop in industrial production during September on top of an increase in the unemployment rate showed the economy is suffering from too much slack, not excessive demand.

The administration takes a longer - range view.

Budget Bureau Director Charles L. Shultze pointed Tuesday to what he said are numerous signs of an accelerating economy, including recent rapid advances in personal income and industrial production, and rising employment.

"The combination of a sizeable budgetary deficit and a rapidly advancing, fully-employed economy presents an inflationary potential that we clearly should not allow to become a reality," he told a congressional committee.

HERE'S WHAT happened, however, to unsettle the economic picture during September, at least temporarily:

Unemployment — the Labor Department reported an unemployment rate of 4.1 per cent, the highest since November 1965. It said employment remained strong and an unusually large increase in adult women seeking jobs was responsible for the higher rate.

Industrial production — the Federal Reserve Board reported a 1.5 per cent decline in its production gains. It blamed strikes in the auto, copper and steel hauling industries for the decline.

Personal income — the Commerce Department reported a $2 billion increase, the smallest in four months, and blamed the Ford strike for most of the slowdown. Income rose about $4.5 billion during each of the three previous months.

Retail sales — preliminary Commerce Department figures show a record $26.7 billion during September but the trend the past four months has been more of a leveling off rather than a sharp advance.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I am concerned about the question of whether or not our students enrolled in the Wellsville Public School System will have the benefits and the pleasures which we adults had during our school careers, things that at times we all look back on with the most pleasant memories.

I am referring to the extra-curricular activities which our young people will be denied if the citizens of Wellsville defeat the proposed school levy on the ballot in November.

Many adults complain about the actions of what I consider a minority of our youth of today. I believe a lot of these actions could be and are prevented by adults taking an interest in our youth and providing wholesome things to occupy their time.

Extra-curricular activities in our schools help greatly, in my opinion, to prepare our youth to be responsible adults. It also takes some of the dullness out of their school careers which would be present in a system limited to routine class work.

I believe that quite a few of the cutbacks made by the Wellsville School Board are spiteful and completely lacking in necessity. However, my opinion and the opinion of a large number of citizens does not alter the fact that these cutabacks have been made and will continue if we people of Wellsville do not provide the extra money which the school board and administration deem necessary for the continuation of extra school activities.

Do we citizens of Wellsville want to punish our own children to make our feelings known to the school board? Do we want to join this dictatorial group of men in waging war on members of our families, our friends and our relatives? If we defeat this levy, the school board and administration will not suffer, our children will do the suffering.

I realize this extra tax may be a hardship on some people, particularly older people with a limited income. But, as a fellow citizen and parent, I ask this very pertinent question: Isn't our youth worth the sacrifice?

Our boys and girls work hard to keep the various activities in school and our athletes work to the utmost to gain recognition, not only for themselves, but for their school and their town. Some citizens who have children in the lower grades may feel that they are not affected by what is transpiring in the high school, and for that reason may not be interested in the present situation. But if they will think ahead a few years, they will realize their children will face the same situation parents of our high school students and their children face now. They will be denied the privileges and benefits of a well rounded and full high school life, which they, as we now do, should look back on with the fondest recollections when they have become adults.

I appeal to all the voters of Wellsville to support our youth, as we would have wanted our parents to support us.

Frustration is what happens when you try to reach someone through an office switchboard, with honeyed accents and polite responses pushing you toward success, then the person you are calling never responds and you are shouting into a dead telephone line.

In my attempts to explain the difference between limited war, which is what we are fighting in Vietnam, and all-out war, which is what we fought in Europe in World War II, I have fallen back on the difference between corporal punishment and the death penalty.

I keep correcting people who tell me about rising prices and taxes. I tell them the value of goods and services is not going up; that it's only the value of dollars going down which accounts for rising prices. In simpler words — inflation.

Your $1 will get my $10 that when we all come back in the 21st century for a look-see our cities will be as decayed, dirty, riot-torn and crime-ridden as they are now, because I do not believe there can be any significant improvement in city existence.

The Viet Issue

An incredible gap has been opened between the President of the United States and various critics in Congress. The latter disregard the facts of the Vietnam situation as they seek to gain favor with uninformed voters back home who are being told the United States has no business in Southeast Asia and should wiggle out of Vietnam on a "price at any price" basis.

But are people who oppose Mr. Johnson on the Vietnam war issue interested in facts?

Rep. Samuel Stratton, D-N.Y., said in a speech that most opponents of the administration's Vietnam policy say: "My mind is made up—don't confuse me with the facts."

Even so eminent a spokesman as Secretary of State Rusk—a man devoid of political chicanery and concerned only with the proper conduct of American diplomacy throughout the world—was held up to scorn in certain newspapers after his forthright explanation of Americ's policies at a notable press conference.

Men of intimate experience in world affairs are guiding the President. They have at hand confidential reports from foreign governments friendly to us.

THEY HAVE the benefit of advice from those who have studied carefully the maneuvers of both the Red Chinese and the Soviets in their worldwide effort to spread Communist influence and subvert weaker governments.

When the President of the United States has to make a decision, he calls to his side men with a background on the Asian problem far more extensive than possessed, for instance, by the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Yet, senators who occupy important posts in the upper house speak out regularly in criticism of the administration as they seek to curry favor with persons in America who do not care what the argument in rebuttal happens to be. They are merely anxious to see the Vietnam War ended at any cost.

This does not take into account the likelihood that, within a relatively short time, another world war may dveelop if America retreats in Vietnam.

Sen. Dirksen of Illinois, leader of the Republicans, has taken issue with the anti-Vietnam statements of fellow senators, irrespective of party. He declares that the conduct of the war should be left to military men and the president. Sen. Dirksen said he "shuddered a little" when he heard a senator state that President Johnson had been "brainwashed." The Illinois senator asks:

"What do you think this does to our prestige when our soldiers read in newspapers that our commander-in-chief has been brainwashed?"

It is conceivable that the war may be ended before next year's presidential campaign begins. If it isn't, the American people will have to decide whether they want to desert their president in the midst of a war.

THIS FACTOR may prove beneficial to the incumbent administration. The critics may find that people will not wish to risk a change of administration, especially if the opposing candidate's speeches leave an impression he favors appeasing the enemy and letting Southeast Asia be turned over to communism.

Prime Minister Chamberlain, after the Munich conference in 1938, received a good deal of applause from people who thought a war was being averted.

Hitler promptly misconstrued appeasement as weakness, and in a few months started World War II.

The same mistake can be made again. Failure to fight the Vietnam War effectively could result in a world war which this time would threaten American homes.

Casualties could rise to the millions, as compared with the few thousands being sacrificed in Vietnam today for a fundamental principle—that small nations in Asia as well as Europe must be defended against actual and potential aggression.

Hard Look At 'Easy' Credit

Mayor George E. Willshaw's reminder to Council Monday night on the increase in the statutory debt limit for municipal corporations could be interpreted as good news or bad news, depending upon one's viewpoint.

On one hand, it opens the way for various municipal capital improvement projects for which money previously was unavailable.

On the other hand, it raises the specter of additional local public debt — all of it dollars that must be paid back by local taxpayers — plus interest.

Credit is not bad, if it is used properly. In the case of individuals and governments alike, it can be a real blessing, if utilized sparingly and sensibly.

The mayor pointed out that East Liverpool previously was required to hew to a limit of 1½ per cent of its tax valuation, or $653,627, as the limit of debt that could be incurred by Council issuing bonds without a vote of the people.

The General Assembly's action raised the debt limit to 2½ per cent, or an additional $435,000. At present, bonds have been issued to within $48,206 of the 1½ per cent limit.

THERE ARE projects that have been on the shelf for months or years simply because the city lacked the money to undertake them —things such as updating an engineering report to clear the way for extension of the Freeway into East End or resurfacing some of the heavily - traveled streets that are in such deplorable condition.

Projects such as these promise good for the entire community and should be considered seriously in the light of the new borrowing power.

But Council and the administration must keep in mind at all times that every dollar that is borrowed on bond issues must be paid back in the future, plus interest.

Bonds of this type are retired in annual installments, using money that ordinarily would be utilized for the city government's operating expenses.

So far every dollar that is borrowed, the city must be prepared to face the prospect of being short a dollar, plus interest, for the life of the bond issue.

THIS COUNCIL and administration have displayed a commendable attitude toward fiscal responsibility and we hope that attitude will continue.

If money must be borrowed for badly-needed programs and projects that cannot be financed in any other way, the community will understand. But the community will not understand if funds are borrowed to undertake work that well could be delayed until the financial picture improves.

Bankruptcy may be an impossibility for a governmental entity, but severe lack of funds caused by incautious borrowing is not unknown to cities, villages, townships and states throughout the nation.

Council and the administration must pick and choose carefully as they decide how to use the city's new - found credit. Restraint is the key to intelligent borrowing.

Helping Hand On A Tiger Tail

Official casualty statistics from Saigon are casting another critical reflection on U.S. involvement in Vietnam.

One tabulations shows 70 per cent of all casualties in Vietnam are Americans. While the United States has been intensifying its activity on the Vietnam battlefield, South Vietnanese participation has been declining.

The coat-holding role of the South Vietnamese is strongly resented by many Americans who remember the United States got into the act to assist, not fight the whole war.

The United States moved directly into Southeast Asian affairs in 1950 under President Harry S. Truman when military advisers were sent to assist Bao Dai's newly formed State of Vietnam with its capital in Saigon.

A mutual defense pact between the United States and the Saigon government quickly followed. Direct economic assistance was pledged in 1951.

In 1954, under President Dwight D. Eisenhower, economic aid was reaffirmed. In 1955 the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization agreed to extend its protection to South Vietnam.

Under President John F. Kennedy, the United States signed a Treaty of Amity and Economic Relations with South Vietnam in 1961. President Kennedy said: "We are prepared to help the Republic of Vietnam to protect its people and to preserve its independence."

President Lyndon B. Johnson has steadily escalated the war effort but has said publicly many times the United States is in Vietnam by request and seeks to help the South Vietnamese stop aggression.

Under four presidents, United States policy in South Vietnam has been to help the people of a country defend their homes and lives. The words "help" and "assist" have been used repeatedly.

Yet, for all practical purposes, the United States is carrying the war burden. This condition came about for protection of American troops. It was learned quickly that too many South Vietnamese would rather run than fight.

Also, the philosophy that the American fighting machine could mop up the situation in a hurry played a part in early handling of the war.

Mishandling fighting responsibilities was another way the United States got a death-grip hold on the Southeast Asia tiger tail early in the game.

Back in 1950 when United States' officialdom was blindly running into the Vietnam tragedy secure in the thought that the mightiest nation on earth could easily handle the Vietnam situation, one voice was raised loud and clear in warning.

Former President Herbert C. Hoover urged the United States on Dec. 20, 1950, to limit its defenses to the Western Hemisphere plus Japan, Formosa and the Philippines in the Pacific and Britain in the Atlantic.

He said fighting the Communists on the continents of Asia or Europe would be "sheer folly" a war "without victory." He suggested the United States steer away from "hopeless campaigns."

American official took Mr. Hoover to task for his remarks. Criticism was heavy. His statements were ridiculed in some quarters.

Time has showed the wisdom of his thinking as officials today try to find a way to turn loose Southeast Asia tiger tail without being eaten alive.

Taking Dead Aim At Slums

A movement is under way that holds promise of being able to do some of the things everyone is saying should be done to combat slum conditions.

It is a program to use a community's human resources in a manner that will do the most good.

The idea is to form a working unit from representatives of the total community including those who know slum living conditions first hand.

There is a statewide coalition in Minnesota. Detroit has its own group. The latest group is a New York coalation. Others are to be formed.

Specific targets are jobs, housing and education. Those participating do so on a voluntary basis. Special teams will be assigned to particular areas that need work.

No one is expecting overnight results. This is one of the encouraging aspects of the program. Any project advocating instant success cannot be taken seriously. Neither can the job be left up to the federal government.

Until local people become interested in local problems and are willing to do something about them, no amount of federal aid will do any good.

Community coalition groups are aiming at solution through involvement. These groups are not to be confused with the national coalition which is primarily a pressure-lobby organization.

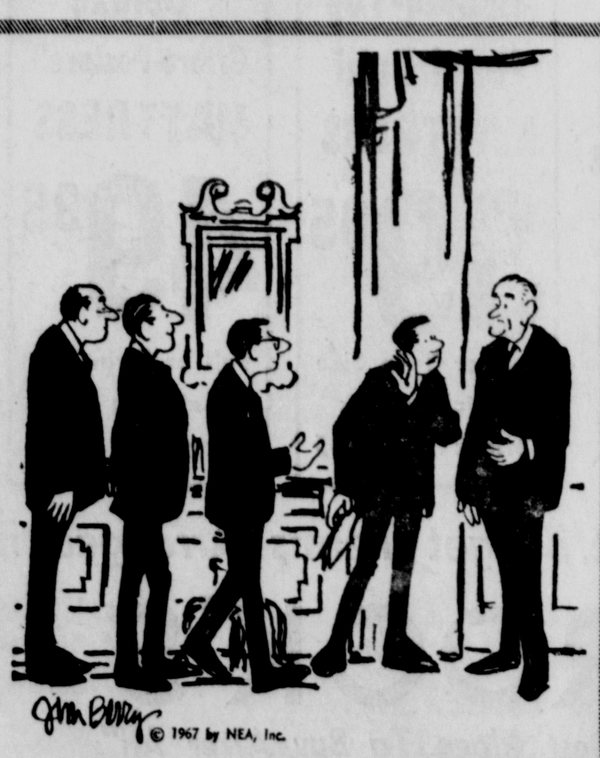

We find thinking along this line much more realistic than talk in Congress about model cities and pouring billions into other dubious programs.

Slums are here. They have been here for a long time. Talking isn't going to make them go away. Money alone cannot get the job done.

Slum residents must show a constructive desire to eliminate ghettos and those outside the slums must work together to provide the opportunity for environmental improvement.

while the store was being checked out, officers said.

Shortly after the burglary was discovered at 8:17 a. m. Monday, police used the registration check to trace the truck to a brother of DiMichele in Steubenville.

The truck was traced to the suspect, who had been using it, and that led to his questioning and the initial steps toward the solution of the case, officers said. Accompanied by Steubenville officers, the local police located DiMichele on a construction job where he was employed as a laborer.

All three of the men were in custody by Tuesday afternoon, when they were returned to the local jail to await arraignment this morning.

Devon and Winters said they went to Chief Cornelius to explain the progress of their investigation and asked his aid. The chief assigned Marvromatis and Tost to help in the investigation at Steubenville, they said.

The charge alleges in each case that the defendants "maliciously and forcibly entered Loblaw's Market on Dresden Ave. with intent to steal property of value."

Police said entry was gained by breaking a hole in opaque glass blocks in the rear of the store.

Youth Held For Court On Laundromat Theft

Rodney Eugene Gilkinson of Cannons Mills was bound over to the grand jury today in Municipal Court after pleading not guilty and waiving a preliminary hearing on a charge of theft of a pay telephone worth $144.85 on Oct. 1 at the Patterson-Wetzel Laundromat on St. Clair Ave. near Grant St.

The youth also pleaded not guilty and waived a preliminary hearing on a charge of destroying property worth $125 at the laundromat. Acting Judge Robert A. Kapp continued his $1,000 appearance bonds.

Another suspect in the same case was held to the grand jury on the same charges Oct. 11. He was identified as David Cunningham, 19, of E. 2nd St. Gilkinson was represented by G. William Brokaw.

ment for the elderly would be realities by now, not just dreams.

Whatever the cost of the coordinator's salary, the city would reap benefits a dozen fold. Part of the coordinator's salary would be paid out of federal project funds; the city would not have to pay the entire cost. There are times when officials of the administration and Council are lax and do not push projects — don't keep on top of them — and the projects lag. This is what is happening now.

But with a coordinator whose sole purpose is to keep the programs moving, the projects could be finalized much sooner and possibly at less cost by pursuing every avenue of participation. In his contacts with various agencies, the coordinator would be able to keep his eyes and ears open for any signs of industry looking for new sites.

2. What do you rate as the most important capital improvements the city should undertake in the next few years?

No. 1 would be improvement of our streets, which have been neglected sadly for so many years — streets such as lower St. Clair Ave., Avondale St., Lisbon St., Shadyside Ave., 2nd St. and the River Rd. These streets and others can and should be improved.

Why can't we, using our own equipment and manpower, team up with the new asphalt plant and come up with a real good long-range street improvement program?

Surely there is a way for the city and the plant management to cooperate in this plan, thereby lowering costs to the city considerably.

We need more ball fields and playgrounds. Our own children —and grownups, too—have been playing 'home' football and baseball games out of town for lack of proper fields locally. This previously was not the case, as we had several ball fields in town. These have been eliminated in the last few years and we need to provide replacements. I know we don't have available land inside the city for ball fields, but plenty of land is available at the landfill site in Bloomfield. The City Park Commission, of which I am chairman, intends to install four fields in addition to the one there now.

New playgrounds already are planned for the city, plus a marina park. They'll make for a happier city. I know these things cost money, but we must undertake them to help keep our younger people here and to help attract industry. I'm just as much interested in the little things that are being neglected as I am in the major things.

East Liverpool needs low rent housing for the elderly and the low income groups. Its construction should help eliminate some of our substandard housing. We need to start covering the East End Run. Many more areas need attention, including extension of the Freeway to the east, construction of a Community Center which is now being revived by the Jaycees, and provision of an adequate dog pound. A lot of these will have to be made part of a long - range program. But don't forget, I'm just as much interested in the little things that are being neglected as I am in the major things.

3. Where and how can the city raise the additional new funds required for federal aid projects and locally - financed capital improvements, recognizing that at present there's very little extra in the way of available money?

I know that the city is in the same financial position as it was before the income tax was passed. All the revenue is being utilized now for operating expenses and there is no surplus for capital improvements, according to the Council finance committee. They are in a position where they are not financially able to propose new, expensive projects unless they might possibly be revenue producing, such as a marina, a Community Center or a port authority, which could be financed out of mortgage revenue bonds.

Until the city's bonded indebtedness is reduced to a point to allow more borrowing, there isn't too much that can be done with the present income. As mayor, I would not endorse any increase in taxation until I had shown the citizens some results from the tax money they're paying now. I do intend to the best of my ability to produce some visible, tangible improvements for their tax money so that if the need arose for additional taxation the voters might be more receptive to the idea.

4. What can East Liverpool and its citizens do to attract new industry or broaden the tax base in any way so that some of the real estate tax load is shifted from residential property - owners?

East Liverpool, its citizens, its businessmen and its organizations have to want new industry strongly enough to fight for it. There's no vacant land available inside the city limts for large industries, but small plants could locate here.

As mayor and "ambassador" I would work hard with any person or group who would be interested in bringing new business or industry to our city.

We should look toward annexation of that area where industry will probably have to locate.

The people who make up East Liverpool can help if in their travels they hear of a business or plant seeking a new site they bring that information back to the city for action, rather than forgetting about it.

Inducements to new industry should be considered. The returns to the community over the years would exceed the investment many times over.

But one way in which we all can help is to be more optimistic of our city's future. Our city is destined to become a busy river port and we should plan now toward that goal by having adequate docking and warehousing facilities along the riverfront and a port authority to administer it.

Death Comes After 40 Days At Viet Front

The district's latest victim of the Viet fighting had been in Vietnam only 40 days before dying of combat wounds Oct. 13.

Army 2nd Lt. George W. Locke Jr., 20, was stationed about 20 miles from Saigon with the 1st Infantry Division, Co. C, 3rd Battalion, 16th Infantry, when felled by enemy fire.

Lt. Locke, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Locke of Cemetery Hill, New Cumberland RD 1, joined the Army in March 1966 and was graduated from officers' candidate school at Ft. Benning, Ga., in February.

He arrived in Vietnam at the beginning of September.

The young officer was graduated in 1965 from Burgettstown Union High School and worked at Weirton Steel's blooming mill before joining the Army.

His father is also an employe of the blooming mill.

Lt. Locke was born in New Cumberland Dec. 23, 1946, and attended New Cumberland schools before transferring to Burgettstown.

A member of New Cumberland Nazarene Church, he was married April 17 to the former Penny Pettit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pettit of Weirton.

Surviving in addition to his widow and parents are a sister, Virginia Victoria, at home; a brother, Benjamin H. Locke, at home, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Iva Beatty of Scio,

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Eva Prefers To Be Known

It's hard work being the beautiful star of a weekly TV series, and very confining, but Eva Gabor, in her third season of "Green Acres" with Eddie Albert, still loves it.

Hal Humphrey

"I'll tell you something I've never told anyone before. Remember the Hungarian revolution in 1956? Well, my father was still living in Budapest and Mama Jolie, Zsa Zsa, Magda and I decided we must get him out somehow.

"I was the freest at the time, so I borrowed a black wig and a refugee-looking old coat from MGM and left for Vienna.

"AT THE AIRPORT there I saw photographers coming out to the plane, and for a second I thought, 'Ah, so my disguise did no good? But they passed me as if I were nothing and took pictures of some politician arriving on the same plane.

"I hate to admit it, but it bothered me and taught me a lesson I never will forget—that is, how horrible to be ugly and unknown," says Eva, very seriously.

Eva wanted to be an actress since she was 4 years old, and claims she is a dedicated one. Whatever sacrifices she made to become one were more than worthwhile, she probably figures after that experience as a "poor unknown" at the Vienna airport.

"And I never could work in the underground. I was so scared stiff those 10 days in Vienna, you'll never know," she adds, with a laugh.

THROUGH FRIENDS Eva was put in touch with a peasant who said he would bring her father out for $1,000. It would not be easy, she was told, especially the last mile or so to the border in a wagon in which the refugees were covered with straw.

"I called my father on the phone and told him we were planning to take him to the hospital, which was the code word, and at the end of our conversation he said, "Oh, it will be wonderful to fly to America and all of us be together again." I was sure someone must be listening."

There were delays, and Eva made several trips to the border where she met refugees fleeing from Hungary. She got more nervous about her father's chances of making it, and after calls to Jolie, Zsa Zsa and Magda, they decided the paternal Gabor would be safer staying in Budapest. He and Mama Jolie had been divorced for some time at this point.

"BUT AFTER the revolution we all had a wonderful reunion with father in Vienna, and tried to talk him into coming to America then, but he said, 'No, I'm too old a tree to replant.' Wasn't that a wonderful way to put it?"

A few years later William Gabor, who owned a string of jewelry factories in Hungary and was the father of the famous Gabor sisters, died a natural death.

Except for Mama Jolie, none of the Gabors has gone back to Hungary. Eva says she doesn't trust the Russians and has no desire to go back even for a visit.

"I'd make a lousy spy, too, because after all the trouble I went to with the wig and clothes to disguise myself, do you know what I did? I registered at the hotel in Vienna under my own name," Eva reports.

AS MENTIONED here at first, the grind of a weekly series hasn't seemed to dim her enthusiasm after two years, although Eva admits the longer the series goes, the tougher it is to discipline herself — "refusing party invitations and getting enough sleep."

She sees costar Eddie Albert more than her husband, Richard Brown, who is vice president of the company producing "Green Acres".

"I still am not fighting with Eddie, though, which nobody can believe, but it is true. We all get along beautifully," says Eva. "And the scripts this season are better than ever.

"I don't see how Jay Sommers and Dick Chevillat do it. They are wonderful. Did I tell you I'm studying two hours a week with Agnes Moorehead just to keep artistically excited? She's wonderful!"

To serve with roast pork: sour cream mixed with applesauce. You can use equal portions of the cream and sauce if you like. Turn the mixture into a small bowl and sprinkle with paprika—for color.

20 Cincinnati Police To Patrol Halls At School

CINCINNATI (AP) — About 20 policemen, half of them uniformed, will patrol the halls of Hughes High School today along with a dozen school officials in hopes of preventing more racial incidents.

Tonight, leaders of four community councils will discuss erecting stronger ties between the school system and the community in another attempt to offer a solution to the wave of disorders.

The leaders from Corryville, Mount Auburn, Avondale and Fairview-Clifton will also be seeking answers to long range problems to avert more racial trouble in the city's schools.

Assaults on a student at Hughes, a teacher at Withrow and another student were reported Tuesday, but otherwise things were pretty quiet, officials said.

Hughes Principal Edwin Sutton said attendance was about 25 per cent lower than usual at the school where disturbances broke out last Wednesday and have occurred every school day since then.

Officials said "the one bright spot of the day" was a meeting between the community leaders who came together with school Superintendent Paul A. Miller "for a positive look at the situation."

Plan To Build Ravenna Trade Center Prepared

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A plan to build a $500 million international trade center at the Ravenna Arsenal has been prepared by the Northeast Ohio committee headed by Dr. Michael J. Rzasa, dean of the University of Akron's College of Engineering.

The plan was outlined Tuesday night to about 400 business and industrial leaders from Northeastern Ohio who were asked to lend their influence and financial support to the proposal.

It will be submitted Monday to a statewide committee appointed by Gov. James Rhodes to consider a trade center. Other proposals from around the state also will be offered.

The trade center would have six display areas for industrial and institutional equipment and agricultural, construction, transportation and consumer products.

Also included would be a supersonic air transport terminal, a domed sports arena, restaurant, hotel and convention facilities.

Pumpkin Show At Circleville Opening Today

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Circleville's Pumpkin Show, on a parallel time course with the spectres of Halloween initiating their yearly rumblings, gets under way at noon today.

Billed as "the greatest free show in the world", the gala, four-day festival boasts of pumpkin milkshakes, pie-eating champions, and thousands of curious onlookers who simply want to see what 200-pound-plus pumpkins look like.

Circleville surrenders the two-block-square heart of itself to hundreds of booths showing canned goods, arts and crafts, and other agricultural wares on which Pickaway Countians pride themselves.

Seven parades, comprising 50 bands and hundreds of floats, will wind through the streets from noon Wednesday to midnight Saturday.

Free acts, which big-name personalities holding the limelight, will be available to festival goers twice daily.

Winner of the coveted "Miss Pumpkin" title will be crowned tonight.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charging that the nation's automobile insurance companies "in many respects do a poor job," a House subcommittee staff report calls for a major investigation of the industry.

The report from the staff of the antitrust subcommittee released Tuesday recommended that the probe be handled by the Federal Trade Commission, a select congressional committee or a subcommittee of the House Judiciary Committee.

The insurers seem likely to undergo some sort of governmental checkup. Two Senate committees also have staff studies of automobile insurance in progress and some members of Congress are pressing the new Department of Transportation to undertake an investigation.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Immigration Service inspectors look the other way rather than stop farm workers from Mexico from being used as strikebreakers, a farm union leader charges.

A Labor Department regulation prohibits Mexican day workers who enter the United States with "green card" residence permits from working on farms where strikes are in progress unless they were hired before the strikes began.

But the rule is widely ignored, Cesar Chavez, director of the AFL-CIO United Farm Workers organizing committee, said Tuesday in a radio interview.

"For instance, when we approached the Immigration Service in Bakersfield, Calif., with a request that they go into the fields and investigate," Chavez said, "we were told point blank that they were unwilling to do so because if they went behind our picket lines looking for the green carders they would incur the wrath of the growers."

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Eva Prefers To Be Known

It's hard work being the beautiful star of a weekly TV series, and very confining, but Eva Gabor, in her third season of "Green Acres" with Eddie Albert, still loves it.

Hal Humphrey

"I'll tell you something I've never told anyone before. Remember the Hungarian revolution in 1956? Well, my father was still living in Budapest and Mama Jolie, Zsa Zsa, Magda and I decided we must get him out somehow.

"I was the freest at the time, so I borrowed a black wig and a refugee-looking old coat from MGM and left for Vienna.

"AT THE AIRPORT there I saw photographers coming out to the plane, and for a second I thought, 'Ah, so my disguise did no good? But they passed me as if I were nothing and took pictures of some politician arriving on the same plane.

"I hate to admit it, but it bothered me and taught me a lesson I never will forget—that is, how horrible to be ugly and unknown," says Eva, very seriously.

Eva wanted to be an actress since she was 4 years old, and claims she is a dedicated one. Whatever sacrifices she made to become one were more than worthwhile, she probably figures after that experience as a "poor unknown" at the Vienna airport.

"And I never could work in the underground. I was so scared stiff those 10 days in Vienna, you'll never know," she adds, with a laugh.

THROUGH FRIENDS Eva was put in touch with a peasant who said he would bring her father out for $1,000. It would not be easy, she was told, especially the last mile or so to the border in a wagon in which the refugees were covered with straw.

"I called my father on the phone and told him we were planning to take him to the hospital, which was the code word, and at the end of our conversation he said, "Oh, it will be wonderful to fly to America and all of us be together again." I was sure someone must be listening."

There were delays, and Eva made several trips to the border where she met refugees fleeing from Hungary. She got more nervous about her father's chances of making it, and after calls to Jolie, Zsa Zsa and Magda, they decided the paternal Gabor would be safer staying in Budapest. He and Mama Jolie had been divorced for some time at this point.

"BUT AFTER the revolution we all had a wonderful reunion with father in Vienna, and tried to talk him into coming to America then, but he said, 'No, I'm too old a tree to replant.' Wasn't that a wonderful way to put it?"

A few years later William Gabor, who owned a string of jewelry factories in Hungary and was the father of the famous Gabor sisters, died a natural death.

Except for Mama Jolie, none of the Gabors has gone back to Hungary. Eva says she doesn't trust the Russians and has no desire to go back even for a visit.

"I'd make a lousy spy, too, because after all the trouble I went to with the wig and clothes to disguise myself, do you know what I did? I registered at the hotel in Vienna under my own name," Eva reports.

Band Boosters At South Side Slate Fish Dinner On Friday

The South Side Band Boosters Club will sponsor a fish dinner Friday at the Hookstown Grange Hall.

Mrs. John McCandless, president, said takeout orders will be available until 5 p. m., with dinner served from 5:30 to 7:30.

Mrs. Ethel Glenn and Mrs. Jean Soisson are co-chairmen. Tickets may be purchased from any band member or the boosters.

The club will sponsor a Country and Western show at the Shindig building across from the Grange Hall Sunday night. Two local groups, Bill Burris and the Green Valley Gang and Frank Campbell and the Travelers, will be featured on the program along with others.

Proceeds of both events will be used to purchase leatherette overlays for new band uniforms at a cost of $1,600, Mrs. McCandless reported. She said all 75 band uniforms and hats have arrived. Delivery had been held up by the haulers' strike.

The boosters made tentative plans to hold a rummage sale in January.

Mrs. McCandless reported on her attendance at a meeting of the Grange Fair Board relative to the boosters' request for an adjustment in the rent of a concession stand at the annual Hookstown Fair in August. She said one of the amusement rides had been placed in front of the boosters' stand in such a way that it partially hid the stand from view. The request was denied, she reported.

The boosters will meet Nov. 20 at 8 p. m. in the band room at South Side High School.

Warning Issued On 'Chasing' In Emergency Run

SALINEVILLE — A warning was issued today by Police Chief Gordon Sweeney and Chief Alvin K. Johnston of Washington Township against motorists "'chasing" emergency vehicles.

The officers said arrests will be made in the future, pointing out it is unlawful to follow a fire truck or police cruiser too closely.

The warning came today as the result of incidents which occurred while Salineville firemen were answering an alarm Tuesday night about 9 at Haiti.

Fire caused some $200 damage to an unoccupied frame home in the village when a couch blazed and burned a hole in the floor.

So shallow is the sea between Japan and Korea in places that a comparatively slight upheaval of the bottom would make it possible for people to walk across dryshod.

Hearing Held In High Court On Copestick

The Ohio Supreme Court heard arguments Tuesday on a motion to certify the record of the trial of Charles Copestick, 26, former East Liverpool resident who has been in "death row" at the state penteintiary since last November.

A jury convicted Copestick Nov. 8 of first-degree murder in the pistol slaying of his estranged wife, Rebecca Mae, 19, as they sat in a parked car June 19, 1966. She was shot five times in the head.

Copestick's court - appointed counsel, Donald Shay and G. William Brokaw of East Liverpool, argued the motion. Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis and Assistant James D. Primm Jr. opposed it.

Attorneys said the hearing provided background on which the Supreme Court will decide whether to hear the appeal.

Shay and Brokaw appealed in June after the Seventh District Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the trial court.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court last November sentenced Copestick to die in the electric chair April 12. The Appellate Court stayed the execution and, on denying the appeal, set Aug. 1 as the new execution date. A second stay was allowed by the Supreme Court.

Ex-Army Grid Star Killed In Viet Action

SAIGON (AP) — Maj. Donald W. Holleder, the most valuable player on the 1955 Army football team which upset Navy, was one of 58 Americans killed in action Tuesday against a Communist force 41 miles north of Saigon. He was 32.

Holleder, father of four children, was in the West Point class of 1956. He was the son of Mrs. Irving A. Cowles of Webster, N.Y., a village near Rochester, N.Y. His widow, Carolyn, and the four children live in Alexandria, Va.

Romney's Offer To Testify Now Refused By Hays

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, has brushed aside Michigan Gov. George Romney's acceptance of an invitation to testify in amplification of Romney's charge that he was "brainwashed" on Vietnam.

"I asked him a specific question and he answered it," Hays said at a news conference. "He wanted to make a political speech."

Romney, an undeclared candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, created a political furor with charges he was brainwashed by official briefings during a 1965 trip to Vietnam with nine other governors.

Last month Hays invited him to expand on that in testimony before the House foreign affairs subcommittee which Hays heads.

At the same time Hays said part of the briefing was done by Jonathan Moore, now Romney's foreign affairs adviser and then a State Department official assigned as a escort to the governors.

Romney accepted the bid by letter to Hays Monday.

Rotary Finds Curve Balls Tough To Hit

Most Rotarians struck out when thrown curve balls by Ralph Finley during Tuesday's noon meeting at the Travelers Hotel.

Finley, local baseball umpire and a member of Rotary, tested the members' knowledge of baseball rules by presenting 10 of the most difficult — unlikely but possibly factual — baseball decisions an umpire might have to make.

Many of the situations actually had taken place in major league games and several Finley had dealt with himself.

For example: "What is the umpire's decision if a runner on third tags up after a fly ball is caught and while running toward the plate is struck on the head by the ball thrown by the fielder and before he is able to tag home is knocked unconscious and tagged by the catcher?"

The consensus of club members: He is awarded the run because his progress has been impeded by the other team.

The correct answer: He was out, one way or the other.

Elmer Eiferd was program chairman and Frank C. Dawson presided.

County Chapter Gets Briefing On New Legislation

LISBON — Legislation was discussed when the Columbiana County chapter of the Ohio Civil Service Employes Association met Tuesday night at the Village Hall here.

Kenneth Mahan of Columbus, executive secretary of the state organization, briefed the group on recent bills which affect state, county and city employes and reviewed further action due when the General Assembly meets in January.

Final nominations and the election will be held when the chapter meets Nov. 21 at the hall. Partial nominations were conducted last night.

Lester Pribble of Lisbon is president of the chapter. Twenty - four attended last night's meeting.

Humphrey May Attend Thieu's Inauguration

SAIGON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey is expected to head the U.S. delegation to the inauguration of Lt. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu as president of South Vietnam Oct. 30, reliable sources said today.

Dispatches from Washington said President Johnson had talked with Humphrey about the inauguration but the personnel of the American delegation had not been worked out.

Scout News

Ninety - four Boy Scouts from nine troops in the area attended a fall camporee Friday through Sunday at Tomlinson Run State Park, Fred Luhrs, camping and activities chairman of the Cherokee District, reports.

Scout leaders gave instruction in various skills, and a camp fire was held Saturday night with Rodger Hobson, staff sergeant in the Special Forces Army Reserve, discussing the special forces.

Roy Duffield and Bud Campbell played the banjo and sang.

Sunday services were held by the Rev. Arthur Sloan of the Etruria St. Church of God.

"Dog days" as a term for the warmest period of summer goes back to the time when the ancients studied the stars. They observed that Sirius, known as the Dog Star, rose with the sun just before midsummer and thus associated it with the driest, hottest time of the year.

Ex-Army Grid Star Killed In Viet Action

SAIGON (AP) — Maj. Donald W. Holleder, the most valuable player on the 1955 Army football team which upset Navy, was one of 58 Americans killed in action Tuesday against a Communist force 41 miles north of Saigon. He was 32.

Holleder, father of four children, was in the West Point class of 1956. He was the son of Mrs. Irving A. Cowles of Webster, N.Y., a village near Rochester, N.Y. His widow, Carolyn, and the four children live in Alexandria, Va.

Romney's Offer To Testify Now Refused By Hays

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, has brushed aside Michigan Gov. George Romney's acceptance of an invitation to testify in amplification of Romney's charge that he was "brainwashed" on Vietnam.

"I asked him a specific question and he answered it," Hays said at a news conference. "He wanted to make a political speech."

Romney, an undeclared candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, created a political furor with charges he was brainwashed by official briefings during a 1965 trip to Vietnam with nine other governors.

Last month Hays invited him to expand on that in testimony before the House foreign affairs subcommittee which Hays heads.

At the same time Hays said part of the briefing was done by Jonathan Moore, now Romney's foreign affairs adviser and then a State Department official assigned as a escort to the governors.

Romney accepted the bid by letter to Hays Monday.

Rotary Finds Curve Balls Tough To Hit

Most Rotarians struck out when thrown curve balls by Ralph Finley during Tuesday's noon meeting at the Travelers Hotel.

Finley, local baseball umpire and a member of Rotary, tested the members' knowledge of baseball rules by presenting 10 of the most difficult — unlikely but possibly factual — baseball decisions an umpire might have to make.

Many of the situations actually had taken place in major league games and several Finley had dealt with himself.

For example: "What is the umpire's decision if a runner on third tags up after a fly ball is caught and while running toward the plate is struck on the head by the ball thrown by the fielder and before he is able to tag home is knocked unconscious and tagged by the catcher?"

The consensus of club members: He is awarded the run because his progress has been impeded by the other team.

The correct answer: He was out, one way or the other.

Elmer Eiferd was program chairman and Frank C. Dawson presided.

County Chapter Gets Briefing On New Legislation

LISBON — Legislation was discussed when the Columbiana County chapter of the Ohio Civil Service Employes Association met Tuesday night at the Village Hall here.

Kenneth Mahan of Columbus, executive secretary of the state organization, briefed the group on recent bills which affect state, county and city employes and reviewed further action due when the General Assembly meets in January.

Final nominations and the election will be held when the chapter meets Nov. 21 at the hall. Partial nominations were conducted last night.

Lester Pribble of Lisbon is president of the chapter. Twenty - four attended last night's meeting.

Humphrey May Attend Thieu's Inauguration

SAIGON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey is expected to head the U.S. delegation to the inauguration of Lt. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu as president of South Vietnam Oct. 30, reliable sources said today.

Dispatches from Washington said President Johnson had talked with Humphrey about the inauguration but the personnel of the American delegation had not been worked out.

Scout News

Ninety - four Boy Scouts from nine troops in the area attended a fall camporee Friday through Sunday at Tomlinson Run State Park, Fred Luhrs, camping and activities chairman of the Cherokee District, reports.

Scout leaders gave instruction in various skills, and a camp fire was held Saturday night with Rodger Hobson, staff sergeant in the Special Forces Army Reserve, discussing the special forces.

Roy Duffield and Bud Campbell played the banjo and sang.

Sunday services were held by the Rev. Arthur Sloan of the Etruria St. Church of God.

"Dog days" as a term for the warmest period of summer goes back to the time when the ancients studied the stars. They observed that Sirius, known as the Dog Star, rose with the sun just before midsummer and thus associated it with the driest, hottest time of the year.

AL Reported Ready To Approve A's Shift To Oakland

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

There is a meeting being held today that may be one of the most important in the history of sports.

It involves the American League club owners, with the chief topic of discussion Charley Finley's proposed move of the Athletics franchise from Kansas City to Oakland.

Baseball has been losing popularity recently, at least in relation to football, and much of the popularity loss has been due to moves by somewhat greedy owners. It probably started when Walter O'Malley, the most avaricious of them all, decided to leave Brooklyn and talked Horace Stoneham into bringing the Giants along to the West Coast. The Giants had fallen on hard times, and had a reason to move, but not the Dodgers, though they had a small ball park. If the Dodgers were now playing in Shea Stadium O'Malley would be buried in money. And if the Giants had gone to Minneapolis, which was then ready for a franchise, the Washington fans might have had a good team to root for the past few years instead of the expansion Senators.

BUT ALL THESE machinations were glossed over and everything was on an even keel until the Braves abandoned Milwaukee for Atlanta in 1965. This was the first time any city had been completely abandoned by baseball, and Milwaukee fans are still extremely bitter.

Now comes Finley. Two years ago he tried to move the team to Louisville, but couldn't get the required number of votes from his fellow owners. Now he has announced his intention to move to Oakland, and seems hopeful of getting the six other needed votes. Milton Richman, New York-based writer who often goes out on a limb, says that the Twins and Angels will definitely vote for the move and that the Red Sox, Orioles, Tigers, Senators and Indians probably will vote for it.

Kansas City has not supported the A's like Milwaukee did the Braves, but the A's have not played like the Braves, either. Since coming to KC, the Athletics have finished no better than sixth (of 8), and last year's seventh-place was the best since Finley took over in 1961. But the attendance has been in the area of 800,000, not bad for the caliber of the team and the size of the drawing area.

Another thing which has hurt the attendance, and the play of the team, is Finley himself. Not only has he come up with ridiculous gimmicks, like a live mule mascot, garishly-colored uniforms and sheep grazing behind the right field fence, but he consistently has interfered with the efforts of the team, manipulating the roster and demanding that certain players be employed in certain ways. These antics culminated this year when he fined some players for questionable offenses and fired manager Alvin Dark because the players backed him.

EVER SINCE Finley has owned the A's, he has indulged in shenanigans that make a travesty of the sport of baseball. If he is allowed to move the A's out of Kansas City, it will give baseball a black eye from which it may never recover. One reader writing to the Sporting News (which used to be the baseball bible before it started covering other sports) said that he would never attend a baseball game again in his life if Finley was allowed to get away with what is obviously a bid for more money. This reader is undoubtedly not alone in his sentiments.

The best solution to the problem would be for the A's to remain in Kansas City, but for Finley to get out of KC and out of baseball. There are plenty of wealthy men in Kansas City and elsewhere who would be glad to run the A's for the sake of sport first and money second.

Expansion May Fill KC Void

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — American League owners were expected to approve today Charles O. Finley's proposal to shift the Kansas City A's franchise to Oakland and then possibly to turn their attention to expansion.

Alhough the owners were noncommittal, maintaining they wanted to hear the arguments before making decisions, it appeared Finley would get the necessary seven votes for the shift.

"All I know is I have one vote wired," said Finley. "My own."

The A's franchise was switched from Philadelphia to Kansas City in 1955.

Kansas City will have a delegation which will appear before the owners, as will Oakland. And from Washington, a couple of U.S. senators have asked baseball to award a franchise to Seattle.

Finley, having made up his mind to leave Kansas City, was torn between Oakland and Seattle. Last week he settled on Oakland where a stadium is available, while Seattle still has to vote in February on a bond issue for a multipurpose stadium.

The Kansas City delegation will be headed by Mayor Illus David and Sen. Stuart Symington. They are not expected to battle to keep the A's in Kansas City, but are more interested in settling for an expansion club.

From Washington, Sens. Warren G. Magnuson and Henry M. Jackson, both Democrats, sent a telegram to American League owners saying "expansion to Seattle will provide true national flavor, bringing in five states of the great Northwest plus Western Canada with its growing sports-minded population."

Before taking a vote on Finley's proposal to move, the league will hear arguments from the Kansas City and Oakland groups and this is expected to bring about expansion discussion.

The American League, it has been reported, does not want to get beat by the rival National League to the virgin territory of the Northwest, and some owners reportedly wanted to see Finley move there.

However, the Cleveland Indians are said to have their eyes on the Seattle area and this would assure Finley of at least another vote to move to Oakland.

Oakland Making Pitch To Land A's Franchise

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Owners of clubs in the American League were scheduled to meet in Chicago today to decide on the plea by Charles O. Finley for permission to move the Kansas City Athletics to Oakland.

A delegation of Oakland officials and sports dignitaries was named to press for approval of the switch.

Oakland is ready. It has the facilities to accommodate big league baseball, and big time baseball would be the last of the major sports to join the family.

The A's home would be in the new $28 million coliseum, a three-story structure that includes a stadium which seats 50,000 for baseball.

The vast complex has been in the works for several years. The chamber of commerce asked Robert T. Nahas, a former president, to form a civic-minded committee to plan the facility for major sports.

Nahas chose former U.S. Senator William F. Knowland, publisher of the Oakland Tribune; industrialist Edgar Kaiser, and George Loorz, president of a major firm of construction engineers, to work with him.

The $28 million complex is the result. It was built on 100 acres — worth $2.5 million — provided by the city and county and $25.5 million in revenue bonds. They will be repaid in 40 years or less out of revenues.

The complex is operated by a nonprofit corporation all of whose officers serve without pay. They include Nahas, Knowland, Kaiser and Lorz.

The city and county are to be paid $750,000 annually each as a rental.

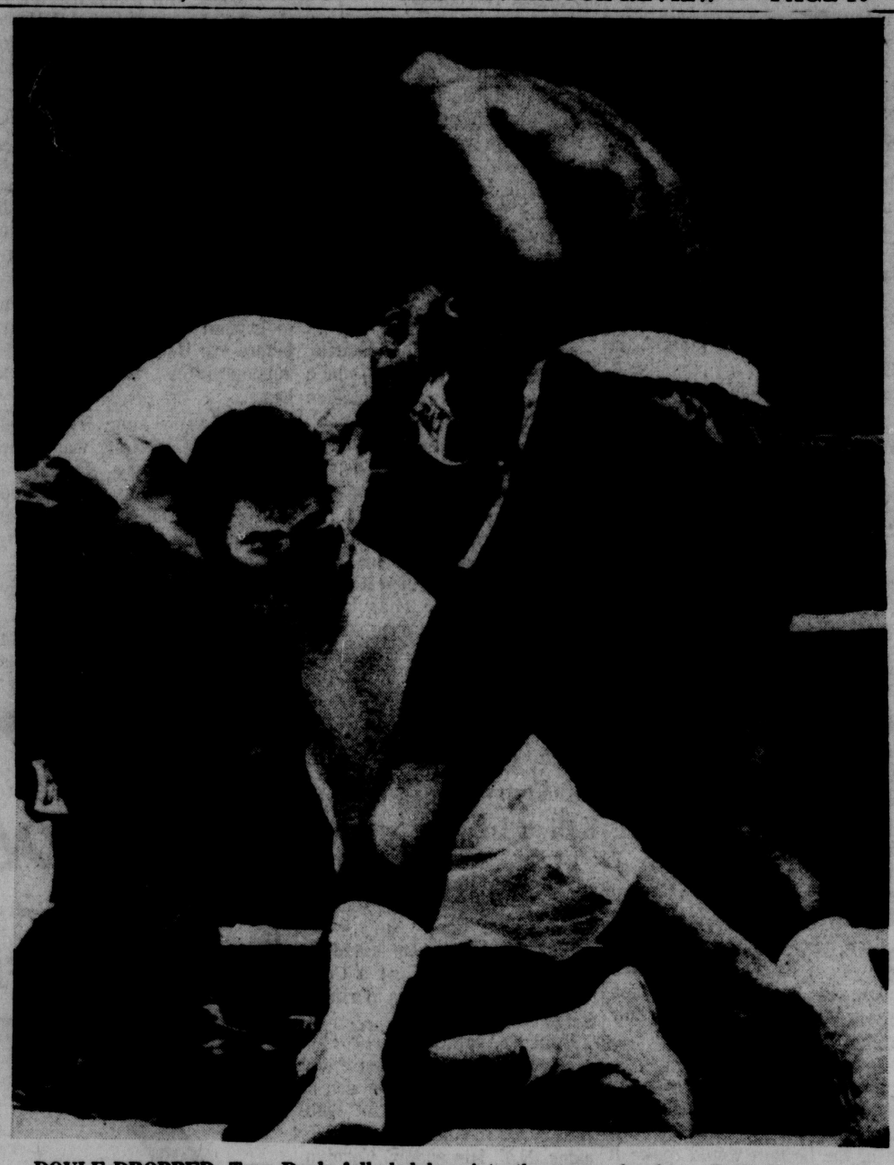

Unsalaried Nahas till is the driving force in the operation. He seemingly gives endlessly and tirelessly of his time and energy, despite the fact he has an internationally respected land renewal development business.

Neither Nahas nor Loorz received any business from the complex.

Nahas envisions a fifth major league team on the Pacific Coast, perhaps an American League expansion team in Seattle in 1970.

Publisher Knowland and sports editor George Ross of the Tribune share in credit for Oakland's becoming major league in such a short time.

As for the possibility of oversaturation of sports, Oakland predicts 6 million population within an hour's drive by 1970 and 8.8 million by 1990.

Frazier KOs Doyle In 2nd

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "We're in college now waiting for our degree," said trainer-advisor Yank Durham after his fighter, Joe Frazier, scored a technical knockout over Tony Doyle Tuesday night.

The unbeaten Frazier stopped Doyle, of Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1:04 of the second round of their scheduled 10-round heavyweight bout at the new $2-million Spectrum. The best way to describe the fight is that it was no contest.

The 23-year-old Doyle ran until Frazier, the one-time Philadelphia meat cutter, caught up and hammered him into submission with a devastating left hook and a paralyzing right uppercut.

Durham, who handpicked Doyle as Frazier's 18th victim, said, "Joe has improved 125 per cent. He's out of high school. Now he can go out there and do what I tell him.

"I told him to stay right on top of Doyle, make him move the way we wanted him to move, then take him out with one good shot."

Frazier, who is ranked No. 1 by Ring Magazine and No. 9 by the World Boxing Association, confirmed his trainer's views.

The 6-foot-4 Doyle, who came here with an 18-4-1 record, had promised the upset of the year against the tough 22-year-old many experts believe will be the next champion.

Mike McCormick Wins NL Comeback Of Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Mike McCormick, a left-handed pitcher who led the National League in earned run average in 1960 and then was demoted to the minors four years later, was named the circuit's Comeback Player of the Year for 1967 today on the strength of his stellar performance for the San Francisco Giants.

McCormick, the NL's leader in victories with 22, was named on 219 ballots in the voting by 356 baseball writers and broadcasters participating in the annual Associated Press poll.

Orlando Cepeda of the St. Louis Cardinals, a first baseman, was second with 32 votes followed by Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs, another first baseman, 29 votes. Outfielder Roger Maris of the Cards was fourth with 21 votes.

McCormick's 22 victories in the past season also tied him for the major league lead with Jim Lonborg of Boston and Earl Wilson of Detroit. In 262 innings, McCormick struck out 150, walked 81 and posted a 2.85 ERA.

McCormick was signed by the Giants in 1956 for a reported $50,000 bonus. He paced the NL in ERA with a 2.70 average in 1960 while winning 15 games. The southpaw pitched in major league All-Star games in 1960 and 1961.

In 1962, he was traded to Baltimore. Plagued by arm trouble, McCormick was sent to Rochester of the International League in 964 and traded to Washington the following year. He posted an 11-14 record for the Senators in 1966 and was re-acquired by the Giants on Dec. 3, 1966.

Tarkenton Offensive Standout

NEW YORK (AP) — When the New York Giants got Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings they were told "he may not win for you but he will make things interesting."

Nobody ever lived up to an advance buildup better than Fran, the scrambling man from Georgia. His wild feats of last Sunday afternoon at Pitt Stadium have earned him The Associated Press nomination as Offensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

If you haven't heard about the Giants' old flea-flicker pass that pulled the game out of the fire, you just have not been reading the papers or watching your television set.

Starting with a routine handoff to Ernie Koy, and developing quickly into a Homer Jones end-around play, the Giants' "Well Mara Special" wound up with Jones handing off to Tarkenton who threw a 59-yard scoring pass to Joe Morrison for the 27-24 win.

But that was only part of the day for Francis. He rambled for a touchdown when Koy, halted at the line, flipped a lateral to the quarterback who sped seven yards around left end for the score.

Tarkenton was hurt twice, once when he was knocked down after throwing a TD pass and again after scrambling to the one. He carried five times for 34 yards and completed 18 of 29 passes for 287 yards an two TD's. He was intercepted once.

Yastrzemski, Cepeda SN Honorees

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Carl Yastrzemski and Orlando Cepeda have been named the top players in the American and National leagues respectively in a poll conducted by the Sporting News.

Also honored in the St. Louis weekly newspaper's 20th annual poll of major league ball players were Jim Lonborg of the Boston Red Sox and Mike McCormick of the San Francisco Giants. Lonborg was named the American League's pitcher of the year and McCormick was named top hurler in the National League where he compiled a 22-10 record.

Yastrzemski and Lonborg led the Red Sox to the American League pennant while Cepeda led the St. Louis Cardinals to the flag in the National League. Cepeda cooled off in the World Series which the St. Louis Cardinals won in seven games.

Cazzie Russell Paces Knicks Over Warriors

By The Associated Press

The New York Knicks didn't exactly waltz home on Cazzie Russell's new half step, but it did keep them a step ahead of the San Francisco Warriors.

Russell, the highly publicized Michigan All-America of two years ago who disappointed the Knicks in his rookie year in the National Basketball Association last season, whirled around the Warriors and shot New York to a 124-122 victory Tuesday night.

His long jump shot in the last second — the last of his 23 points — provided the victory as the Knicks opened their season in New York by dealing the Warriors their second loss in three starts.

In other NBA games, Los Angeles fought off a furious Chicago rally in the final period and stopped the Bulls 107-105 in Chicago; Detroit crushed Cincinnati 131-108 in Detroit and St. Louis pounded San Diego 123-105 in San Diego.

In the only American Basketball Association contest, Houston trampled Denver 102-85 in Denver.

Bob Boozer, who pumped in 36 points, brought the Bulls back from a 90-73 deficit with 17 points in the final session, but Tom Hawkins and Mel Counts split eight points at the end to bring the Lakers home.

Elgin Baylor led Los Angeles with 21 points.

Detroit, losing 61-58 at the half, scored 43 points in the third period to pull away from the Royals with Dave Bing and prize rookie Jimmy Walker leading the way. Bing finished with 35 points and seven assists and Walker 10 markers and 10 assists.

The undefeated Hawks won their third straight at the expense of San Diego breaking the game open in the second period. St. Louis outscored the Rockets in the second quarter 37-19, taking the lead for good 41-40 with seven minutes to go in the half on a pair of free throws by Bill Bridges.

In the ABA, Houston won its opener over Denver after overcoming a 23-18 first-quarter deficit. The Mavericks opened a 46-41 halftime edge and never were headed. Art Becker topped Houston with 23 points and Tom Hoover led the Rockets with 22.

Sophomores Simpson, Phipps Lead Statistics

NEW YORK (AP) — A decisive factor in the rise of the nation's top two college football teams, Southern California and Purdue, can be traced to the remarkable showing of O. J. Simpson and Mike Phipps, according to statistics released today by the NCAA's National Collegiate Sports Service.

Simpson of USC, remains the major college rushing leader with 752 yards in five games. The junior halfback, who sparked the No. 1 ranked Trojans to their 24-7 victory over Notre Dame last Saturday, carried 38 times for 150 yards and all three touchdowns in the win over the Irish.

Phipps, a sophomore quarterback, is the nation's No. 2 offensive leader with 1,087 yards rushing and passing. Last Saturday, Phipps gained 259 yards in 29 plays in Purdue's 41-6 defeat of Ohio State. The leader in this category is Terry Stone of New Mexico, only 29 yards ahead of Phipps.

Stone is tops in forward passing with 91 completions in 198 attempts. His passes have accounted for 1,253 yards and seven TDs, although New Mexico has lost four of its five games. Phipps is ninth in passing with 55 completions on 112 attempts, gaining 952 yards and seven TDs.

In punting, Steve O'Neal of Texas A&M is the leader with a 45.2 average on 36 kicks.

Dennis Homan of Alabama, along with Butch Colson of East Carolina and Wayne Patrick of Louisville top the scorers with 48 points on eight TDs.

The leader in pass receiving is Stone's favorite target at New Mexico, Ace Hendricks, with 38 catches for 675 yards and four TDs.

Frazier KOs Doyle In 2nd

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "We're in college now waiting for our degree," said trainer-advisor Yank Durham after his fighter, Joe Frazier, scored a technical knockout over Tony Doyle Tuesday night.

The unbeaten Frazier stopped Doyle, of Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1:04 of the second round of their scheduled 10-round heavyweight bout at the new $2-million Spectrum. The best way to describe the fight is that it was no contest.

The 23-year-old Doyle ran until Frazier, the one-time Philadelphia meat cutter, caught up and hammered him into submission with a devastating left hook and a paralyzing right uppercut.

Durham, who handpicked Doyle as Frazier's 18th victim, said, "Joe has improved 125 per cent. He's out of high school. Now he can go out there and do what I tell him.

"I told him to stay right on top of Doyle, make him move the way we wanted him to move, then take him out with one good shot."

Frazier, who is ranked No. 1 by Ring Magazine and No. 9 by the World Boxing Association, confirmed his trainer's views.

The 6-foot-4 Doyle, who came here with an 18-4-1 record, had promised the upset of the year against the tough 22-year-old many experts believe will be the next champion.

Tarkenton Offensive Standout

NEW YORK (AP) — When the New York Giants got Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings they were told "he may not win for you but he will make things interesting."

Nobody ever lived up to an advance buildup better than Fran, the scrambling man from Georgia. His wild feats of last Sunday afternoon at Pitt Stadium have earned him The Associated Press nomination as Offensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

If you haven't heard about the Giants' old flea-flicker pass that pulled the game out of the fire, you just have not been reading the papers or watching your television set.

Starting with a routine handoff to Ernie Koy, and developing quickly into a Homer Jones end-around play, the Giants' "Well Mara Special" wound up with Jones handing off to Tarkenton who threw a 59-yard scoring pass to Joe Morrison for the 27-24 win.

But that was only part of the day for Francis. He rambled for a touchdown when Koy, halted at the line, flipped a lateral to the quarterback who sped seven yards around left end for the score.

Tarkenton was hurt twice, once when he was knocked down after throwing a TD pass and again after scrambling to the one. He carried five times for 34 yards and completed 18 of 29 passes for 287 yards an two TD's. He was intercepted once.

Yastrzemski, Cepeda SN Honorees

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Carl Yastrzemski and Orlando Cepeda have been named the top players in the American and National leagues respectively in a poll conducted by the Sporting News.

Also honored in the St. Louis weekly newspaper's 20th annual poll of major league ball players were Jim Lonborg of the Boston Red Sox and Mike McCormick of the San Francisco Giants. Lonborg was named the American League's pitcher of the year and McCormick was named top hurler in the National League where he compiled a 22-10 record.

Yastrzemski and Lonborg led the Red Sox to the American League pennant while Cepeda led the St. Louis Cardinals to the flag in the National League. Cepeda cooled off in the World Series which the St. Louis Cardinals won in seven games.

Mike McCormick Wins NL Comeback Of Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Mike McCormick, a left-handed pitcher who led the National League in earned run average in 1960 and then was demoted to the minors four years later, was named the circuit's Comeback Player of the Year for 1967 today on the strength of his stellar performance for the San Francisco Giants.

McCormick, the NL's leader in victories with 22, was named on 219 ballots in the voting by 356 baseball writers and broadcasters participating in the annual Associated Press poll.

Orlando Cepeda of the St. Louis Cardinals, a first baseman, was second with 32 votes followed by Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs, another first baseman, 29 votes. Outfielder Roger Maris of the Cards was fourth with 21 votes.

McCormick's 22 victories in the past season also tied him for the major league lead with Jim Lonborg of Boston and Earl Wilson of Detroit. In 262 innings, McCormick struck out 150, walked 81 and posted a 2.85 ERA.

McCormick was signed by the Giants in 1956 for a reported $50,000 bonus. He paced the NL in ERA with a 2.70 average in 1960 while winning 15 games. The southpaw pitched in major league All-Star games in 1960 and 1961.

In 1962, he was traded to Baltimore. Plagued by arm trouble, McCormick was sent to Rochester of the International League in 964 and traded to Washington the following year. He posted an 11-14 record for the Senators in 1966 and was re-acquired by the Giants on Dec. 3, 1966.

Cazzie Russell Paces Knicks Over Warriors

By The Associated Press

The New York Knicks didn't exactly waltz home on Cazzie Russell's new half step, but it did keep them a step ahead of the San Francisco Warriors.

Russell, the highly publicized Michigan All-America of two years ago who disappointed the Knicks in his rookie year in the National Basketball Association last season, whirled around the Warriors and shot New York to a 124-122 victory Tuesday night.

His long jump shot in the last second — the last of his 23 points — provided the victory as the Knicks opened their season in New York by dealing the Warriors their second loss in three starts.

In other NBA games, Los Angeles fought off a furious Chicago rally in the final period and stopped the Bulls 107-105 in Chicago; Detroit crushed Cincinnati 131-108 in Detroit and St. Louis pounded San Diego 123-105 in San Diego.

In the only American Basketball Association contest, Houston trampled Denver 102-85 in Denver.

Bob Boozer, who pumped in 36 points, brought the Bulls back from a 90-73 deficit with 17 points in the final session, but Tom Hawkins and Mel Counts split eight points at the end to bring the Lakers home.

Elgin Baylor led Los Angeles with 21 points.

Detroit, losing 61-58 at the half, scored 43 points in the third period to pull away from the Royals with Dave Bing and prize rookie Jimmy Walker leading the way. Bing finished with 35 points and seven assists and Walker 10 markers and 10 assists.

The undefeated Hawks won their third straight at the expense of San Diego breaking the game open in the second period. St. Louis outscored the Rockets in the second quarter 37-19, taking the lead for good 41-40 with seven minutes to go in the half on a pair of free throws by Bill Bridges.

In the ABA, Houston won its opener over Denver after overcoming a 23-18 first-quarter deficit. The Mavericks opened a 46-41 halftime edge and never were headed. Art Becker topped Houston with 23 points and Tom Hoover led the Rockets with 22.

Sophomores Simpson, Phipps Lead Statistics

NEW YORK (AP) — A decisive factor in the rise of the nation's top two college football teams, Southern California and Purdue, can be traced to the remarkable showing of O. J. Simpson and Mike Phipps, according to statistics released today by the NCAA's National Collegiate Sports Service.

Simpson of USC, remains the major college rushing leader with 752 yards in five games. The junior halfback, who sparked the No. 1 ranked Trojans to their 24-7 victory over Notre Dame last Saturday, carried 38 times for 150 yards and all three touchdowns in the win over the Irish.

Phipps, a sophomore quarterback, is the nation's No. 2 offensive leader with 1,087 yards rushing and passing. Last Saturday, Phipps gained 259 yards in 29 plays in Purdue's 41-6 defeat of Ohio State. The leader in this category is Terry Stone of New Mexico, only 29 yards ahead of Phipps.

Stone is tops in forward passing with 91 completions in 198 attempts. His passes have accounted for 1,253 yards and seven TDs, although New Mexico has lost four of its five games. Phipps is ninth in passing with 55 completions on 112 attempts, gaining 952 yards and seven TDs.

In punting, Steve O'Neal of Texas A&M is the leader with a 45.2 average on 36 kicks.

Dennis Homan of Alabama, along with Butch Colson of East Carolina and Wayne Patrick of Louisville top the scorers with 48 points on eight TDs.

Sam Scott Tops Potter Total Offense

Sam Scott took over the lead in total offense on the East Liverpool High football team after Saturday's game with Warren Western Reserve.

Scott rushed for 52 yards for a total of 446 on the season. Earl Diddle, the previous total offense leader, didn't complete a pass and lost six yards on the ground, so his total offense figure dropped from 439 yards to 433.

Jim Musuraca increased his receiving lead with another catch. Mike McVay returned a kickoff 23 yards (it would have been 71 yards except for a clip) to lead in average in that department. Tom Chambers boomed a 44-yard punt to take the average lead in that area.

San Diego Offense Powerful

NEW YORK (AP) — San Diego has remained the only unbeaten team in the American Football League with an offense that threatens New York's league lead, AFL statistics released today show.

The Chargers, who overpowered Kansas City 45-31 last Sunday, closed with 7.4 average yards per game of the Jets as the teams retained their 1-2 position. New York, which held a 30-yard-a-game spread last week, dropped to 382.6 yards per game while the Chargers rose to 375.2.

The Jets did raise their passing average 4.4 to 280.4 yards per game, but again the Chargers cut the gap by jumping 12 to 257.4. Kansas City is the rushing leader with 144.4.

Oakland is the top defensive team, allowing only 189.8 yards per game, far ahead of the Jets' 231.2. The Raiders, second in rushing defense to Boston, have allowed only 110.8 yards a game passing, almost 30 yards better than second place New York.

Greek Wins Pole Vault Looks To World Mark

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Chris Papanikolaou of Greece, who won the gold medal in the pole vault Tuesday in Mexico's Pre-Olympic Games, predicts he will break the world record in the actual Olympics next October.

Papanikolaou, a student at San Jose, Calif., State, beat Dick Railsback of UCLA with a vault of 17-4¾, then failed three times in an attempt to break Bob Seagren's listed world record of 17-7¾.

The attempt of the 25-year-old Greek to break the record drew the most attention of the 12,000 in the Olympic Stadium after John Carlos, a New Yorker who attends East Texas State, had won the 200 meters in 208 seconds.

"I was sure I could do it," Papanikoulaou said. "I think I could have, but I need a special pole. This one is too soft. I'll practice indoors this winter and I'm sure I can break the world record here next year."

Carlos led all the way in the 200 meters to give the United States its third gold medal.

Waldemar Baszanowski of Poland set three world weightlifting records in the lightweight class. He snatched 299 pounds, jerked 375 pounds and had a total of 768 pounds on three styles.

The Soviet Union led in gold medals with five after the first three days with the United States second with three.

Today's schedule was a busy one with eight finals in track and field and the start of the decathlon. Rowers had finals in seven events, male gymnasts one.

Browns' Collier Fears Tough Chicago Defens

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Browns face one of the toughest defenses in the National Football League when they meet the Chicago Bears at Municipal Stadium Sunday.

That's the estimate of Cleveland Coach Blanton Collier.

"They have a young, fast defensive line and great speed in the secondary," the coach told newsmen at his weekly press luncheon Tuesday.

There are two rookie ends on the defensive line, but Collier doesn't look at that as much of a break.

The ends are Lloyd Phillips, a first draft choice of the Bears, and Marty Amsler, who was picked up by the Bears from Wheeling of the Continental Football League.

Collier said he considered Phillips, a 6-foot-3, 240 pounder from Arkansas, "one of the best linemen in the nation last year."

The Bears have held their opponents to 1,339 yards rushing and 88 points. The Browns' defense has allowed 1,724 yards on the ground and given up only 85 points.

Collier said the Browns played "tough, scrambling, but not good football," in defeating St. Louis last Sunday.

"In fact, neither team played particularly good football," the coach remarked. Collier said three viewings of the game film convinced him that his team did not play up to its potential.

He said he talked to the squad Tuesday — and particularly to Leroy Kelly and Monte Clark — about costly penalties that hurt the Browns.

"Kelly is a fast starter, but the rulings were right. He was a full count in motion. Two penalties cost us 80 yards and changed the whole sequence of the game the second half."

O.J. Is OK, Beats Irish, Named Back Of Week

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern California gave Notre Dame a taste of Orange Juice and the Irish almost choked, leaving The Associated Press to toast its college football Back of the Week with O.J.

O.J., of course, is none other than O.J. Simpson, who combined speed and power to help No. 1 ranked Southern California to a 24-7 victory over Notre Dame last Saturday.

When not talking about the drink, O.J. are the initials for Orethal James, the Trojan halfback who made up a 7-0 halftime deficit with touchdown runs of one, 35 and three yards.

The nation's leading ground gainer and a 9.4 second sprinter for 100 yards who holds part of the world record in the 440-yard relay, Simpson carried 39 times in all for 166 yards, most of them in the last half.

His performance was too much for the Irish to swallow as underdog Southern Cal protected its ranking in football's game of the day.

Still, Simpson had rough competition for the Back of the Week honors from two third-string quarterbacks.

Bubba Wyche of Tennessee, called on when second-team quarterback Charlie Fulton broke a rib with top man Dewey Warren already out with injury, tossed two touchdown passes, leading the Vols to a 24-13 victory over Georgia Tech.

Larry Rentz, called "The Blade" because he stands so thin, had never quarterbacked a down of varsity football until he was thrust into a starting assignment for Florida when No. 1 Jack Eckdahl broke a leg and No. 2 Harmon Wages was disciplined.

The frail junior ran 50 yards for one score and directed four other TDs as the Gators trounced Tulane 35-0.

USC, Purdue, UCLA, Nebraska AP Picks

NEW YORK (AP) — Even though the Southern California-Notre Dame game last Saturday came out exactly as predicted here, the week's average was only .712.

The season's figure is .715.

Southern California over Washington: But only after four quarters of rugged football. Huskies haven't lost since dropping opener to Nebraska and their defense is downright stingy—just four touchdowns in five games. Trojans can't win if they still are day-dreaming about last week's victory over Notre Dame.

Purdue over Oregon State: With Leroy Keyes and Mike Phipps in the same backfield the West Coast Beavers are in for a long afternoon.

UCLA over Stanford; Stanford has two quarterbacks in Gene Washington and Chuck Williams bu they don't equal UCLA's Gary Beban.

Nebraska over Colorado: The Buffaloes are favored but it is the belief here that Nebraska will take it out on Colorado for that upset loss to Kansas last week. Frank Patrick to be the star.

North Carolina State over Wake Forest: Wake Forest has yet to win this season and North Carolina State has yet to lose. Both strings continue.

Alabama over Tennessee: Kenny Stabler's deft passing to be decisive in game whose blocking and tackling will be heard for miles in all directions.

Georgia over Virginia Miltary: Wouldn't those Georgia Bulldogs like to replay their game with Mississippi?

Houston over Mississippi State: Warren McVea will barrel his way at will through the sparse State defenders.

Wyoming over Wichita: Jerry DePoyster is possibly the best field goal kicker in college football and gives Wyoming a big edge.

Michigan over Indiana: The Hoosiers come tumbling off Cloud 9 for their first defeat of the season. Dick Vidmer has too much aerial cunning for the young Hoosiers.

Michigan State over Minnesota: The Golden Gophers are finding it hard to score and the Spartans have averaged five touchdowns a game this season against Big Ten rivals.

Cornell over Harvard: The home field gives Cornell a thin edge. The Ivy League title could be decided in this one.

Pete Gogolak Over Injury Working Out With Giants

NEW YORK (AP) — Pete Gogolak, who once feared he never would kick a football again, is working out daily at Yankee Stadium with the New York Giants during a 10-day Army leave to see if he can recapture his old place kicking form for Sunday's game with Green Bay.

Gogolak, a private in the Army at Fort Belvoir, Va. where he helps manage the officers' club, took it easy Tuesday after kicking the ball 10 or 12 times Monday.

"I haven't practiced or kicked a football since last December," Gogolak said in the Giants' locker room. "I do not think I have lost the touch. Naturally, my leg still is a little weak but I feel better after a good rubdown"

Gogolak is a slimmed down version of the man who stirred up a big storm by playing out his option with Buffalo of the American Football League and jumping to the Giants in the summer of 1966. He once weighed 206 but was down to 171 at one stage of his Army life. He now weighs 185.

The Hungarian-born soccer style kicker spent about four months in Walter Reed Hospital after he fell in the barracks.

Gogolak said he normally was off Saturday and Sunday at camp and felt reasonably certain he could arrange weekend passes to play with the Giants.

The final word on Gogolak will be up to Coach Allie Sherman who can make a decision anytime up to Sunday.

Ann Arbor Grid Crowd 2nd Largest

NEW YORK (AP) — The 103,210 fans who watched Michigan State beat Michigan 34-0 last Saturday made up the second largest college football crowd in the 20 years that records have been kept, the NCAA announced today.

The record is 103,235—just 25 spectators more—and was set in 1959 in Ann Arbor, Mich., also for the Michigan-Michigan State game.

In all, the 10 best-attended games last weekend drew 643,789 fans, fourth largest total in history. The top 10's four-week total is 2,535,337, far ahead of last year's record pace of 2,344,170.

E. Liverpool Harriers 2nd

Led by Ted Hoffman, the East Liverpool cross - country team placed second in a triangular meet at Boardman yesterday.

Poland won the meet with 30 points, while the Potters had 33 and Braceville 66. Hoffman was the individual winner in 10:54, Geoff Lowe was third, Mike Adkins, seventh, George Manning 10th and John Keil 12th.

Friday the harriers of Joe Smith go back to Boardman for the district qualifiers, which will draw all AA schools from Columbiana, Stark, Mahoning and Portage counties.

Named Swim Champ

WASHINGTON (AP) — The World Professional Marathon Swimming Federation announced Tuesday that Horacio Iglesias of Buenos Aires, Argentina, and Judy Denijs of Hilbersun, Holland, have been named the world's marathon swimming champions of 1967.

Gets Third Challenge

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yacht Club disclosed Tuesday that it has received a third challenge, the latest from the Royal Yacht Club of Greece, for the 1970 America's Cup yachting series.

Manager Dick Williams, who led the Boston Red Sox to the American League pennant, won the 1965 and 1966 International League flags with the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Toronto's IL Franchise Up For Sale

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Baseball has lost some of its international flavor, with the Toronto Maple Leafs on the auction block.

Maple Leaf President Bob Hunter put the team up for sale Tuesday night, bringing to an end Toronto's 83-years of professional baseball.

The team was a member of the once-sprawling International League, which once extended from Havanna to Montreal.

The Maple Leafs, suffering from small crowds, lost $500,000 over the past four seasons.

But it appeared today someone else believes the team can make a go of it elsewhere.

"We have two interested parties," said league head George Sisler Jr.

The interests are from Evansville, Ind., and Jenkinsville, Pa.

Oak Glen Has Tickets Available

Holders of season tickets may pick up reserved seat ducats this week at the school for the Oak Glen -Salem football game Friday night, E. Russell Slack, principal of the Hancock County school, said today.

Other reserved seat tickets will go on sale today at the Herche drug stores in Chester, Newell and New Cumberland, Slack said.

The principal also reminded that Beaver Local High reserved seat tickets will be valid only on Nov. 10. The tickets carry the date Oct. 20 because they were printed prior to a last-minute schedule change that altered the date of the game with Beaver Local, he explained.

Cards' Roland NFL Rushing Workhorse

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Roland, the Rookie of the Year in 1966 for the St. Louis Cardinals in the National Football League, appears well on his way to the workhorse of the year crown in 1967.

Roland, trailing Leroy Kelly of Cleveland by only 17 yards in the battle for leading rusher honors, has carried the ball 96 times for the Cardinals in the first five games of the season, NFL statistics showed today. In his rookie season, Roland toted only 192 times in 14 games.

Kelly held his lead over Roland last Sunday by boosting his rushing yardage to 405 as compared to 388 for the St. Louis ace.

Although Charley Taylor of Washington is the top receiver with 32 catches for 441 yards, the big average man is Homer Jones of the New York Giants who has averaged 31.6 yards per catch, making 18 good for 568 yards and six touchdowns.

Norm Snead of Philadelphia still tops the passers despite the Eagles defeat by the San Francisco 49ers. The standings are based on Snead's 58.4 completion percentage, 11 TDs, 2.9 interception percentage and 9.24 average gain.

Jim Bakken, the St. Louis place kicker, is the top scorer. Bakken has 58 points on 15 field goals and 13 coversions. Jones of the Giants is next with 42 points on seven touchdowns.

Sam Scott Tops Potter Total Offense

Sam Scott took over the lead in total offense on the East Liverpool High football team after Saturday's game with Warren Western Reserve.

Scott rushed for 52 yards for a total of 446 on the season. Earl Diddle, the previous total offense leader, didn't complete a pass and lost six yards on the ground, so his total offense figure dropped from 439 yards to 433.

Jim Musuraca increased his receiving lead with another catch. Mike McVay returned a kickoff 23 yards (it would have been 71 yards except for a clip) to lead in average in that department. Tom Chambers boomed a 44-yard punt to take the average lead in that area.

San Diego Offense Powerful

NEW YORK (AP) — San Diego has remained the only unbeaten team in the American Football League with an offense that threatens New York's league lead, AFL statistics released today show.

The Chargers, who overpowered Kansas City 45-31 last Sunday, closed with 7.4 average yards per game of the Jets as the teams retained their 1-2 position. New York, which held a 30-yard-a-game spread last week, dropped to 382.6 yards per game while the Chargers rose to 375.2.

The Jets did raise their passing average 4.4 to 280.4 yards per game, but again the Chargers cut the gap by jumping 12 to 257.4. Kansas City is the rushing leader with 144.4.

Oakland is the top defensive team, allowing only 189.8 yards per game, far ahead of the Jets' 231.2. The Raiders, second in rushing defense to Boston, have allowed only 110.8 yards a game passing, almost 30 yards better than second place New York.

Greek Wins Pole Vault Looks To World Mark

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Chris Papanikolaou of Greece, who won the gold medal in the pole vault Tuesday in Mexico's Pre-Olympic Games, predicts he will break the world record in the actual Olympics next October.

Papanikolaou, a student at San Jose, Calif., State, beat Dick Railsback of UCLA with a vault of 17-4¾, then failed three times in an attempt to break Bob Seagren's listed world record of 17-7¾.

The attempt of the 25-year-old Greek to break the record drew the most attention of the 12,000 in the Olympic Stadium after John Carlos, a New Yorker who attends East Texas State, had won the 200 meters in 208 seconds.

"I was sure I could do it," Papanikoulaou said. "I think I could have, but I need a special pole. This one is too soft. I'll practice indoors this winter and I'm sure I can break the world record here next year."

Carlos led all the way in the 200 meters to give the United States its third gold medal.

Waldemar Baszanowski of Poland set three world weightlifting records in the lightweight class. He snatched 299 pounds, jerked 375 pounds and had a total of 768 pounds on three styles.

The Soviet Union led in gold medals with five after the first three days with the United States second with three.

Today's schedule was a busy one with eight finals in track and field and the start of the decathlon. Rowers had finals in seven events, male gymnasts one.

Browns' Collier Fears Tough Chicago Defens

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Browns face one of the toughest defenses in the National Football League when they meet the Chicago Bears at Municipal Stadium Sunday.

That's the estimate of Cleveland Coach Blanton Collier.

"They have a young, fast defensive line and great speed in the secondary," the coach told newsmen at his weekly press luncheon Tuesday.

There are two rookie ends on the defensive line, but Collier doesn't look at that as much of a break.

The ends are Lloyd Phillips, a first draft choice of the Bears, and Marty Amsler, who was picked up by the Bears from Wheeling of the Continental Football League.

Collier said he considered Phillips, a 6-foot-3, 240 pounder from Arkansas, "one of the best linemen in the nation last year."

The Bears have held their opponents to 1,339 yards rushing and 88 points. The Browns' defense has allowed 1,724 yards on the ground and given up only 85 points.

Collier said the Browns played "tough, scrambling, but not good football," in defeating St. Louis last Sunday.

"In fact, neither team played particularly good football," the coach remarked. Collier said three viewings of the game film convinced him that his team did not play up to its potential.

He said he talked to the squad Tuesday — and particularly to Leroy Kelly and Monte Clark — about costly penalties that hurt the Browns.

"Kelly is a fast starter, but the rulings were right. He was a full count in motion. Two penalties cost us 80 yards and changed the whole sequence of the game the second half."

O.J. Is OK, Beats Irish, Named Back Of Week

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern California gave Notre Dame a taste of Orange Juice and the Irish almost choked, leaving The Associated Press to toast its college football Back of the Week with O.J.

O.J., of course, is none other than O.J. Simpson, who combined speed and power to help No. 1 ranked Southern California to a 24-7 victory over Notre Dame last Saturday.

When not talking about the drink, O.J. are the initials for Orethal James, the Trojan halfback who made up a 7-0 halftime deficit with touchdown runs of one, 35 and three yards.

The nation's leading ground gainer and a 9.4 second sprinter for 100 yards who holds part of the world record in the 440-yard relay, Simpson carried 39 times in all for 166 yards, most of them in the last half.

His performance was too much for the Irish to swallow as underdog Southern Cal protected its ranking in football's game of the day.

Still, Simpson had rough competition for the Back of the Week honors from two third-string quarterbacks.

Bubba Wyche of Tennessee, called on when second-team quarterback Charlie Fulton broke a rib with top man Dewey Warren already out with injury, tossed two touchdown passes, leading the Vols to a 24-13 victory over Georgia Tech.

Larry Rentz, called "The Blade" because he stands so thin, had never quarterbacked a down of varsity football until he was thrust into a starting assignment for Florida when No. 1 Jack Eckdahl broke a leg and No. 2 Harmon Wages was disciplined.

The frail junior ran 50 yards for one score and directed four other TDs as the Gators trounced Tulane 35-0.

Little League Football Tonight

Tri - State Little League football action tonight shows Calcutta vs. Newell at Chester. The Pee Wee Game is at 6 and the Big Team game at 7.

The Boston Red Sox won the American League pennant by beating the Minnesota Twins in the last two games of the season.

USC, Purdue, UCLA, Nebraska AP Picks

NEW YORK (AP) — Even though the Southern California-Notre Dame game last Saturday came out exactly as predicted here, the week's average was only .712.

The season's figure is .715.

Southern California over Washington: But only after four quarters of rugged football. Huskies haven't lost since dropping opener to Nebraska and their defense is downright stingy—just four touchdowns in five games. Trojans can't win if they still are day-dreaming about last week's victory over Notre Dame.

Purdue over Oregon State: With Leroy Keyes and Mike Phipps in the same backfield the West Coast Beavers are in for a long afternoon.

UCLA over Stanford; Stanford has two quarterbacks in Gene Washington and Chuck Williams bu they don't equal UCLA's Gary Beban.

Nebraska over Colorado: The Buffaloes are favored but it is the belief here that Nebraska will take it out on Colorado for that upset loss to Kansas last week. Frank Patrick to be the star.

North Carolina State over Wake Forest: Wake Forest has yet to win this season and North Carolina State has yet to lose. Both strings continue.

Alabama over Tennessee: Kenny Stabler's deft passing to be decisive in game whose blocking and tackling will be heard for miles in all directions.

Georgia over Virginia Military: Wouldn't those Georgia Bulldogs like to replay their game with Mississippi?

Houston over Mississippi State: Warren McVea will barrel his way at will through the sparse State defenders.

Wyoming over Wichita: Jerry DePoyster is possibly the best field goal kicker in college football and gives Wyoming a big edge.

Michigan over Indiana: The Hoosiers come tumbling off Cloud 9 for their first defeat of the season. Dick Vidmer has too much aerial cunning for the young Hoosiers.

Michigan State over Minnesota: The Golden Gophers are finding it hard to score and the Spartans have averaged five touchdowns a game this season against Big Ten rivals.

Cornell over Harvard: The home field gives Cornell a thin edge. The Ivy League title could be decided in this one.

Pete Gogolak Over Injury Working Out With Giants

NEW YORK (AP) — Pete Gogolak, who once feared he never would kick a football again, is working out daily at Yankee Stadium with the New York Giants during a 10-day Army leave to see if he can recapture his old place kicking form for Sunday's game with Green Bay.

Gogolak, a private in the Army at Fort Belvoir, Va. where he helps manage the officers' club, took it easy Tuesday after kicking the ball 10 or 12 times Monday.

"I haven't practiced or kicked a football since last December," Gogolak said in the Giants' locker room. "I do not think I have lost the touch. Naturally, my leg still is a little weak but I feel better after a good rubdown"

Gogolak is a slimmed down version of the man who stirred up a big storm by playing out his option with Buffalo of the American Football League and jumping to the Giants in the summer of 1966. He once weighed 206 but was down to 171 at one stage of his Army life. He now weighs 185.

The Hungarian-born soccer style kicker spent about four months in Walter Reed Hospital after he fell in the barracks.

Gogolak said he normally was off Saturday and Sunday at camp and felt reasonably certain he could arrange weekend passes to play with the Giants.

The final word on Gogolak will be up to Coach Allie Sherman who can make a decision anytime up to Sunday.

Ann Arbor Grid Crowd 2nd Largest

NEW YORK (AP) — The 103,210 fans who watched Michigan State beat Michigan 34-0 last Saturday made up the second largest college football crowd in the 20 years that records have been kept, the NCAA announced today.

The record is 103,235—just 25 spectators more—and was set in 1959 in Ann Arbor, Mich., also for the Michigan-Michigan State game.

In all, the 10 best-attended games last weekend drew 643,789 fans, fourth largest total in history. The top 10's four-week total is 2,535.337, far ahead of last year's record pace of 2,344,170.

E. Liverpool Harriers 2nd

Led by Ted Hoffman, the East Liverpool cross - country team placed second in a triangular meet at Boardman yesterday.

Poland won the meet with 30 points, while the Potters had 33 and Braceville 66. Hoffman was the individual winner in 10:54, Geoff Lowe was third, Mike Adkins, seventh, George Manning 10th and John Keil 12th.

Friday the harriers of Joe Smith go back to Boardman for the district qualifiers, which will draw all AA schools from Columbiana, Stark, Mahoning and Portage counties.

Named Swim Champ

WASHINGTON (AP) — The World Professional Marathon Swimming Federation announced Tuesday that Horacio Iglesias of Buenos Aires, Argentina, and Judy Denijs of Hilbersun, Holland, have been named the world's marathon swimming champions of 1967.

Gets Third Challenge

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yacht Club disclosed Tuesday that it has received a third challenge, the latest from the Royal Yacht Club of Greece, for the 1970 America's Cup yachting series.

Manager Dick Williams, who led the Boston Red Sox to the American League pennant, won the 1965 and 1966 International League flags with the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Toronto's IL Franchise Up For Sale

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Baseball has lost some of its international flavor, with the Toronto Maple Leafs on the auction block.

Maple Leaf President Bob Hunter put the team up for sale Tuesday night, bringing to an end Toronto's 83-years of professional baseball.

The team was a member of the once-sprawling International League, which once extended from Havanna to Montreal.

The Maple Leafs, suffering from small crowds, lost $500,000 over the past four seasons.

But it appeared today someone else believes the team can make a go of it elsewhere.

"We have two interested parties," said league head George Sisler Jr.

The interests are from Evansville, Ind., and Jenkinsville, Pa.

Oak Glen Has Tickets Available

Holders of season tickets may pick up reserved seat ducats this week at the school for the Oak Glen -Salem football game Friday night, E. Russell Slack, principal of the Hancock County school, said today.

Other reserved seat tickets will go on sale today at the Herche drug stores in Chester, Newell and New Cumberland, Slack said.

The principal also reminded that Beaver Local High reserved seat tickets will be valid only on Nov. 10. The tickets carry the date Oct. 20 because they were printed prior to a last-minute schedule change that altered the date of the game with Beaver Local, he explained.

Bluefield Tops W. Va. AAA Teams

CHARLESTON (AP) — Bluefield was proclaimed the No. 1 team in Class AAA West Virginia high school football Tuesday with a 103.2 rating by the Charleston Gazette.

Toledo Rockets Blast Off On Grid

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There's football fever on the University of Toledo campus.

The Rockets, better known for their exploits on the basketball floor, suddenly have reached new heights on the gridiron.

Three straight football triumphs, the last a 33-0 romp over Bowling Green, have put the fans in a tizzy.

There's even talk about a Mid-American Conference championship. Toledo has never won a MAC crown.

Most of the hysteria comes on the heels of that impressive rout of Bowling Green, first victory for the Rockets over the Falcons in 12 years.

"You win one game and they get excited," said Athletic Director and Head Coach Frank Lauterbur. "But it's great."

LAUTERBUR, one of the most popular coaches in the conference, knows there is a rough road ahead.

"We just have to continue winning. We can't afford another loss," he said.

Toledo, after a typical hard-luck 20-14 loss to Ohio University in the opener, has shot back with convincing victories over Xavier, Marshall and Bowling Green. Significantly, all the triumphs were on the road.

Next comes Western Michigan, unbeaten in the conference with a 3-0 record and winner of seven of the last eight games between the two schools.

Toledo Ohio and Miami all are 2-1 in league warfare and the schedule Saturday should shuffle the standings.

"I still think Western and Miami are the teams to beat. But we like our new role as contenders," Lauterbur said.

"If Western can win two of three games, they can do no worse than tie. Miami and Ohio have to keep winning but the Redskins have the momentum after two fine games back-to-back."

Miami entertains Ohio Saturday with the loser dropping out of the race.

In other games, Bowling Green (0-2) visits Kent (1-2) and Marshall (0-3) journeys to Louisville.

"I think everyone realizes the importance of the Western game," Lauterbur said.

"If we could beat the Broncos, it would be a tremendous shot in the arm moralewise. The confidence of our squad would go sky high if we could put two good games back-to-back."

LAUTERBUR attributes Toledo's fine showing to the attitude of the team's seniors and the outstanding play of quarterback John Schneider and linebacker Tom Beutler.

"As co-captains, Schneider and Beutler have been terrific leaders," Lauterbur noted.

Any special strategy for Western?

"It's no secret that we're going to throw the ball," Lauterbur said. "Schneider is a fine quarterback. But the fast development of our offensive line has made a running game possible and that makes Schneider twice as effective."

And Lauterbur makes it clear there will be no trouble getting the Rockets up for the Western clash.

"They have beaten us 3-0 and 14-13 the last two years and there's certainly enough incentive to turn the tables."

Toledo's last winning season came in 1957 when the squad turned in a 5-4 log. The best Rocket mark ever was 20 years ago when Toledo posted a 9-2 record.

In a pre-season sizeup of his club, Lauterbur said, "We've worked hard to eliminate silly mistakes. We'll be improved."

He is turning out to be quite a prophet.

They are: President, John E. London; vice president, George Biro; secretary, Mary Sazina; treasurer, Lois Slager. Trustees are Frank McKenzie, Harry Watkins, Joe Slager and James Sazina. Pete Selmon is sergeant-at-arms.

Plans were discussed for a Halloween patrol of rural roads.

The next meeting will be Oct. 20 at 4 p.m.

On the final day of the 1967 American League pennant race three teams had a chance for the title.

2 Local Youths Put On Probation In Theft Of Car

Judge Louis Tobin of Juvenile Court at Lisbon Tuesday placed on probation two of the three East Liverpool youths who admitted stealing a 1966 two-door hardtop here Oct. 2.

The youths, 15 and 16, must report weekly to James Miller, court probation officer; attend church and Sunday School regularly, and earn $1 per week so they can pay $25 each to the Child Counseling Center.

Judge Tobin continued for one week the case of the third youth, 16. A fourth boy, 12, was scheduled for a hearing yesterday but his counsel was out of town and the case was continued indefinitely. The youngest boy's parents chose to retain an attorney when the boys were arraigned Oct. 4.

East Liverpool police stopped the car eight minutes after the owner, Albert J. Dray of 933 Bank St., reported it stolen.

Toledo Rockets Blast Off On Grid

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There's football fever on the University of Toledo campus.

The Rockets, better known for their exploits on the basketball floor, suddenly have reached new heights on the gridiron.

Three straight football triumphs, the last a 33-0 romp over Bowling Green, have put the fans in a tizzy.

There's even talk about a Mid-American Conference championship. Toledo has never won a MAC crown.

Most of the hysteria comes on the heels of that impressive rout of Bowling Green, first victory for the Rockets over the Falcons in 12 years.

"You win one game and they get excited," said Athletic Director and Head Coach Frank Lauterbur. "But it's great."

LAUTERBUR, one of the most popular coaches in the conference, knows there is a rough road ahead.

"We just have to continue winning. We can't afford another loss," he said.

Toledo, after a typical hard-luck 20-14 loss to Ohio University in the opener, has shot back with convincing victories over Xavier, Marshall and Bowling Green. Significantly, all the triumphs were on the road.

Next comes Western Michigan, unbeaten in the conference with a 3-0 record and winner of seven of the last eight games between the two schools.

Toledo Ohio and Miami all are 2-1 in league warfare and the schedule Saturday should shuffle the standings.

"I still think Western and Miami are the teams to beat. But we like our new role as contenders," Lauterbur said.

"If Western can win two of three games, they can do no worse than tie. Miami and Ohio have to keep winning but the Redskins have the momentum after two fine games back-to-back."

Miami entertains Ohio Saturday with the loser dropping out of the race.

In other games, Bowling Green (0-2) visits Kent (1-2) and Marshall (0-3) journeys to Louisville.

"I think everyone realizes the importance of the Western game," Lauterbur said.

"If we could beat the Broncos, it would be a tremendous shot in the arm moralewise. The confidence of our squad would go sky high if we could put two good games back-to-back."

LAUTERBUR attributes Toledo's fine showing to the attitude of the team's seniors and the outstanding play of quarterback John Schneider and linebacker Tom Beutler.

"As co-captains, Schneider and Beutler have been terrific leaders," Lauterbur noted.

Any special strategy for Western?

"It's no secret that we're going to throw the ball," Lauterbur said. "Schneider is a fine quarterback. But the fast development of our offensive line has made a running game possible and that makes Schneider twice as effective."

And Lauterbur makes it clear there will be no trouble getting the Rockets up for the Western clash.

"They have beaten us 3-0 and 14-13 the last two years and there's certainly enough incentive to turn the tables."

Toledo's last winning season came in 1957 when the squad turned in a 5-4 log. The best Rocket mark ever was 20 years ago when Toledo posted a 9-2 record.

In a pre-season sizeup of his club, Lauterbur said, "We've worked hard to eliminate silly mistakes. We'll be improved."

He is turning out to be quite a prophet.

Bill Pancake scored twice for the winners, on an 80-yard kick-off return and a 38-yard run. Kenny Burcham tallied on a four-yard run and he and Bill Jack accounted for the extra points.

Jim Randolph scored twice on long passes from Dean Devitt in the last period to account for the Southern TDs. Devitt ran the extra point.

2 Local Youths Put On Probation In Theft Of Car

Judge Louis Tobin of Juvenile Court at Lisbon Tuesday placed on probation two of the three East Liverpool youths who admitted stealing a 1966 two-door hardtop here Oct. 2.

The youths, 15 and 16, must report weekly to James Miller, court probation officer; attend church and Sunday School regularly, and earn $1 per week so they can pay $25 each to the Child Counseling Center.

Judge Tobin continued for one week the case of the third youth, 16. A fourth boy, 12, was scheduled for a hearing yesterday but his counsel was out of town and the case was continued indefinitely. The youngest boy's parents chose to retain an attorney when the boys were arraigned Oct. 4.

East Liverpool police stopped the car eight minutes after the owner, Albert J. Dray of 933 Bank St., reported it stolen.

Teacher Aide Plan Spurred

The need for teacher aides in the elementary school system in Hancock County was discussed by the Board of Education Monday night.

William Allison, president of the Classroom Teachers Association, presented a plan to board members calling for the employment of 38 in the system. They would work a two-hour day and be paid $1.25 an hour.

There would be one aide for each 150 pupils.

The board was told hiring of the aides would give elementary teachers free time during the school day. They would be used to suprvise children at recess, lunchtime and while they are waiting for buses.

Supt. Robert Hall estimated the costs for the remainder of the year at about $10,000. A full year's outlay for the plan will be nearly $13,000. He termed it not excessive for the services rendered.

Hall added selection of aides should be left to local principals.

Dr. Eli Weller asked, in the form of a motion, that the positions be listed, giving a job description and base pay, and then be submitted to the board during its next meeting.

Group Plans For Festival

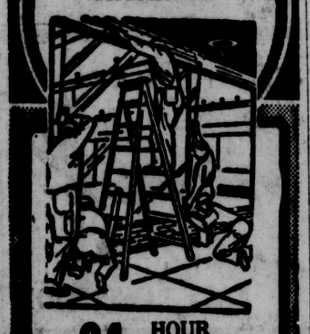

Carl Mansfield, superintendent of the Community Rescue Mission, reminded of Harvest Home Week Nov. 12-30 during the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Rescue Mission Tuesday night at the mission on Broadway.

Items needed include 7,500 canned goods, 20 bushels of potatoes, 500 pounds of sugar, 150 pounds of coffee, plus tea, salt and pepper and vegetables for soups. The items will be picked up if calls are made to the mission.

Mansfield also submitted his monthly report, which included 129 transients helped, 348 meals served and three families aided. He said the interior of the mission has been painted.

Eston Maple, president, conducted the meeting.

The board thanked the committee which compiled the brochure.

Turtle, At Least 52, Put Out On Its Own

An eastern box turtle, known to be more than 50 years old, was returned to his woodland home today after having been the "guest" of an area family for a few days.

The age of the turtle, found Saturday by John Herron and his son, Brian, 13, of Route 30, a mile and a half east of Laughlin's Corners, was determined by carving on the underneath shell.

Herron and his son were hunting squirrel and grouse when they found the turtle. Turning it over, they found the initials JCS carved into the shell, along with "Sep. 10, 1915." This would make the turtle 52 years old.

Herron investigated and found that J. C. Swaney, deceased, owned the farm adjoining his property. The turtle, although found on the Herron farm, was approximately 300 yards from the site of the homestead buildings on the Swaney property.

The box turtle is dark colored, with yellow markings and an orange-colored skin.

Box turtles of this variety commonly reach the age of 30 to 40 and there are records of some many years older.

Herron said he will release the turtle in the same area, with the hope that "50 years from now someone else finds it."

School Board Acts To Raze Fire-Swept Chester School

The former Central School building, a thorn in the side of Chester residents since it was destroyed by fire in 1966, will be razed.

The Hancock County school board, meeting in New Cumberland, authorized Supt. Robert Hall to advertise for bids for the demolition of the structure.

The board was informed by the Industrial Appraisal Co. that the new appraised valuations of the system's physical plants is $17,555,045, $562,711 more than the 1966 valuation of $16,992,334.

The board went on record as granting permission to parents of children whose immunization records have been lost or cannot be obtained to sign an affidavit stating the child has received the prescribed shots.

The resignation of Mary H. Paris as study hall teacher at Weir High School was accepted.

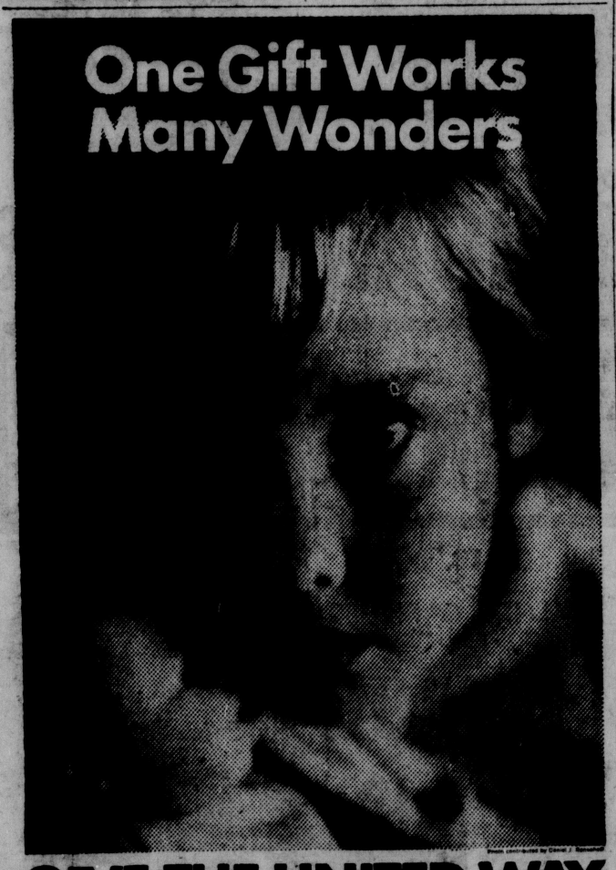

Tabled until the next meeting was a request by Boyd Culley for the use of school facilities for a remedial program for youth in the Neighborhood Youth Corps.

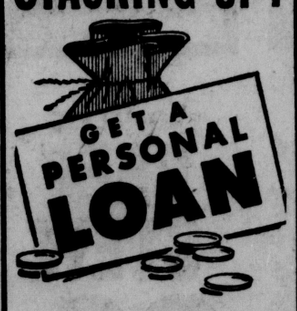

Youth From Midland Selected For Chorus

Chester Post Contributes $100 To Fund

A $100 contribution to the United Fund was authorized during a meeting Monday of Chester VFW Post 6450.

The post will pay 1968 dues for all members who are World War I veterans and a donation of $35 was authorized for sponsorship of a party to be given by various veterans' organizations for the patients at the Oakland hospital in Pittsburgh. M. J. Sweeney will be in charge.

Dues for members now serving in the armed forces were ordered paid.

Christmas trees will be sent to all sons of members of the post now serving in Vietnam.

The group will sponsor, along with American Legion Post 121, the annual Christmas party for children in the vicinity.

William Maple gave the service officer's report.

Comdr. William Glover announced the First District conference will be held at McMechen on Dec. 3.

New members accepted were Thomas Potts, Bruce Lowers and George E. Smith of Chester and Mike Visnick of Midland.

Raymond Moore served as officer of the day.

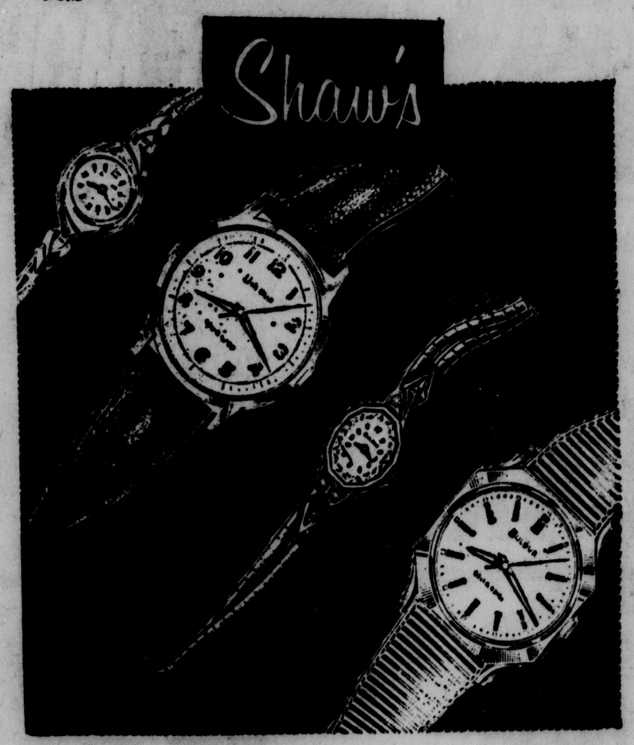

Refreshments were served by Jed Wilson and Harry Hall.

An eastern box turtle, known to be more than 50 years old, was returned to his woodland home today after having been the "guest" of an area family for a few days.

The age of the turtle, found Saturday by John Herron and his son, Brian, 13, of Route 30, a mile and a half east of Laughlin's Corners, was determined by carving on the underneath shell.

Herron and his son were hunting squirrel and grouse when they found the turtle. Turning it over, they found the initials JCS carved into the shell, along with "Sep. 10, 1915." This would make the turtle 52 years old.

Herron investigated and found that J. C. Swaney, deceased, owned the farm adjoining his property. The turtle, although found on the Herron farm, was approximately 300 yards from the site of the homestead buildings on the Swaney property.

The box turtle is dark colored, with yellow markings and an orange-colored skin.

Box turtles of this variety commonly reach the age of 30 to 40 and there are records of some many years older.

Herron said he will release the turtle in the same area, with the hope that "50 years from now someone else finds it."

School Board Acts To Raze Fire-Swept Chester School

The former Central School building, a thorn in the side of Chester residents since it was destroyed by fire in 1966, will be razed.

The Hancock County school board, meeting in New Cumberland, authorized Supt. Robert Hall to advertise for bids for the demolition of the structure.

The board was informed by the Industrial Appraisal Co. that the new appraised valuations of the system's physical plants is $17,555,045, $562,711 more than the 1966 valuation of $16,992,334.

The board went on record as granting permission to parents of children whose immunization records have been lost or cannot be obtained to sign an affidavit stating the child has received the prescribed shots.

The resignation of Mary H. Paris as study hall teacher at Weir High School was accepted.

Tabled until the next meeting was a request by Boyd Culley for the use of school facilities for a remedial program for youth in the Neighborhood Youth Corps.

To Pick One Pledged To End War

LBJ Democratic Critics Seek To Drop Him In '68

NEW YORK (AP) — Groups of Democrats who oppose President Johnson's policies in Vietnam are organizing in a number of states to drop him in 1968 and to nominate a Democrat pledged to end the war.

Some have a candidate—Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York. For 13 months, Kennedy has consistently disavowed their efforts.

All have an issue—the war and what they feel are its adverse effects on the progress of domestic programs.

The numerical strength of the anti-Johnson movement, and its ability to obtain financing, is difficult to determine at this stage.

Dr. Martin Shepard, national cochairman of the Citizens For Kennedy in '68, said recently that this group has some 6,000 members in 50 chapters in the country. At a convention of "stop Johnson" Democrats in Pittsburgh, Shepard said drives have begun in California, Ilinois, New York, Oregon, New Hampshire, Utah, Nevada, Colorado, Washington, South Dakota and the District of Columbia.

In a number of states, the dissident Democrats say they plan to enter a slate of anti-Johnson candidates for delegates to the Democratic National Convention.

The California Democratic Council, (CDC), with 33,000 volunteer members, formally launched such a drive in late September. The CDC specified that its delegates must advocate "an immediate cessation of the bombing of Vietnam, negotiations—including all participants—for settlement of the war so that American armed forces may be withdrawn, and international guarantees of nonintervention in Vietnam."

This slate would be opposed on the ballot by pro-Johnson candidates who include all the top California Democrats.

In New York, the newly organized Coalition For a Democratic Alternative, teaming with the pro-Kennedy group, said they plan to run slates of anti-Johnson delegates in the 1968 primary in at least 20 of the state's 41 congressional districts.

In Seattle, a loosely organized group calling itself "Washington Citizens for Kennedy-'68" says it is starting at precinct levels to elect convention delegates supporting the senator.

A new law in Wisconsin permits voters to mark "yes" or "no' opposite the name of a candidate if he is alone on the ballot. If more than one name appears, the ballot leaves space to note that the voter favors "none of the names shown."

A new group, taking the name, "Concerned Wisconsin Democrats," will attempt to defeat Johnson in the primary, April 2.

"Johnson has become a symbol of our policy in Vietnam," said Donald O. Peterson of Eau Claire, chairman of the organization. He said he had been a supporter of Johnson until this past summer. But as of last June, Peterson said, "there already were people at Democratic meetings in rural areas who would stand up and declare they would vote against the President."

The New Hampshire primary, March 12, is the nation's first presidential test and therefore attracts attention disproportionate to the size of the vote. A pro-Kennedy campaign headquarters was opened in Franklin last Sunday by the city's former mayor, Eugene Daniell Jr. He said a pro-Kennedy slate would be entered to oppose the slate supporting Johnson in the primary.

Daniell said a Kennedy victory in the election would "persuade" Johnson to take himself out of the race, adding, "If this campaign is successful, we are going to make the job of running for president by Johnson considerably less attractive."

Zolton Ferency, Michigan Democratic chairman, says the most likely candidate to replace President Johnson at the head of the Democratic ticket would be one of the President's Senate critics.

"But at present we have no possibilities on the horizon," Ferency said. He said Johnson's unpopularity could spell trouble for the entire ticket in next year's election.

In an assessment of the party's chances in 1968, Ferency accused national party leaders of having decided that "they will name the ticket and write the platform and everybody had better become believers."

In Minnesota, a new group called "Dissident Democrats" is seeking to raise funds for newspaper advertisements that will urge Johnson not to run.

"Montana Dissenting Democrats," another new organization, recently placed a newspaper advertisement which said, "Are you a Dissenting Democrat? Do you oppose the war in Vietnam and want to do something meaningful about it?" It urged the reader to write to the organization's postoffice address.

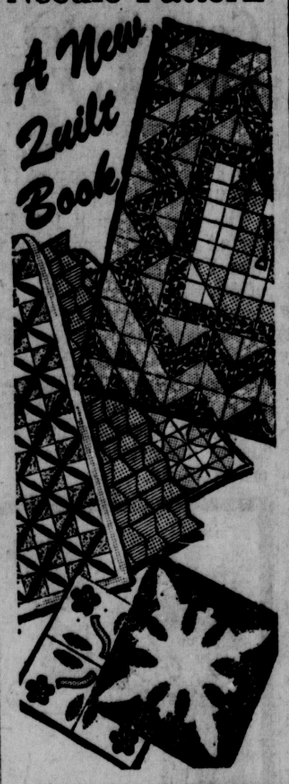

Charles O. Porter, Oregon national cochairman of the Citizens For Kennedy '68 group, said he assumes the senator's name will be entered in the state primary by the secretary of state. If Kennedy has it removed by formal action, Porter said, "We will file a stand-in." Oregon law permits a candidate to have a 20-word slogan on the ballot beside his name and Porter said it would be clear that the "stand-in" would be standing in for Kennedy.

Johnson's supporters generally minimize the potency of the movement to dump him. "They will not be large in numbers," said John Burns, New York State Democratic Committee chairman. "All the major party leaders will be working hard for Johnson's re-election."

LISBON — Shirley C. Short of 531 Walnut St., Salem, arrested here Sunday for a stoplight violation, forfeited a $15 appearance bond Tuesday in mayor's court.

Women Push Hearing On Support Payments

LISBON — "Mothers on the Move," a group which has been picketing the Courthouse since Sept. 29 in the interest of "complete and regular support payments," wants an official hearing of its complaints.

Mrs. Inez Pearson Mason of 145 W. 4th St., East Liverpool, says the cause has noting to do with politics. "To show our good faith, we will not picket the Courthouse Thursday provided we are granted a hearing before the county commissioners or the grand jury.

"Our only purpose is to see that issued support orders are strictly enforced according to the state criminal charge of non-support."

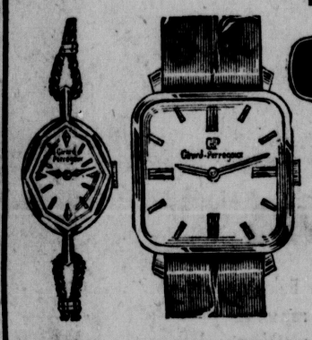

Approximately 50 women attended a planning session Monday night at Mrs. Mason's home. She read a letter from Gov. James A. Rhodes stating that non - support is a felonious charge punishable by one to three years in the penitentiary. Mrs. Mason said the mothers want a hearing pertaining to the inforcement of these laws governing support of children.

The women also are planning to make a plea to Atty. Gen. William Saxbe. They are collecting names on a petition to be forwarded to Rhodes and report several hundred signatures.

LBJ Budget Going Under House Knife

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's budget goes under the knife in the House today. For most members, the question seemed to be not whether to cut, but how deep.

The Appropriations Committee offered a package, heavy with reductions in government payroll money and research, estimated to save $2.85 billion. About $1.4 billion of this would show up in reduced spending by June 30.

Republicans marshaled behind an amendment which would add to this a mandatory $5 billion spending reduction this year.

And individual members with ideas for saving by dropping individual programs were ready with a sheaf of amendments. One would delete the $162 million for partial development of a supersonic transport plane. Others would hit a variety of Johnson administration programs.

There was some sentiment in the other direction also—for example, to exempt particular departments, such as the Treasury, with its tax collectors; the Justice Department, which contains the FBI, and the Post Office from the 5 per cent cut in payroll money included in the Appropriations Committee bill. Sponsors argued that forcing reductions in internal revenue agents or other key personnel would be self-defeating.

A postal official told a Senate committee Tuesday that a House economy move might force curtailment in mail delivery to three days a week.

The House Democratic leadership called a caucus, intended mainly to hold enough party members in line to defeat the $5 billion cut amendment offered by Rep. Frank T. Bow of Ohio, senior Republican member of the Appropriations Committee.

However, the amendment already had gained the support of some important Democrats, including Chairman Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas, whose Ways and Means Committee has pigeonholed a Johnson tax increase proposal pending spending cuts.

Some administration supporters were holding out for the Johnson position that Congress should finish work on the appropriation bills, then give the departments a chance to work out reductions. But the Johnson forces had virtually written off the House, hoping the Senate would deal more gently with the budget and that a compromise could be worked out.

Congress is pressing against a deadline. The basic bill on which the budget provisions have been loaded would continue for a month temporary financing of government agencies whose regular appropriations are still pending. The present emergency money provision expires Monday.

County Offices To Slash Hours Week Of Nov. 5

LISBON — Offices of the Columbiana County Courthouse and Welfare Department building will observe a 3½ - day schedule the week of Nov. 5.

County commissioners have announced the offices will be closed Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 7, for the general ection, and Friday and Saturday, Nov. 10-11, for Veterans Day, which falls on Saturday, normally a half day.

All departments will be closed Nov. 23 for Thanksgiving.

Commissioners Monday authorized Elkrun Township trustees to buy a new truck and ordered a conference desk from the Meek Stationery Co. of East Palestine for $183.99 — the lower of two bids.

Robert Boyce, County Home superintendent, advised the commissioners he has employed Sharon Horn to replace Naomi Murphy as a nurses aide and Ida Ash to replace Raeanna Hobart as cook. The jobs pay $210 a month.

Travel allowances totaling $107 were made for the clerk of courts, county auditor and the dog warden to attend state and district meetings.

Two More Ohioans Killed In Viet Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two more Ohioans were added Tuesday to the list of Vietnam war dead.

The Defense Department reported that Marine Pfc. David A. Hamilton, son of Woodrow E. Hamilton, Springfield, has been killed in action and that Army Spec. 4 Robert C. Wing, whose widow, Linda, lives in Greenfield, has been changed from the missing list to dead of hostile causes.

The Ice Age altered America's topography more quickly than it was altered at any other time.

District Official Guest At Meeting Of Chester Club

Frank Basil of Wellsburg, new lieutenant governor of the Kiwanis district, was introduced to members of the Chester club at their meeting Tuesday night.

William Myers of Weirton, past lieutenant governor, made the introduction.

Two key club members, Robert Gregory and Bruce Davis of Oak Glen High School, were guests.

Alvin Fineman screened slides of Expo '67.

Thayer Allison presided. Nineteen attended.

Writer's Son Arrested On Dope Charge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Novelist John Steinbeck's soldier son, John Steinbeck IV, has been arrested for maintaining an apartment where police say they found a large quantity of marijuana and other narcotics praphernlia.

Twenty pounds of "pot" was found in a suitcase belonging to Steinbeck, police said.

The 21-year-old Steinbeck, who is assigned by the Army to duty at the Naval Weapons Plant here, pleaded innocent Tuesday night to possession of marijuana and maintaining "a common nuisance."

His trial in the Court of General Sessions was scheduled for Nov. 16.

"I certainly hope this business doesn't upset him," he said of his father, "because I am afraid he is in serious condition."

The elder Steinbeck, winner of the Nobel Prize for his writings, is in a New York City hospital for an exploratory operation for a tumor, his son said.

Young Steinbeck, a specialist fourth class, recently returned from service in Vietnam. In his present assignment he is a writer and announcer in a publications unit.

Boost Approved On Fuel Gas Rate For Summitville

SUMMITVILLE — An ordinance providing for a gas rate increase was adopted by Council at a meeting Tuesday night.

The new rate will boost the minimum rate from $3.08 to $3.10 over a four-year period. Officials of Columbia Gas Co. said the general increase will be 2.1 per cent over the four-year period.

W. R. Hochradel of Salem, gas firm manager, conferred with Councilmen on the ordinance.

Mayor Ernest Phillips presented two deeds — one from Southern Local School District and one from Summitville Tile Co. — for an extension of 3rd St. which is now a dedicated street.

Council agreed to have a cement floor installed at the park pavilion.

Discussion was held on the need for more lighting at the tennis court and for planting more shrubbery and trees throughout the village.

Halloween "trick or treat" night was set for Oct. 31 from 6 to 10 p. m. Bills totaling $454 were paid.

The next meeting will be Nov. 21.

Alcoa Reports Decline In Sales

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Aluminum Co. of America has reported a decline in third — quarter sales of nearly $30 million, causing a $7.5 million dip in profits.

Alcoa said Tuesday sales totaled $325,619,565 compared with $354,990,730 in the corresponding period of 1966.

Earnings were 20,753,983, or 93 cents a share, down from the record $28,308,102 or $1.28 a share, for the third quarter of 1966.

President John H. Harper said continued inventory liquidation by major users was a key factor in the decline. He said increased product demand is anticipated in the fourth quarter.

A&P

1859-1967...108 YEARS YOUNG

Who cares if the blueberries in our blueberry pie are wild!

Some people may not care...but we care.
Your grandmother's classic blueberry pies
were baked with juicy, wild berries,
not with today's pulpier, cultivated ones.

So, we're stubborn.
Only wild berries get into our
Jane Parker Blueberry Pies.
In fact, we care so much about such things,
we've made just one big change in the classic recipe:
We bake only wild berries
that are U.S. Grade A!

We've been in the baking business for 50 years.
And that's the way we are about all our baking.

To celebrate our golden anniversary as bakers,
this week, we're featuring Jane Parker Blueberry Pie
at a price that's as wild as the berries...49¢.

If you want proof that caring this much counts,
try a Jane Parker Blueberry Pie this week.

LBJ Budget Going Under House Knife

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's budget goes under the knife in the House today. For most members, the question seemed to be not whether to cut, but how deep.

The Appropriations Committee offered a package, heavy with reductions in government payroll money and research, estimated to save $2.85 billion. About $1.4 billion of this would show up in reduced spending by June 30.

Republicans marshaled behind an amendment which would add to this a mandatory $5 billion spending reduction this year.

And individual members with ideas for saving by dropping individual programs were ready with a sheaf of amendments. One would delete the $162 million for partial development of a supersonic transport plane. Others would hit a variety of Johnson administration programs.

There was some sentiment in the other direction also—for example, to exempt particular departments, such as the Treasury, with its tax collectors; the Justice Department, which contains the FBI, and the Post Office from the 5 per cent cut in payroll money included in the Appropriations Committee bill. Sponsors argued that forcing reductions in internal revenue agents or other key personnel would be self-defeating.

A postal official told a Senate committee Tuesday that a House economy move might force curtailment in mail delivery to three days a week.

The House Democratic leadership called a caucus, intended mainly to hold enough party members in line to defeat the $5 billion cut amendment offered by Rep. Frank T. Bow of Ohio, senior Republican member of the Appropriations Committee.

However, the amendment already had gained the support of some important Democrats, including Chairman Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas, whose Ways and Means Committee has pigeonholed a Johnson tax increase proposal pending spending cuts.

Some administration supporters were holding out for the Johnson position that Congress should finish work on the appropriation bills, then give the departments a chance to work out reductions. But the Johnson forces had virtually written off the House, hoping the Senate would deal more gently with the budget and that a compromise could be worked out.

Congress is pressing against a deadline. The basic bill on which the budget provisions have been loaded would continue for a month temporary financing of government agencies whose regular appropriations are still pending. The present emergency money provision expires Monday.

County Offices To Slash Hours Week Of Nov. 5

LISBON — Offices of the Columbiana County Courthouse and Welfare Department building will observe a 3½ - day schedule the week of Nov. 5.

County commissioners have announced the offices will be closed Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 7, for the general ection, and Friday and Saturday, Nov. 10-11, for Veterans Day, which falls on Saturday, normally a half day.

All departments will be closed Nov. 23 for Thanksgiving.

Commissioners Monday authorized Elkrun Township trustees to buy a new truck and ordered a conference desk from the Meek Stationery Co. of East Palestine for $183.99 — the lower of two bids.

Robert Boyce, County Home superintendent, advised the commissioners he has employed Sharon Horn to replace Naomi Murphy as a nurses aide and Ida Ash to replace Raeanna Hobart as cook. The jobs pay $210 a month.

Travel allowances totaling $107 were made for the clerk of courts, county auditor and the dog warden to attend state and district meetings.

Two More Ohioans Killed In Viet Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two more Ohioans were added Tuesday to the list of Vietnam war dead.

The Defense Department reported that Marine Pfc. David A. Hamilton, son of Woodrow E. Hamilton, Springfield, has been killed in action and that Army Spec. 4 Robert C. Wing, whose widow, Linda, lives in Greenfield, has been changed from the missing list to dead of hostile causes.

The Ice Age altered America's topography more quickly than it was altered at any other time.

District Official Guest At Meeting Of Chester Club

Frank Basil of Wellsburg, new lieutenant governor of the Kiwanis district, was introduced to members of the Chester club at their meeting Tuesday night.

William Myers of Weirton, past lieutenant governor, made the introduction.

Two key club members, Robert Gregory and Bruce Davis of Oak Glen High School, were guests.

Alvin Fineman screened slides of Expo '67.

Thayer Allison presided. Nineteen attended.

Writer's Son Arrested On Dope Charge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Novelist John Steinbeck's soldier son, John Steinbeck IV, has been arrested for maintaining an apartment where police say they found a large quantity of marijuana and other narcotics praphernlia.

Twenty pounds of "pot" was found in a suitcase belonging to Steinbeck, police said.

The 21-year-old Steinbeck, who is assigned by the Army to duty at the Naval Weapons Plant here, pleaded innocent Tuesday night to possession of marijuana and maintaining "a common nuisance."

His trial in the Court of General Sessions was scheduled for Nov. 16.

"I certainly hope this business doesn't upset him," he said of his father, "because I am afraid he is in serious condition."

The elder Steinbeck, winner of the Nobel Prize for his writings, is in a New York City hospital for an exploratory operation for a tumor, his son said.

Young Steinbeck, a specialist fourth class, recently returned from service in Vietnam. In his present assignment he is a writer and announcer in a publications unit.

Boost Approved On Fuel Gas Rate For Summitville

SUMMITVILLE — An ordinance providing for a gas rate increase was adopted by Council at a meeting Tuesday night.

The new rate will boost the minimum rate from $3.06 to $3.10 over a four-year period. Officials of Columbia Gas Co. said the general increase will be 2.1 per cent over the four-year period.

W. R. Hochradel of Salem, gas firm manager, conferred with Councilmen on the ordinance.

Mayor Ernest Phillips presented two deeds — one from Southern Local School District and one from Summitville Tile Co. — for an extension of 3rd St. which is now a dedicated street.

Council agreed to have a cement floor installed at the park pavilion.

Discussion was held on the need for more lighting at the tennis court and for planting more shrubbery and trees throughout the village.

Halloween "trick or treat" night was set for Oct. 31 from 6 to 10 p. m. Bills totaling $454 were paid.

The next meeting will be Nov. 21.

Alcoa Reports Decline In Sales

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Aluminum Co. of America has reported a decline in third — quarter sales of nearly $30 million, causing a $7.5 million dip in profits.

Alcoa said Tuesday sales totaled $325,619,565 compared with $354,990,730 in the corresponding period of 1966.

Earnings were 20,753,983, or 93 cents a share, down from the record $28,308,102 or $1.28 a share, for the third quarter of 1966.

President John H. Harper said continued inventory liquidation by major users was a key factor in the decline. He said increased product d emand is anticipated in the fourth quarter.

1859-1967...108 YEARS YOUNG

Who cares if the blueberries in our blueberry pie are wild!

Some people may not care...but we care.
Your grandmother's classic blueberry pies
were baked with juicy, wild berries,
not with today's pulpier, cultivated ones.

So, we're stubborn.
Jane Parker Blueberry Pies.
In fact, we care so much about such things,
we've made just one big change in the classic recipe:
We bake only wild berries
that are U.S. Grade A!

We've been in the baking business for 50 years.
And that's the way we are about all our baking.

To celebrate our golden anniversary as bakers,
this week, we're featuring Jane Parker Blueberry Pie
at a price that's as wild as the berries...49¢.

If you want proof that caring this much counts,
try a Jane Parker Blueberry Pie this week.

age from 18 to 21. Questioned about their draft status, police said they checked and learned that virtually all of them had been deferred because of physical or mental reasons.

The defendants were identified as:

John C. O'Hara, 20, of 1744 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville; William L. Nesbitt, 19, of 238 W. Washington St., Lisbon; Paul T. Spooner, 19, of 930 Denver St.; Harold W. Boyd of 724 Price St.; William H. Wiles of 607 Dresden Ave.

Gary Ray Ice, 19, of 228½ Ravine St.; Charles McKinnon, 21, of 627 Riley Ave.; Jerry W. Vaughn, 19, of Williams Ave.; Michael Ryan, 18, of 215 W. 7th St.; Charles T. Monroe, 19, of 231½ E. 2nd St., and Vincent Candito, 19, of 115 W. 6th St.

The young man charged with intoxication and indecent language was identified as Robert Higgins of 217 W. 2nd St. He pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs on each charge.

Huffman said a switchblade knife was found on the sidewalk after the young men were taken into custody, but none would admit ownership of it.

He told the judge that police have warned young men repeatedly against congregating on sidewalks in the downtown area and blocking the doorways of business places. He said the men were arrested after police received a complaint that the doorway of the restaurant was blocked.

The judge called each individually to the bench, read the charge and recorded their pleas. Then he called them before the bench in a group to pronounced the sentence. Before imposing the fines, he lectured the group on loitering on the sidewalks in the early morning.

The defendants were charged under Section 600 of the City Code, which dates back to 1908 or earlier.

The section provides: "It shall be unlawful for persons having no occupation or business at such places to gether or congregate upon or to occupy street corners or sidewalks in front of any dwelling or place of business or in front of any place of worship or amusement within the corporate limits of the city."

Shortly after the hearings, the fines and costs were paid in the clerk's office by Ice, McKinnon, Vaughn, Monroe, Spooner and Boyd.

Elizabeth Blackwell, who graduated with highest honors from Geneva College in 1894, was the first woman physician to get her diploma in the United States.

miles southeast of the allied base at Chu Lai. The area has been a Communist stronghold for 20 years and an important water supply route for the Reds, a Korean spokesman said. Korean casualties were termed light in the operation.

3. Infantrymen of the U.S. 9th Division, continuing a search of a vast tunnel complex 30 miles east of Saigon, uncovered more enemy weapons and munitions. The huge cache so far has yielded 1,150 weapons and 142,500 rounds of ammunition, division officers reported.

The battle north of Saigon erupted when the two companies of the Big Red One—about 400 men—and a headquarters command element ran into troops of the elusive main-force 27st Viet Cong Regiment they had been tracking in Operation Shenandoah II for three weeks. The 2,500-man regiment had been heavily seeded with an estimated 75 per cent North Vietnamese since 1st Division troops badly bloodied it in fighting last spring.

In three weeks of sparring in the sweltering, rainswept forests the Americans killed 158 Communists and lost 15 dead but failed to bring the enemy to bay. The Red ambush Tuesday indicated the reinforced Communist forces may be ready once again to meet large American units headon.

"They were set up and waiting just like a cat getting ready to jump and that's what they did," said 1st Sgt. Jose A. Caldez, 35, of Velarde, N.M.

Advance elements of the U.S. force ran into withering small arms and automatic weapons fire from the waiting enemy. Reinforcements were lifted in by helicopter and before the day was over four American companies, some 800 men, were in the fight.

The U.S. force also called in heavy artillery barrages; 105mm howitzers pumped some 5,000 rounds at the enemy and 155mm guns unloading 900 rounds more.

U.S. officers said most of the casualties were taken in an initial "flash fight" that lasted 75 minutes. But fighting continued intermittently throughout the day and broke off only at nightfal. when the Communist force melted into the jungle and heavy growth.

U.S. Air Force tactical bombers flew 47 strike sorties in support of the embattled ground troops.

Addresses Editors Convention

Personnel Problem Cited By Newspaper Executive

CHICAGO (AP) — A New Jersey newspaper official said today that newspapers have a lot to learn about personnel and they are trying to learn it before it is too late.

The official, Malcolm A. Borg, assistant publisher of the Hackensack, N.J., Record, made his remarks in an address prepared for the annual Associated Press Managing Editors Association convention.

He said it seems the every newspaper, regardless of size, has serious personnel problems "whether it be personnel turnover or being able to hire competent people."

"How are we going to staff our papers in the years ahead?" he asked. "Are we doing all we can today to face the challenges and pressures of tomorrow? I refer to higher wages, more fringe benefits and managerial rights."

"We have a lot to learn about personnel and we are trying to learn it today—before it is too late. Newspapers...must have editors who are people-oriented managers, cost-conscious, ethical, interested in all phases of the paper and who have a feeling toward the community they serve."

"We'll need editors who 'feel' their community and want to work for it," Borg said. "It's a long and difficult process to grow an editor."

"Reporters and copy desk hands are hard to come by," he noted. "Have we really tried to create a challenging training program and are we really paying good salaries to people?" he asked.

"Where are you going to get your top reporters to cover such fields as education, pollution, traffic, medicine, science, home repairs, and community problems unless you spend time teaching someone on your staff what he has to know about a particular field?"

"We must attract, lead, train, teach and cultivate intelligent young people into our business," he said, adding, "above all, we must pay them, challenge them and keep them if newspapers are to succeed."

The APME Board of Directors Tuesday announced that the group's 1971 convention will be held in mid-October in Philadelphia.

The 1968 meeting is slated for Oklahoma City, the 1969 site is Hartford, Conn. The APME will meet in Honolulu in 1970.

At a session Tuesday, J. William Hill, president of the APME and managing editor of the Washington Star, told convention participants there is a communication gap between newspapers and their readers that must be overcome.

"Communication must be more than just words on paper," Hill said. "It must be so worded and so organized that it takes fire on paper and burns upward into a reader's understanding."

Hill said that one problem newspapers share is that they are unfamiliar with their readers and publish too many stories that nobody reads.

Catholic Laymen In Unruly Debate

Pope Urged To Liberalize Policy On Birth Control

ROME (AP) — The world Congress of Roman Catholic laymen, after hours of unruly debate, called on Pope Paul today to liberalize their church's birth control policy and leave Catholic couples to choose the contraceptive methods they prefer.

The laymen pressed the pontiff for a firm new statement on birth control that would leave the choice of methods "to the conscience of parents in conformity with their Christian faith and in consultation with trained medical and scientifc advisers."

The Pope has withheld decision on a papal commissions report last year recommending that the Church ease its ban on the use of any birth control method other than abstinence from sexual relations during a woman's fertile cycle. But there have been indications that the Pope would make no change in the policy.

Five hours of noisy exchanges, walkouts and catcalls preceded overwhelming passage by the heads of 103 national laymen's groups of a resolution advocating "responsible parenthood" by all Christians.

The resolution said: "Facing the anguishing problem of demographic expansion, the assembly recalls the need of a clear statement of the teaching authorities of the Church concentrated on the fundamental moral and spiritual values, without proposing, themselves, scientific or technical solutions to achieve responsible parenthood, leaving the choice of the means to the conscience of parents in conformity with their Christian faith and in consultation with trained medical and scientific advisers."

The controversial subject of mixed marriages did not come to a vote as about 20 resolution drafts were left for a final session today of the eight day congress.

The mixed-marriage resolution urges that such ceremonies performed by ministers of the main Protestant faiths be considered valid and that the choice of faith for children of such marriages be left up to both parents. The Church now requires that marriages between Catholics and non-Catholics be performed by a priest and that the non-Catholics partner promise to rear the children as Catholics.

During the world synod of bishops now meeting at the Vatican, several bishops have urged the easing of the rules of mixed marriage. The Pope also has asked the bishops to submit written opinions on birth control to him.

Anti-Draft Demonstrators To Picket Induction Center

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Antidraft demonstrators capped a violent 24-hour period Tuesday night with a decision to avoid new battles with police by shifting to peaceful picketing at the Oakland Induction Center.

More than 20 persons were hurt earlier when police broke up a massive attempt to blockade the center. Nearly 150 persons have been arrested in two days of protest by antiwar groups.

Oakland Municipal Court Judge Delmar Brobst meted out 10-day sentences to folksinger Joan Baez and 102 others who were among 123 arrested in Monday's demonstrations at the induction center.

Sentenced with Miss Baez were her mother, Mrs. Joan Baez, and her sister, Mimi Farina.

The 103 had pleaded no contest and were sentenced forthwith with no alternative offer to pay fines.

The judge offered to give students the option of serving five weekends so they could keep up school work and turned six youngsters over to juvenile court.

The demonstrators strategy change developed at a three-hour rally on the University of California Berkeley campus. One speaker said "too many people got hurt."

Police used clubs and an eye-stinging chemical spray in clearing demonstrators from the center. They cleared a path for nine busloads of draftees.

As he did Monday night, Dean of Students Arleigh Williams warned those at the Berkeley campus rally that they were defying a temporary restraining order. But the meeting continued.

One speaker proposed a delegation to meet with Chancellor Roger W. Heyns and call upon him to denounce "police brutality." Another suggested students picket Oakland City Hall and the police station. Both proposals were turned down.

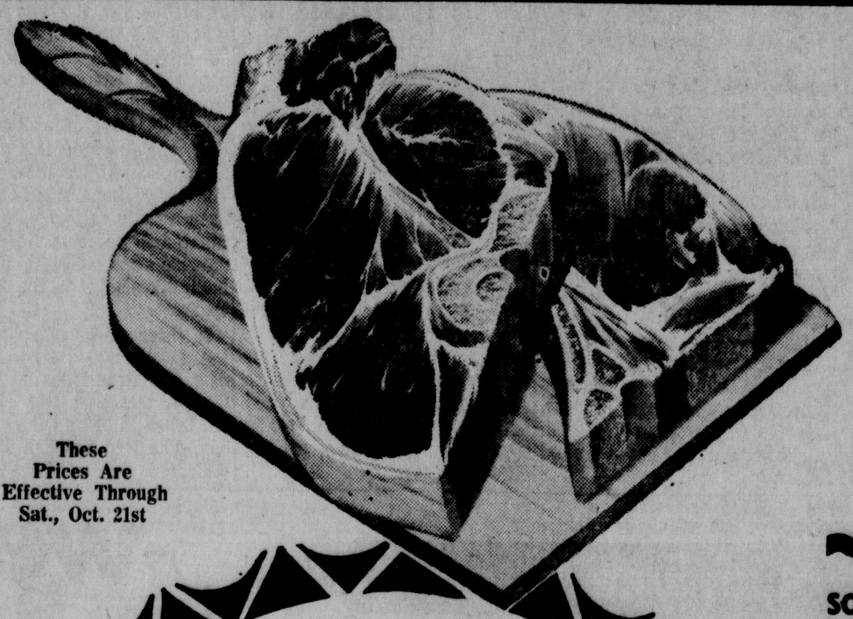

The meeting ended with agreement for peaceful picketing today.

Inspection Scheduled On Snow, Ice Control

The annual inspection of Columbiana County's snow and ice control equipment will be held Thursday at the highway garage in Leetonia.

The inspection is to assure that vehicles and personnel at each of the garages are in readiness for the winter season. Inspectors will stress preparedness for emergency highway clearing and safety practices.

On Sept. 10, 1829, the U.S.S. Hornet, with a crew of 140 officers and men, was driven from her anchorage at Tampico, Mexico, by a heavy gale. No trace of the vessel has ever been found.

Route 7 Relocation Authorized

Council Gives Final Okay To Wellsville Road Plan

Third and final reading was given legislation consenting to the proposed relocation of state Route 7 through Wellsville when Council met Tuesday night at City Hall.

The five councilmen present voted "yes" on the ordinance. Councilmen Jack Call and Glen Mathess were absent.

The legislators discussed at length the section of the ordinance calling for Wellsville to turn over to the state approximately $3,000 that it receives from taxes on license plates as its share in maintaining the highway.

Mayor William Daugherty commented that during the legislators' recent trip to Division 11 offices of the Highway Department in New Philadelphia it was discovered that the cost of maintenance will amount to much more than $3,000, so actually "the city is getting a bargain" in the amount it has to pay.

All snow removal, painting and needed repairs will be handled by the state.

In other business, Council approved an ordinance appropriating $800 for the Police Department for the purchase of new equipment.

Councilman George Lawton said the money will come from unappropriated funds received by the city from the state.

A heated discussion followed a report by Brad Phillips and Robert Taggart that there are many buildings and properties in the city which are health and fire hazards. Councilmen said that the Health Department had been notified by complaining residents and police, but as yet nothing has been done.

The legislators finally agreed the best solution seemed to be to notify Mayor Daugherty of the situation and let him "put the heat" on officials responsible for elimination of the hazards.

Phillips reported progress was being made with the city dump and he felt that for the first time in many years "the dump is on its way to proving successful."

Ed James, safety officer for the Sterling China Co., reported that a blocked sewage main owned by the city was causing flooding conditions at the plant, forcing the layoff of some workers.

Daugherty reported Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare had been made aware of the situation and presently is working on a solution.

Council approved a resolution for the city to pay the expenses of Chief John Hephner to the police chiefs' convention in Cleveland Oct. 23, 24, 25, pointing out this has been the policy for years.

Councilman Paul Todd reported that progress is being made in the installation of five new city street lights, with council then voting to add a sixth light.

On a motion by Phillips, Council approved unanimously action to increase the salaries of elected officials and the Council clerk in the 1968 budget.

Jurors Drop Charge Against District Man

The Beaver County grand jury today dismissed a charge of incest against John Lilly of Smiths Ferry RD 1 after his wife and daughters refused to testify.

Judge John M. Sawyer Tuesday refused a petition to withdraw the charge and sent the case on to grand jury.

Find Abandoned Car

OHIOVILLE — Police Chief Bernard Zlatovich is conferring with Ohio authorities and the Federal Bureau of Investigation in an effort to determine the owner of an abandoned 1967 Pontiac convertible found Tuesday at 3 p. m. in the Beaver Creek area near Smiths Ferry by a hunter. The car has an Ohio registration, Chief Zlatovich reported.

Annual Meeting Held

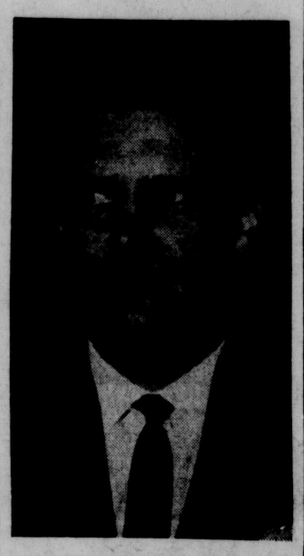

Rev. W. V. Ring Elected CAC President For 1968

The Rev. William V. Ring of near Lisbon was elected president of the Columbiana County Community Action Committee during the annual meeting Tuesday night at the Lisbon Village Hall. Forty - two attended.

Rev. Ring, 35, was elevated from vice president to the post in which Mrs. Helen Welch of Wellsville had served for the second year of the CAC's existence.

Others elected are Orin Smith of East Liverpool, vice president; Mrs. Ruth Jenkins of Rogers, secretary, and Carl Stout of Hanoverton, treasurer.

Smith is an East Liverpool police officer and Stout is assistant cashier at the Farmers National Bank in Lisbon. Mrs. Jenkins had been secretary.

REV. WILLIAM RING
Heads 'Poverty' Group.

Rev. Ring, a native of Chicago, is pastor of St. Jacob's United Church of Christ. He attended the University of Illinois and Kent State University and received a bachelor of arts degree from Youngstown University. He was graduated from Trinity Seminary in Chicago. He is married and has a daughter and two sons.

Elected new trustees at the meeting were the Rev. John Skelbred of East Liverpool's St. John's Lutheran Church and the Rev. E. H. Harris of East Liverpool's Second Baptist Church. Re-elected were Charles Gause, county commissioner, and Miss Viola Harris of Wellsville.

Mrs. Welch outlined some of the completed and current projects of CAC, including "Head Start," Neighborhood Youth Corps, teacher aide training and the planned community center in East Liverpool.

An expression of appreciation was made to Mrs. Welch for her work during her term, on a motion by Gause.

Those attending introduced themselves, and Mrs. Welch introduced the CAC staff, including Miss Catherine Franzetta, director; Mrs. Alta Smith and Mrs. Ann Pack, office aides.

Following the meeting, a subcommittee discussed plans for filling the post of the director for the new East Liverpool center and obtaining a site for the center.

'Adjustment Curriculum' To Be Offered At Schools

A "Life Adjustment Curriculum", continuing through next summer, is scheduled to begin soon in three schools here under the Title I program, Tony LaNeve, educational consultant for the school system, has announced.

While a continuation of a major portion of a program that was in effect this past year, LaNeve said several new phases will be included.

The classes, held for the most part on Saturdays, are designed to assist students at East and Westgate junior highs and in the high school.

A summary of the various phases includes: Art — a laboratory - type program with students working independently. Health and psychological services will be provided in addition to materials and equipment already purchased from a previous project. Reading — featured will be a Developmental Reading Laboratory to help students analyze and evaluate reading content, acquire a better understanding of the organization of written material and gain greater proficiency.

Industrial Arts — intended to provide experience and instruction for girls in sewing and boys in shop activities. In addition to equipment from a former project, other materials will be purchased under the new entitlement.

Physical Education — Recreation — also called Therapeutic Gymnastic Activities. This phase will introduce and further develop basic concepts in physical education and recreational activities.

Music — offers to elementary students who qualify under Title I provisions the opportunity to develop musical skills.

All of the above programs will be offreed in the junior high schools. In the high school a teacher aide pilot program will be offered to release members of the teaching staff from routine duties and to provide assistance with non - instructional work.

One aide will be employed for the school term and an evaluation will be made to determine the possibility of using others in the future, LaNeve said. Also available will be Vocation Education (electricity - electronics), with the aim to increase the awareness of each participant of the education and experiences required to master various skills. Attitudes and behavior habits will be developed that will enable students to work cooperatively with others. Potential dropouts will be kept in school by meeting their interests and needs in this vocational area.

Annual Meeting Held

Rev. W. V. Ring Elected CAC President For 1968

The Rev. William V. Ring of near Lisbon was elected president of the Columbiana County Community Action Committee during the annual meeting Tuesday night at the Lisbon Village Hall. Forty - two attended.

Rev. Ring, 35, was elevated from vice president to the post in which Mrs. Helen Welch of Wellsville had served for the second year of the CAC's existence.

Others elected are Orin Smith of East Liverpool, vice president; Mrs. Ruth Jenkins of Rogers, secretary, and Carl Stout of Hanoverton, treasurer.

Smith is an East Liverpool police officer and Stout is assistant cashier at the Farmers National Bank in Lisbon. Mrs. Jenkins had been secretary.

Rev. Ring, a native of Chicago, is pastor of St. Jacob's United Church of Christ. He attended the University of Illinois and Kent State University and received a bachelor of arts degree from Youngstown University. He was graduated from Trinity Seminary in Chicago. He is married and has a daughter and two sons.

Elected new trustees at the meeting were the Rev. John Skelbred of East Liverpool's St. John's Lutheran Church and the Rev. E. H. Harris of East Liverpool's Second Baptist Church. Re-elected were Charles Gause, county commissioner, and Miss Viola Harris of Wellsville.

Mrs. Welch outlined some of the completed and current projects of CAC, including "Head Start," Neighborhood Youth Corps, teacher aide training and the planned community center in East Liverpool.

REV. WILLIAM RING
Heads 'Poverty' Group.

An expression of appreciation was made to Mrs. Welch for her work during her term, on a motion by Gause.

Those attending introduced themselves, and Mrs. Welch introduced the CAC staff, including Miss Catherine Franzetta, director; Mrs. Alta Smith and Mrs. Ann Pack, office aides.

Following the meeting, a subcommittee discussed plans for filling the post of the director for the new East Liverpool center and obtaining a site for the center.

'Adjustment Curriculum' To Be Offered At Schools

A "Life Adjustment Curriculum", continuing through next summer, is scheduled to begin soon in three schools here under the Title I program, Tony LaNeve, educational consultant for the school system, has announced.

While a continuation of a major portion of a program that was in effect this past year, LaNeve said several new phases will be included.

The classes, held for the most part on Saturdays, are designed to assist students at East and Westgate junior highs and in the high school.

A summary of the various phases includes: Art — a laboratory - type program with students working independently. Health and psychological services will be provided in addition to materials and equipment already purchased from a previous project. Reading — featured will be a Developmental Reading Laboratory to help students analyze and evaluate reading content, acquire a better understanding of the organization of written material and gain greater proficiency.

Industrial Arts — intended to provide experience and instruction for girls in sewing and boys in shop activities. In addition to equipment from a former project, other materials will be purchased under the new entitlement.

Physical Education — Recreation — also called Therapeutic Gymnastic Activities. This phase will introduce and further develop basic concepts in physical education and recreational activities.

Music — offers to elementary students who qualify under Title I provisions the opportunity to develop musical skills.

All of the above programs will be offreed in the junior high schools. In the high school a teacher aide pilot program will be offered to release members of the teaching staff from routine duties and to provide assistance with non - instructional work.

One aide will be employed for the school term and an evaluation will be made to determine the possibility of using others in the future, LaNeve said. Also available will be Vocation Education (electricity - electronics), with the aim to increase the awareness of each participant of the education and experiences required to master various skills. Attitudes and behavior habits will be developed that will enable students to work cooperatively with others. Potential dropouts will be kept in school by meeting their interests and needs in this vocational area.

Route 7 Relocation Authorized

Council Gives Final Okay To Wellsville Road Plan

Third and final reading was given legislation consenting to the proposed relocation of state Route 7 through Wellsville when Council met Tuesday night at City Hall.

The five councilmen present voted "yes" on the ordinance. Councilmen Jack Call and Glen Mathess were absent.

The legislators discussed at length the section of the ordinance calling for Wellsville to turn over to the state approximately $3,000 that it receives from taxes on license plates as its share in maintaining the highway.

Mayor William Daugherty commented that during the legislators' recent trip to Division 11 offices of the Highway Department in New Philadelphia it was discovered that the cost of maintenance will amount to much more than $3,000, so actually "the city is getting a bargain" in the amount it has to pay.

All snow removal, painting and needed repairs will be handled by the state.

In other business, Council approved an ordinance appropriating $800 for the Police Department for the purchase of new equipment.

Councilman George Lawton said the money will come from unappropriated funds received by the city from the state.

A heated discussion followed a report by Brad Phillips and Robert Taggart that there are many buildings and properties in the city which are health and fire hazards. Councilmen said that the Health Department had been notified by complaining residents and police, but as yet nothing has been done.

The legislators finally agreed the best solution seemed to be to notify Mayor Daugherty of the situation and let him "put the heat" on officials responsible for elimination of the hazards.

Phillips reported progress was being made with the city dump and he felt that for the first time in many years "the dump is on its way to proving successful."

Ed James, safety officer for the Sterling China Co., reported that a blocked sewage main owned by the city was causing flooding conditions at the plant, forcing the layoff of some workers.

Daugherty reported Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare had been made aware of the situation and presently is working on a solution.

Council approved a resolution for the city to pay the expenses of Chief John Hephner to the police chiefs' convention in Cleveland Oct. 23, 24, 25, pointing out this has been the policy for years.

Councilman Paul Todd reported that progress is being made in the installation of five new city street lights, with council then voting to add a sixth light.

On a motion by Phillips, Council approved unanimously action to increase the salaries of elected officials and the Council clerk in the 1968 budget.

Jurors Drop Charge Against District Man

The Beaver County grand jury today dismissed a charge of incest against John Lilly of Smiths Ferry RD 1 after his wife and daughters refused to testify.

Judge John M. Sawyer Tuesday refused a petition to withdraw the charge and sent the case on to grand jury.

Negro Accomplishments Emphasized By Speaker

Milo Manley, deputy director of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission, discussed "Understanding" when the Midland Human Relations Commission met Monday at noon at the plant management dining room of the Midland Division of the Crucible Steel Co.

In his remarks, Manley urged that a study of the Negro be made to show his accomplishments. He said there is a general misunderstanding caused by a lack of knowledge of the history of the Negro.

Manley and other representatives of the commission were among 22 attending the event. They toured the Flat Roll Division of Crucible in the morning. The guests were welcomed by John Strand, president of the Midland Division, representing industry; William Vinovich Sr., representing the Midland Borough Council, and Charles P. Henderson, school superintendent.

Paul McGovern, vice president, reported as chairman of the third anniversary luncheon which was held in September.

Gifts presented to the guests included stainless pencils and serving trays.

James E. Morrison, secretary, announced that Strand will be guest speaker at the Dec. 18 meeting. Information on the November meeting will be announced later, he said.

Test Period Set On Bus Loading Plan At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Relocation of a bus loading area for a trial period was approved by Council at a meeting Monday night.

The Ohio Valley Charter Service had earlier requested the change of the bus loading area from the present location on E. Main St. to N. Market St. and E. Taggart St. — nearer the main business district — for the convenience of passengers.

The firm operates a run to Youngstown. Councilmen had been concerned about buses blocking the view of motorists turning from E. Taggart St.

However, the firm reported it is operating smaller buses which should not block the view. Council authorized the 30-day test period starting Oct. 30.

Residents Reminded Of Credit Union Week

The Crucible Employes Federal Credit Union at Midland has urged residents of the area to join in the observance of International Credit Union Week which started Sunday.

Officers of the credit union said the observance is held "to encourage thrift, promote the wise use of credit and combat usury and unfair credit practices."

The Midland unit has 3,818 members and assets of $3,239,337, according to F. G. Wilton, treasurer.

The high school band was is charge of the grid game ceremonies and an informal dance afterward.

Report Reveals Fine Levied In Gambling Charge

A Weirton resident was fined Monday as the aftermath of a raid conducted on his cigar store Saturday which sheriff's deputies had not originally reported.

Emidio Julian, 40, of 106 Miller Ave., Weirton, operator of the Corner Cigar Store on Main St., paid $55 in fines and costs on a charge of possession of gambling equipment.

Deputies raided the store about 1:20 p. m. Saturday.

Squire Thomas Bellanco, who conducted the hearing yesterday afternoon, said Julian was charged with conducting a lottery, numbers and football pools.

Man's Hearing Slated On 2 Traffic Charges

Acting Judge Robert A. Kapp today scheduled a hearing Friday at 9:30 a. m. for Frederick Luther Cain, 23, of 7th Ave., LaCroft, who was cited by police on charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol and leaving the scene of an accident.

Officers cited Cain Friday about 10:30 p. m. after his auto collided with another on Dresden Ave. at Smith St. and then struck a utility pole a few minutes later in the 700 block of Lisbon St.

Hearing Date Reset In Case At Midland

A hearing scheduled for Monday night for George Jones, 39, of 359 Penn Ave., Midland, on charges of aggravated assault and battery and disorderly conduct has been rescheduled for Saturday at 7 p. m. by Squire Stephen Germusa.

The charges stem from an argument Jones had over a card game with Clarence Flack of 174 5th St., Midland, last Wednesday morning. Flack was hospitalized and remains a patient at Rochester General Hospital with multiple cuts of face, chest arms and legs.

Beer, Lighters, Cash Taken At Homeworth

HOMEWORTH — A burglar took four cases of beer, eight cigarette lighters and $15 in cash Sunday night at Penrod Lunch and Recreation.

William Penrod discovered the burglary about 11 a. m. Monday. Sheriff's Deputy Howard Gray said the thief apparently got in through a small window in a washroom. Penrod had closed the lunchroom about 11:30 p. m. Sunday.

Second Report Meeting Held

Midland Area Fund Drive Hits 84 Per Cent Of Goal

The Midland Area United Fund Drive has reached 84.5 per cent of its $74,116 goal, it was announced during the second report meeting Monday night at the administration building of the Midland Division of the Crucible Steel Co.

Edwin L. Marsh of Brighton Township, general campaign chairman, said volunteers reported $8,235 in donations and pledges, for a grand total of $62,620 to date.

MARSH ASKED all division chairmen to complete their solicitations by the next report meeting Oct. 30 at 7:30 p. m. at the administration building. This will be the final report.

He asked for an extra effort by volunteers in areas where solicitations have been low or where there have been no reports.

This year's campaign goal is approximately 6 per cent greater than last year.

Only one division, attorneys and funeral homes, headed by Atty. Frank Suffoletta of Midland, reported over 100 per cent of the goal. His area reported $175, or 106 per cent.

The manufacturing division, responsible for the greatest portion of campaign funds, reported $60,250, or 94 per cent. W. E. Lynch of Beaver is chairman.

Industry Borough reported $109, or 84 per cent; clubs and organizations, $65, and real estate and insurance, $125, both 76 per cent; special gifts, $76, or 58 per cent; retail trade, $647, or 54 per cent; building trades and transportation, $800, or 43 per cent; education, $333, or 29 per cent; Midland residential, $25, or 8 per cent, and medical doctors and dentists, $10, or 2.5 per cent.

SEVERAL divisions have made no reports. They include public service, government, and Ohioville - Meadowbrook residential. Residential solicitations are expected to increase now as industrial drives are completed.

In the retail trade division, automotive and service stations have reported $73, or 28 per cent, of their sectional goals; barbers and beauticians $64, for 58 per cent; drugs and jewelry $30, for 35 per cent; food $125, for 58 per cent; furniture and hardware $75, for 83 per cent; general merchandise $100, for 57 per cent; restaurants and cafes $60, for 46 per cent, and wearing apparel, $120 for 92 per cent.

Following the report, the Board of Directors met, with Earl Rankin, vice president, presiding. The admissions and allocation committee reported $500, representing the third- and fourth-quarter payments, has been paid the Midland Hot Stove League.

Nile H. Wain, executive secretary, said $1,861 has been paid to the Beaver County UF as Midland's share of this year's campaign expenses.

The directors voted to pay $15,481 to the county fund for the last quarterly payment of the 1966-67 campaign year.

Dr. Thomas Bontiglio of Industry, a Midland dentist, was elected to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Edward Gronceski, who resigned when he moved from the area.

Endorsements Are Set By Wellsville Jaycees

An endorsement of the three proposed tax levies for Wellsville and of Ralph Fusco as a write-in candidate for the office of board of education highlighted the meeting of the Wellsville Jaycees Monday night.

The Jaycees also endorsed Dr. Frank Rivelle for school board and Jack Call, Nunzio Lombardozzi and James Saracco for Council.

There are three vacancies on the school board, with only two candidates having filed.

The three levies endorsed are the new five-mill school tax, the floodwall levy and the fire levy.

In other business, the Jaycees announced they were presented a "blue chip" award during the September meeting of the Ohio board. The award, the highest a chapter can receive, is presented for having "excellent chapter management, leadership training, community development and membership growth."

Fusco was presented a pair of gold cuff links and tie clasp as the award was achieved while he was president.

Fusco announced that the Junior Miss contest will be held Nov. 25 at Westgate Auditorium.

Rolland Shaffer, dance chairman, announced that a costume dance will be held for area teenagers at MacDonald School Oct. 28. A pumpkin carving contest will be held in conjunction with the event.

The Wellsville Jaycee Band will march in the East Liverpool Christmas Parade Nov. 24.

Mike Cook announced that if the school levy passes the school once again will take over sponsorship of the band.

A District 20 meeting will be held Wednesday night in Salem.

William Telzrow, president, announced that the club is no longer associated with the Jaycee Hall. It will now meet at the Trophy Specialties Co.

The next session will be Nov. 13.

Western Beaver Delays Decision To Fill Vacancy

The appointment of a school board director to fill the unexpired term of Charles P. Henderson was tabled until a special meeting next Monday at 8 p.m. when the Western Beaver School Board of Directors met Monday night.

Charles Jacoby, new director appointed at the last meeting to fill the unexpired term of M. D. Renwick, was given the oath of office.

David E. Williams, associate manager of the Western Pennsylvania National Bank's Beaver Office, was appointed treasurer of the school district.

The observance of National Education Week will include open house at the Fairview and Logan Schools Nov. 8 and Snyder Elementary and Western Beaver High on Nov. 9.

No school will be held Friday or Monday because of in-service days for teachers.

Two Motorists Fined, Jailed In Area Court

Two area drivers were fined and given jail sentences on traffic charges Monday by County Judge Barry Dickson at East Palestine.

Ronald Possage of Lisbon RD 2 was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to five days in jail for driving while under suspension. His license was suspended for 2½ months.

Herschel B. Conley of Annesley Rd. was fined $150 and sentenced to five days in jail for driving while intoxicated. His license was suspended for 15 days.

The theory that all living things are composed of cells was advanced by Matthias Schleiden and Theodor Schwann in 1839.

Wellsville PTA Picks Chairmen

Committee chairmen were named during a meeting of the Garfield PTA at Wellsville Monday night.

Donald Lowe, superintendent, spoke to the group concerning the proposed 5-mill tax levy on which voters will cast ballots in the Nov. 7 election.

Committee chairmen are: Program, Mrs. Chrisona LaClair; membership, Mrs. Marge Kinzel; safety, Mrs. Nancy Thomas; publicity, Mrs. Nancy Hancock; social, Mrs. Mary Lou Phenicie and Mrs. Marilyn Defalco; hospitality, Mrs. Goldie Springer; historian, Mrs. Joyce Salisbury; ways and means, Mrs. Vi Osborne, Mrs. Terry Pickens and Mrs. Virginia Corsello; parliamentarian, Mrs. Emma Lewis, and homeroom representatives, Mrs. Shirley Stanley and Mrs. Jana Lawrence.

The second grade won the room count.

Rev. John Dryer of Covenant United Presbyterian Church led devotions.

Mrs. Jo Ann Joy is president.

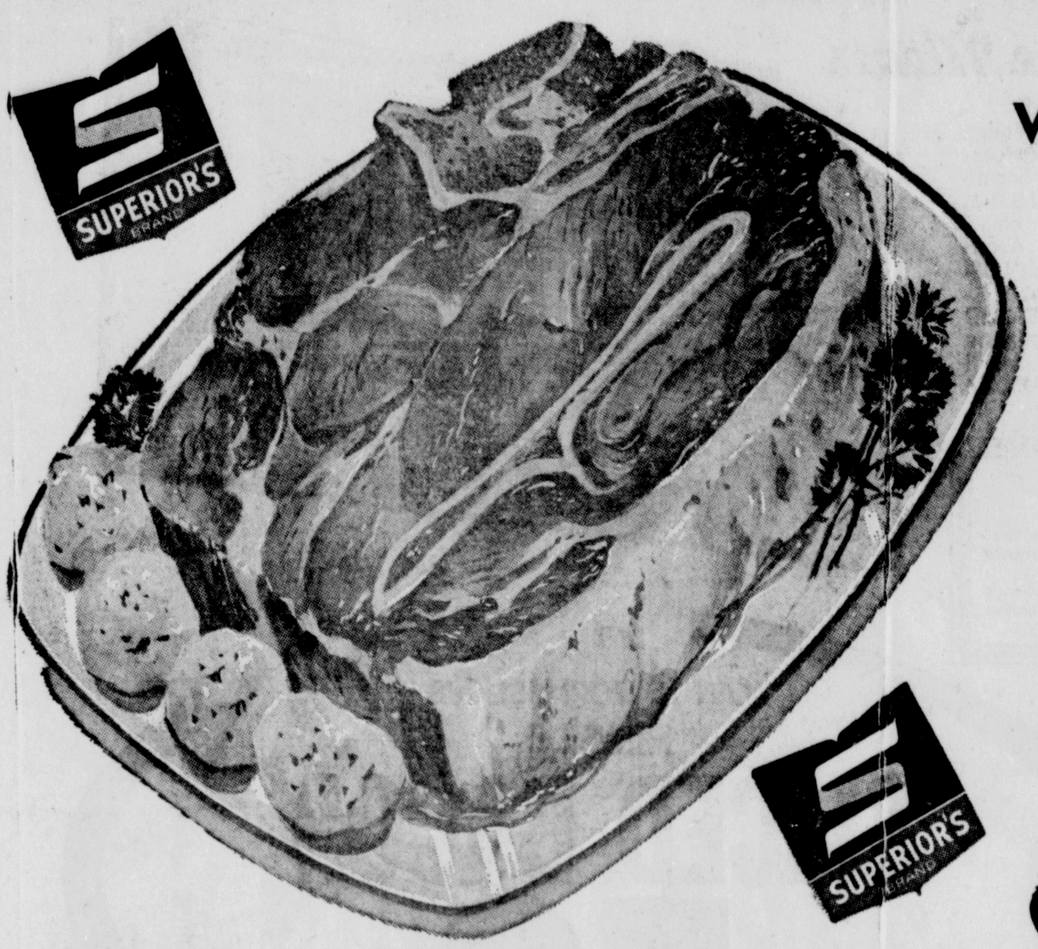

The next meeting will be in November.

Paul H. Gipp Begins County Agent Duties

LISBON — Paul H. Gipp of Salem RD 2 began work Monday as Columbiana County Extension Agent for Agriculture in the Extension Office on S. Market St.

Former vocational agriculture teacher at United High School and more recently manager of the Salem office of the Production Credit Association, Gipp succeeds Joe D. Pittman who was transferred to Columbus as an extension area supervisor.

Newell Lions To Aid Work For Playlot

Plans to repair and update playground equipment at the Jefferson School were discussed when the Newell Lions Club met Monday night in the Odd Fellows Hall.

The report on the project, under the direction of the PTA, was presented by Clarence Broomhall.

The Lions approved participation in the program.

A letter has been forwarded to "those concerned" in an effort to make the sidewalk on Washington St. between 7th and 8th Sts. safer. A resident was injured recently in a fall over the hill in the area.

Lloyd Nalley indicated progress in the project to establish a block mothers' group to provide children needing aid in an emergency a place to stop.

Members were urged to attend the Civic Council meeting Oct. 26.

The Christmas basket committee was instructed to proceed with plans for the holiday season.

Ronald Eckleberry presided and called for a directors' meeting at his home Monday at 7:30 p.m

Dinner was served by Lloyd Nalley, Donald Linger and Ed Fahnert.

Norman Cox was a guest.

The next dinner meeting will be Nov. 8.

Civic Club To Meet

SUMMITVILLE — The Women's Civic Club will meet tonight at 8:30 with Mrs. Kenneth Ketterer.

Will Be Shown To Students

Preview Held Here For 'VD' Film

ATTENDING TUESDAY'S PREVIEW of the educational film dealing with venereal disease were, left to right, Fred Martich of the U.S. Public Health Service, with offices in Akron; Wayne Alley, a former local resident and now president of the Akron Jaycees, which won a national award for a VD program in that city; Mrs. Nessie Dunlop, a member of the Board of Education, and Mrs. Virginia Smith, a member of the Junior Women's Club program committee.

An educational film dealing with the problem of venereal disease and its eradication was previewed Tuesday by school administrators and a representative of the Board of Education.

The movie, entitled "'One - Quarter - Million Teen-Agers," is being sponsored by the East Liverpool Junior Women's Club and will be shown to more than 2,600 students at the high school and two junior high schools on Nov. 16.

The movie also will be offered to the general public that night at 8 at Westgate Auditorium.

Fred Martich of the U.S. Public Health Service, with offices at Akron, outlined the work of the service in its efforts to overcome VD and pointed out the seriousness of the problem.

Among those attending the preview were Supt. Paul Blair; Carl Pelini, assistant superintendent; Tom Dixon, Westgate principal; Tony LaNeve, East Junior High principal; Clifford Lynch, high school principal; Mrs. Sally Porter, president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, and Miss Zelma Ladzinske, public health nurse.

Mrs. Vicki Lane is president of the Junior Women's Club and Mrs. Connie Bingham is the club's program chairman.

Man Shot And Killed; Juvenile Questioned

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 38-year-old East Side man was shot in the head and killed early today and police said they arrested a juvenile for questioning.

The victim, identified as Benny McArthur, died in Forest City Hospital less than a half hour after the shooting, which occurred in a field near Charles H. Lake Elementary School on Hillock Avenue.

Police said the gun with which McArthur was killed was left in the field, but a search early today failed to produce it. They said the search would be resumed after daybreak.

Salt, Sand, Gravel Aiding Ohio's Income

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An audit report released today by State Auditor Roger Cloud shows that salt mine operations under Lake Erie and sand and gravel dredging along lake shores are producing a substantial income for the state.

Cloud's report, covering a period from July 6, 1964 to June 6, 1967, showed Ohio received $399,289 from the operating firms as rental fees and royalties. The revenues are turned over to a rotary fund and expended for soil erosion projects.

Pennsy Cars Derail

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — The Licking County Sheriff's office reported at least 27 cars of a Pennsylvania railroad freight train derailed near the unincorporated community of Summit Station early today.

There were no injuries reported.

The train was eastbound out of Columbus.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: We hope you'll not consider this letter too indelicate to print, because we need help.

A very nice man works in our office. He keeps to himself a lot — the quiet type. Nobody ever has had any trouble with him.

Now it seems he's having some dental problems. For the past week he's been removing his partial plate during office hours (usually after lunch) and he just leaves it on his desk. The sight of those teeth on his desk is enough to make a person want to change jobs.

We don't wish to offend the gentleman, yet we don't feel he has the right to spoil a person's day. Do you believe an anonymous note might be the answer? — TOO MUCH REALISM.

Dear Too Much: The poor guy needs to go back to the dentist and get his choppers adjusted. In the meantime, I see nothing wrong in telling him in plain language that the sight of his teeth on the desk is unappetizing, to say the least, and if he can't keep them in his head, would he please put them in the drawer.

High Cost Of Leaving

Dear Ann: Your acid comment, "Alimony is the high cost of leaving," has a nice ring to it but it indicates that you have no sympathy whatever for the victims of cruel and punishing ex-wives.

My husband is one of those unfortunate people who's impaled on the alimony dagger. For him, at least, the price of leaving was a great deal higher than it should have been.

Because my husband is a fine person, he did not respond to his wife's vicious charges. He could have blackened her name and taken the children, but he chose to remain silent and pay through the nose.

If you have a shred of decency you'll print this letter and admit there's another side to the puicture, but then you could not possibly say a good word for a divorced man or you'd be thrown out of the Catholic Church. — MRS. D.

Dear Mrs.: Throwing me out of the Catholic Church would be the neatest trick of any week since I'm not in it.

Here's your letter, however, and it's a good one. There is indeed something to be said on the other side and I'm happy to give you equal time.

Middle Man

Dear Ann: Am I soft-hearted, soft-headed or just plain selfish? If I don't have a date I'll go out with any guy who calls me. It can be Mr. Jerk, U.S.A., and I'll say yes, rather than hurt his feelings. I've put up with dozens of bores on account of this.

My girl friend believes just the opposite. She says it's cruel to let a fellow waste his money or a girl who has no interest in him. According to her, when a girl accepts a date she gives the guy the impression that she thinks he's neat.

Dear M and P: I'd say the best position is somewhere in the middle. It is dumb to go out with any gink who happens to dial your number. By the same token, only a fool would refuse to date a fellow because he didn't set her on fire at the first glance. The most durable relationships start lukewarm and ignite later.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Shaffer 'Print' To Be Exhibited In WVU 'Show'

A former Chester resident is among 50 who will exhibit photographs during West Virginia University's "Centennial Camerama," a show which pays tribute to the university's 100th year.

The work of Robert Shaffer Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaffer of Indiana Ave., Chester, now an instructor at Weirton High School, is among the 100-print exhibit.

Shaffer presently teaches journalism, photography, English and history at Weirton. He also is faculty adviser for student publications. Shaffer was graduated from West Virginia in 1964.

The exhibit opens Oct. 27 and is expected to continue for a month. Then it will be offered for use by organizations in the state and later will tour college campuses throughout the East.

Council At Glasgow Pays For Road Work

GLASGOW — Glasgow Council authorized payment of $950 to the H. R. Allen Co. of Beaver for blacktopping work on Liberty Ave. and Hill St. at its session Saturday night.

It was announced that the borough chlorinator, which has been broken for over a month, has been repaired. A new part was purchased from the Miller Pump and Supply on the River Rd. in East Liverpool. The work was done by Daniel Gallagher, president.

The next meeting will be Nov. 4 at 7 p. m.

Industry Awards Cruiser Contract

INDUSTRY — Sid Reizner Chevrolet & Olds, Inc., of Midland was awarded a $2,733 contract for a 1968 four-door Chevrolet police cruiser at a special meeting of Industry Borough Council Monday night.

Although not the lowest price submitted, Reizner's bid met specifications, it was pointed out. The cruiser will be delivered about the second week of November.

Painting of the interior of the post office and borough office building has been completed by Carl Bixby of Midland at a cost of $328.

The next meeting will be Nov. 1 at 7:30 p. m.

Parents Are Warned Of Children's Pranks

Industry Police Chief Ray Hendershot has warned parents that children involved in Halloween pranks will be responsible for damages.

He said clothes already have been stolen from lines and profane words inscribed on three autos on Avondale Dr.

The incidents took place Monday night.

My husband is one of those unfortunate people who's impaled on the alimony dagger. For him, at least, the price of leaving was a great deal higher than it should have been.

Because my husband is a fine person, he did not respond to his wife's vicious charges. He could have blackened her name and taken the children, but he chose to remain silent and pay through the nose.

If you have a shred of decency you'll print this letter and admit there's another side to the puicture, but then you could not possibly say a good word for a divorced man or you'd be thrown out of the Catholic Church. — MRS. D.

Dear Mrs.: Throwing me out of the Catholic Church would be the neatest trick of any week since I'm not in it.

Here's your letter, however, and it's a good one. There is indeed something to be said on the other side and I'm happy to give you equal time.

Middle Man

Dear Ann: Am I soft-hearted, soft-headed or just plain selfish? If I don't have a date I'll go out with any guy who calls me. It can be Mr. Jerk, U.S.A., and I'll say yes, rather than hurt his feelings. I've put up with dozens of bores on account of this.

My girl friend believes just the opposite. She says it's cruel to let a fellow waste his money or a girl who has no interest in him. According to her, when a girl accepts a date she gives the guy the impression that she thinks he's neat.

Who is right? -- MOLLY AND POLLY.

Dear M and P: I'd say the best position is somewhere in the middle. It is dumb to go out with any gink who happens to dial your number. By the same token, only a fool would refuse to date a fellow because he didn't set her on fire at the first glance. The most durable relationships start lukewarm and ignite later.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

WHY SHOP THE YOUNG SHOP

. . . the luckiest women in the world are those who find the right clothes for the right occasions with a minimum of effort . . . DAYTIME DRESSES, SUITS, COATS, SHIRTS, SPORTSWEAR chosen for those who appreciate the feel of fine fabrics, the look of subdued or uninhibited colors. All Autumn and Winter pace setters.

People think the YOUNG SHOP specializes in smart small sizes (and they do) however Misses, Juniors, and Jr. Petite up to 16 are also stocked.

We have one shop only, its locally owned by Flo Young, hence the name "Young Shop" and the owner is in the store. So stop in and look us over, you'll be most pleased. Charges are invited, and lay-a-ways welcome. We are located on the Diamond in the Little Building.

Industry Awards Cruiser Contract

INDUSTRY — Sid Reizner Chevrolet & Olds, Inc., of Midland was awarded a $2,733 contract for a 1968 four-door Chevrolet police cruiser at a special meeting of Industry Borough Council Monday night.

Although not the lowest price submitted, Reizner's bid met specifications, it was pointed out. The cruiser will be delivered about the second week of November.

Painting of the interior of the post office and borough office building has been completed by Carl Bixby of Midland at a cost of $328.

The next meeting will be Nov. 1 at 7:30 p. m.

Parents Are Warned Of Children's Pranks

Industry Police Chief Ray Hendershot has warned parents that children involved in Halloween pranks will be responsible for damages.

He said clothes already have been stolen from lines and profane words inscribed on three autos on Avondale Dr.

The incidents took place Monday night.

Shaffer 'Print' To Be Exhibited In WVU 'Show'

A former Chester resident is among 50 who will exhibit photographs during West Virginia University's "Centennial Camerama," a show which pays tribute to the university's 100th year.

The work of Robert Shaffer Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaffer of Indiana Ave., Chester, now an instructor at Weirton High School, is among the 100-print exhibit.

Shaffer presently teaches journalism, photography, English and history at Weirton. He also is faculty adviser for student publications. Shaffer was graduated from West Virginia in 1964.

The exhibit opens Oct. 27 and is expected to continue for a month. Then it will be offered for use by organizations in the state and later will tour college campuses throughout the East.

Council At Glasgow Pays For Road Work

GLASGOW — Glasgow Council authorized payment of $950 to the H. R. Allen Co. of Beaver for blacktopping work on Liberty Ave. and Hill St. at its session Saturday night.

It was announced that the borough chlorinator, which has been broken for over a month, has been repaired. A new part was purchased from the Miller Pump and Supply on the River Rd. in East Liverpool. The work was done by Daniel Gallagher, president.

The next meeting will be Nov. 4 at 7 p. m.

INSURANCE FOR ALL THE FAMILY!

AN ACCIDENT POLICY ONLY 10¢ A WEEK

Per Policy
Per Person

ACCIDENTS DO HAPPEN

Never before have you seen a policy like this. It covers not only those Automobile and Pedestrian Accidents which make front page news, but all kinds of accidents (fatal and non-fatal), like falling down the stairs at home, breaking a leg playing football, mashing a hand in a punch press at work, etc.

If you are unable to work because of injuries, you collect disability and other benefits. Even for minor accidents where you are not laid up, but have expense for doctor bills, you can collect several times as much as you pay for an entire year's protection. If injured again, you can collect again. Policies Written by The Columbus Mutal Life Insurance Company, Columbus, Ohio.

Covering MANY Kinds Of Accidents

And Providing First Aid, X-Ray, Disability, and Hospitalization Payments; With Death Benefits That Increase Each Month That You Are Insured!

During the next 12 months, one person in every third family will be injured or killed in an accident! Today an accident costs more than ever before; more for medical treatment, X-ray, Hospital, and loss of time from your work.

While we anticipate that almost all of our readers will want to take advantage of this New Service—your Insurance will not begin until your application has been received and accepted and a policy issued.

Ordering this Insurance is one thing you should not put off — because 19 persons are injured or killed every minute — and nobody knows whether you or some member of your family may be the next Accident victim.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: I always hung my babies' corduroy pants on the line to dry by attaching clothespins at the two button holes in the straps.

One day I ran out of pins so I hung the straps over the line and just buttoned them up! The weight of the wet material pulled the straps straight and they hung so well I didn't even have to iron them.

Also the wind can't blow them loose.

LOIS HORNER.

DEAR GALS: If you've got a hair dryer with a tube on it, try connecting it when you have an ache or a pain and letting the hot air from the end of the tube blow on that sore spot as you massage it. It's great.

I found this wonderful when my neck or leg ached, and it's especially good to run up and down your spine when your back gets tired.

This is one thing we can do for ourselves, because that tube is umpteen inches long. I sit in a chair when I use this method and then rub my back on the chair cushion. It sure is relaxing.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: The hint about putting plastic wrap on the bathroom mirror so it wouldn't steam up is such a great idea. But I canned it a step further. I used it on the back window of our station wagon to keep moisture from forming on it.

Worked great, and what a wonderful feeling to be able to see out on cold and rainy mornings.

I felt so much safer driving, too.

NORMA LOU.

DEAR HELOISE: If you make the children's Halloween costumes out of flannel, they will be much warmer. They can also be used for winter sleepwear later.

C. S.

No waste then, as children outgrow clothing so fast.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: This morning I received a letter from a young friend of ours in Vietnam. I had mailed him cookies and candy.

He was amazed that only one cookie was broken and thought my packing idea was great, so I would like to pass it on to others.

I wrap each piece of candy or cookie in plastic wrap. Then pack it all in a corrugated box or large coffee can, put crumpled nylon net between each layer and between the food and the box or can.

The net acts as a cushion that keeps them from juggling around, but adds practically no weight.

When the cookies are unpacked, the servicemen can make good use of the nylon net for scrubbing boots, equipment, etc.

BETTY KIMBALL.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I save the cardboard rolls from wax paper and aluminum foil for my young twins.

Now they can band away on floors to their hearts content. . .

MOTHER.

Give 'em a great big hug for me!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I have four children so my washing is always large.

I keep small cardboard boxes next to my dryer, one for each child with his name on it. As I take the clothes out and fold them, I put them in the proper box. Then each child can take his own clothes and put them away himself.

Sure helps this busy mother out on wash days.

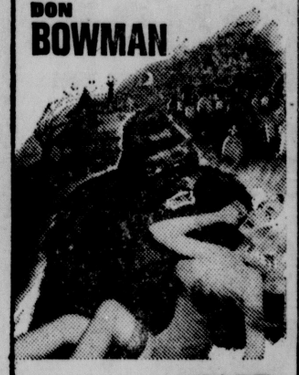

MRS. J. B.

DEAR HELOISE: I use a medium-size adhesive bandage to cover a nail or rough spot in shoes. The cushion part adds just enough coverage for comfort.

Wonderful in an emergency until I can get it hammered smooth.

MRS. MOREFIELD.

Midland Post Gets Set For Halloween Parade

William Riddle, chairman of the annual Halloween parade for children, said today the event, sponsored by Midland American Legion Post 481, will be held Oct. 30.

The parade will form on Beaver Ave. between 4th and 5th Sts. It will move at 6:30 p.m. to the CIO Hall, where participants will be judged by Mrs. Mary Belaney, Auxiliary president, and her panel.

PRIZES WILL be awarded for the funniest, prettiest, most patriotic and most original costumes. Five cash prizes will be given in each division.

Cartoons will be screened and treats will be given all the children.

The Lincoln High School and Western Beaver High School Bands will march in the parade, headed by the post color guard. Police will provide the escort.

Children may obtain identification tags at the police desk in the borough building after Thursday.

William E. Coble, Auxiliary chairman, said Midland Gold Star Mothers will be feted at the Beaver County Veterans Day celebration Nov. 11 at Beaver Falls. They will be provided free transportation.

Robert Dick, commander, reported the post is an "early bird" post, achieving 20 per cent of its membership goal by Oct. 2. He said it expects to reach 50 per cent by Veterans Day.

THE AUXILIARY will hold a public card party Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the post home. Its next meeting will be Nov. 13 at 8 p. m.

Mark Pike, Son of the Legion chairman, said the group will meet Saturday at 7 p.m. at the post.

Members of the post will meet at the Rochester American Legion Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. where the Beaver County Blood Bank will discuss the possibility of obtaining more donors from the area.

Coble and Stephen Crano, and possibly others, will attend a Legion leadership school at St. Vincent College in Latrobe Nov. 18.

The Beaver County committee will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Rochester.

The next meeting will be Nov. 6 at 8 p. m., preceded by an executive committee meeting at 7:30.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Get On With Happy Slimming

On-again, off - again dieters, why not decide to take charge of your life? Once you hurdle the mental obstacle, slimming down and shaping up can add a filip to daily living.

Ida Jean Kain

The first hurdle is to make up your mind to eat to build leanness. Faddy diets inevitably lead to failure. Reducing is a way of eating and a most enjoyable way it can be. Take a positive approach to your problem. It is futile to spend time regretting the foods you cannot have if you are to slim down. Aim to re-educate your food habits. You only form a habit if you do it with your mind and your attitude.

So many of you tend to postpone happy living. One young woman expressed it this way: "When I get thinner I'll do all the things I've been wanting to do." Why not go ahead and do them now? Take up dramatics, start painting lessons, fencing lessons or Yoga. Try out a new hair style.

DECIDE TO get on with happy living and you will find you can stay with a slimming pattern without feeling sorry for yourself. What's there to feel sorry about? You're going to be a winner.

Get the feeling of triumph and you won't spend time wondering if reducing is worth the effort. Take it from those who have licked their weight problem to a standstill — it is worth it. Swing into good food habits and you will come to prefer this protective way of eating.

When you reach a plateau and the pounds play hard-to-get-off, you can take it in stride when you realize this is nature's way to establish your weight at a new low level.

Exercise can help you to resume reducing, and enhance your feeling of well - being. With exercise you can go right along slimming off inches even when the pointer on the scales does not change for three or four weeks.

GIVE YOURSELF every break on the eating pattern. Plan meals high in satiety value and in replenishing nutrients, but low in calories. In reducing it is important to eat well, but good eating is not synonymous with overeating. Before you sit down to the table resolve to stop eating short of that full feeling.

Expect to enjoy life while you reduce. You'll never find out what you can do to make life more exciting until you try. . . try right along with your reducing. Ere long you'll wonder why you didn't get on with good food habits years ago.

The New Calorie Chart includes a pattern for right eating. Send a long, self - addressed stamped envelope. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review.

Canton Woman Fined In Theft Of Cigarettes

A woman identified as Mrs. Inez L. Boothe of Canton was fined $10 and costs Tuesday in Municipal Court by Acting Judge Robert A. Kapp after she pleaded guilty to theft of eight cartons of cigarettes valued at $21.-32.

Police said Mrs. Boothe was apprehended Oct. 7 about 7:30 p. m. at the Loblaw, Inc., Market on Dresden Ave. The affidavit was signed by Ronald Crognale, the manager.

Ohioan Electrocuted Repairing TV Antenna

NEW LEXINGTON, Ohio (AP) —Leo L. Grove of Rt. 3, Thornville, was electrocuted Tuesday afternoon when a television antenna he was repairing at his Perry County home touched a power line.

His wife, Ellen, suffered burns and shock when she tried to pull her husband away from the antenna.

Marine First Noble County War Casualty

CALDWELL, Ohio (AP) — The first serviceman from Noble County to be killed in the Vietnam war is a Marine.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ovie Keaton of Belle Valley said they were notified by the Defense Department Tuesday that their son, Cpl. John L. Keaton, 20, was killed in action near Da Nang Oct. 6.

Champion Bull Picked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The grand champion jersey bull selected Tuesday at the All-American Open Show held in conjunction with the North American Dairy Show was Highfield Sparkle Dandy, owned by E. Lea Marsh of Old Lyme, Conn.

LEGAL NOTICES

LEGAL NOTICE

The unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Enor May Ronshausen, deceased, and Henry Ronshausen, deceased, will take notice that on the 4th day of October, 1967, Francis H. Lang, Administrator With the Will Annexed of the estate of Enor May Ronshausen, deceased, plaintiff therein, filed his petition against them in the Probate Court of Columbiana County, Ohio, the same being Case No. 63316 A, Docket 73, Page 131, entitled Francis H. Lang, Administrator With the Will Annexed of the estate of Enor May Ronshausen, deceased, vs. Francis H. Lang, Administrator With the Will Annexed to the estate of Henry Ronshausen, deceased, et al in said Court asking for authority to sell certain real estate in said petition described, to-wit:

Situated in the City of East Liverpool, County of Columbiana, State of Ohio, and being the east rectangular half of Lot Number Five Hundred Twenty-eight (528) as said lot is numbered and distinguished on the recorded plat of Josiah Thompson's Addition to said City of East Liverpool. Said east half of said lot fronts Sixty (60) feet on College Street and extends back at right angles along the south line of Potters Lane a distance of Fifty-four (54) feet.

The prayer of said petition is that the plaintiff, as Administrator With the Will Annexed of the estate of Enor May Ronshausen, deceased, be authorized to sell said real estate, that the rights, interests and liens of all parties may be fully determined, adjusted and protected, and for such other and further relief and orders as may be determined by the Court. Said defendants are required to answer said petition on or before the 25th day of November, 1967, or judgment will be taken against them.

FRANCIS H. LANG, Administrator With the Will Annexed of the estate of Enor May Ronshausen, deceased

BY: Francis H. Lang, his attorney E. L. Review: Oct. 11, 18, 25; Nov. 1, 8, 15, 1967.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: I always hung my babies' corduroy pants on the line to dry by attaching clothespins at the two button holes in the straps.

One day I ran out of pins so I hung the straps over the line and just buttoned them up! The weight of the wet material pulled the straps straight and they hung so well I didn't even have to iron them.

Also the wind can't blow them loose.

LOIS HORNER.

DEAR GALS: If you've got a hair dryer with a tube on it, try connecting it when you have an ache or a pain and letting the hot air from the end of the tube blow on that sore spot as you massage it. It's great.

I found this wonderful when my neck or leg ached, and it's especially good to run up and down your spine when your back gets tired.

This is one thing we can do for ourselves, because that tube is umpteen inches long. I sit in a chair when I use this method and then rub my back on the chair cushion. It sure is relaxing.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: The hint about putting plastic wrap on the bathroom mirror so it wouldn't steam up is such a great idea. But I canned it a step further. I used it on the back window of our station wagon to keep moisture from forming on it.

Worked great, and what a wonderful feeling to be able to see out on cold and rainy mornings.

I felt so much safer driving, too.

NORMA LOU.

DEAR HELOISE: If you make the children's Halloween costumes out of flannel, they will be much warmer. They can also be used for winter sleepwear later.

C. S.

No waste then, as children outgrow clothing so fast.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: This morning I received a letter from a young friend of ours in Vietnam. I had mailed him cookies and candy.

He was amazed that only one cookie was broken and thought my packing idea was great, so I would like to pass it on to others.

I wrap each piece of candy or cookie in plastic wrap. Then pack it all in a corrugated box or large coffee can, put crumpled nylon net between each layer and between the food and the box or can.

The net acts as a cushion that keeps them from juggling around, but adds practically no weight.

When the cookies are unpacked, the servicemen can make good use of the nylon net for scrubbing boots, equipment, etc.

BETTY KIMBALL.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I save the cardboard rolls from wax paper and aluminum foil for my young twins.

Now they can band away on floors to their hearts content. . .

MOTHER.

Give 'em a great big hug for me!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I have four children so my washing is always large.

I keep small cardboard boxes next to my dryer, one for each child with his name on it. As I take the clothes out and fold them, I put them in the proper box. Then each child can take his own clothes and put them away himself.

Sure helps this busy mother out on wash days.

MRS. J. B.

DEAR HELOISE: I use a medium-size adhesive bandage to cover a nail or rough spot in shoes. The cushion part adds just enough coverage for comfort.

Wonderful in an emergency until I can get it hammered smooth.

MRS. MOREFIELD.

Midland Post Gets Set For Halloween Parade

William Riddle, chairman of the annual Halloween parade for children, said today the event, sponsored by Midland American Legion Post 481, will be held Oct. 30.

The parade will form on Beaver Ave. between 4th and 5th Sts. It will move at 6:30 p.m. to the CIO Hall, where participants will be judged by Mrs. Mary Belaney, Auxiliary president, and her panel.

PRIZES WILL be awarded for the funniest, prettiest, most patriotic and most original costumes. Five cash prizes will be given in each division.

Cartoons will be screened and treats will be given all the children.

The Lincoln High School and Western Beaver High School Bands will march in the parade, headed by the post color guard. Police will provide the escort.

Children may obtain identification tags at the police desk in the borough building after Thursday.

William E. Coble, Auxiliary chairman, said Midland Gold Star Mothers will be feted at the Beaver County Veterans Day celebration Nov. 11 at Beaver Falls. They will be provided free transportation.

Robert Dick, commander, reported the post is an "early bird" post, achieving 20 per cent of its membership goal by Oct. 2. He said it expects to reach 50 per cent by Veterans Day.

THE AUXILIARY will hold a public card party Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the post home. Its next meeting will be Nov. 13 at 8 p. m.

Mark Pike, Son of the Legion chairman, said the group will meet Saturday at 7 p.m. at the post.

Members of the post will meet at the Rochester American Legion Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. where the Beaver County Blood Bank will discuss the possibility of obtaining more donors from the area.

Coble and Stephen Crano, and possibly others, will attend a Legion leadership school at St. Vincent College in Latrobe Nov. 18.

The Beaver County committee will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Rochester.

The next meeting will be Nov. 6 at 8 p. m., preceded by an executive committee meeting at 7:30.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Get On With Happy Slimming

On-again, off - again dieters, why not decide to take charge of your life? Once you hurdle the mental obstacle, slimming down and shaping up can add a filip to daily living.

Ida Jean Kain

The first hurdle is to make up your mind to eat to build leanness. Faddy diets inevitably lead to failure. Reducing is a way of eating and a most enjoyable way it can be. Take a positive approach to your problem. It is futile to spend time regretting the foods you cannot have if you are to slim down. Aim to re-educate your food habits. You only form a habit if you do it with your mind and your attitude.

So many of you tend to postpone happy living. One young woman expressed it this way: "When I get thinner I'll do all the things I've been wanting to do." Why not go ahead and do them now? Take up dramatics, start painting lessons, fencing lessons or Yoga. Try out a new hair style.

DECIDE TO get on with happy living and you will find you can stay with a slimming pattern without feeling sorry for yourself. What's there to feel sorry about? You're going to be a winner.

Get the feeling of triumph and you won't spend time wondering if reducing is worth the effort. Take it from those who have licked their weight problem to a standstill — it is worth it. Swing into good food habits and you will come to prefer this protective way of eating.

When you reach a plateau and the pounds play hard-to-get-off, you can take it in stride when you realize this is nature's way to establish your weight at a new low level.

Exercise can help you to resume reducing, and enhance your feeling of well - being. With exercise you can go right along slimming off inches even when the pointer on the scales does not change for three or four weeks.

GIVE YOURSELF every break on the eating pattern. Plan meals high in satiety value and in replenishing nutrients, but low in calories. In reducing it is important to eat well, but good eating is not synonymous with overeating. Before you sit down to the table resolve to stop eating short of that full feeling.

Expect to enjoy life while you reduce. You'll never find out what you can do to make life more exciting until you try. . . try right along with your reducing. Ere long you'll wonder why you didn't get on with good food habits years ago.

The New Calorie Chart includes a pattern for right eating. Send a long, self - addressed stamped envelope. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review.

Canton Woman Fined In Theft Of Cigarettes

A woman identified as Mrs. Inez L. Boothe of Canton was fined $10 and costs Tuesday in Municipal Court by Acting Judge Robert A. Kapp after she pleaded guilty to theft of eight cartons of cigarettes valued at $21.32.

Police said Mrs. Boothe was apprehended Oct. 7 about 7:30 p. m. at the Loblaw, Inc., Market on Dresden Ave. The affidavit was signed by Ronald Crognale, the manager.

Ohioan Electrocuted Repairing TV Antenna

NEW LEXINGTON, Ohio (AP) —Leo L. Grove of Rt. 3, Thornville, was electrocuted Tuesday afternoon when a television antenna he was repairing at his Perry County home touched a power line.

His wife, Ellen, suffered burns and shock when she tried to pull her husband away from the antenna.

Marine First Noble County War Casualty

CALDWELL, Ohio (AP) — The first serviceman from Noble County to be killed in the Vietnam war is a Marine.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ovie Keaton of Belle Valley said they were notified by the Defense Department Tuesday that their son, Cpl. John L. Keaton, 20, was killed in action near Da Nang Oct. 6.

Champion Bull Picked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The grand champion jersey bull selected Tuesday at the All-American Open Show held in conjunction with the North American Dairy Show was Highfield Sparkle Dandy, owned by E. Lea Marsh of Old Lyme, Conn.

In Colonial times the tavern served also as a community center and court room.

LEGAL NOTICES

LEGAL NOTICE

The unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Enor May Ronshausen, deceased, and Henry Ronshausen, deceased, will take notice that on the 4th day of October, 1967, Francis H. Lang, Administrator With the Will Annexed of the estate of Enor May Ronshausen, deceased, plaintiff therein, filed his petition against them in the Probate Court of Columbiana County, Ohio, the same being Case No. 63316 A, Docket 73, Page 131, entitled Francis H. Lang, Administrator With the Will Annexed of the estate of Enor May Ronshausen, deceased, vs. Francis H. Lang, Administrator With the Will Annexed to the estate of Henry Ronshausen, deceased, et al in said Court asking for authority to sell certain real estate in said petition described, to-wit:

Situated in the City of East Liverpool, County of Columbiana, State of Ohio, and being the east rectangular half of Lot Number Five Hundred Twenty-eight (528) as said lot is numbered and distinguished on the recorded plat of Josiah Thompson's Addition to said City of East Liverpool. Said east half of said lot fronts Sixty (60) feet on College Street and extends back at right angles along the south line of Potters Lane a distance of Fifty-four (54) feet.

The prayer of said petition is that the plaintiff, as Administrator With the Will Annexed of the estate of Enor May Ronshausen, deceased, be authorized to sell said real estate, that the rights, interests and liens of all parties may be fully determined, adjusted and protected, and for such other and further relief and orders as may be determined by the Court. Said defendants are required to answer said petition on or before the 25th day of November, 1967, or judgment will be taken against them.

FRANCIS H. LANG, Administrator With the Will Annexed of the estate of Enor May Ronshausen, deceased

BY: Francis H. Lang, his attorney E. L. Review: Oct. 11, 18, 25; Nov. 1, 8, 15, 1967.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 18, the 291st day of 1967. There are 74 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1867, the United States formally took possession of Alaska, and the Russian flag was lowered.

On this date—

In 1540, the Spanish explorer Hernando de Soto was fighting the Indians in southern Alabama.

In 1767, the boundary line between Maryland and Pennsylvania — the Mason-Dixon Line -was agreed upon.

In 1842, Samuel F. B. Morse laid the first telegraph cable in New York Harbor — between The Battery and Governors Island.

In 1892, the first direct telephone line opened between New York and Chicago.

In 1944, Soviet troops invaded Czechoslovakia in World War II.

In 1963, Sir Alec Douglas-Home succeeded Harold Macmillan as Britain's prime minister.

Ten years ago — A Moslem leader, Imail Ibrahim Chrundigar, was sworn in as the new prime minister of Pakistan.

Five years ago — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko met wth Preident John F. Kennedy at the White House to discuss Berlin and other issues.

One year ago — Twelve New York firemen died in the collapse of a blazing building.

Junior Editors Quiz on SCIENCE

QUESTION: What is the relationship between aphids and ant colonies?

ANSWER: An ant colony is remarkably well organized, as the underground cross section suggests. Here, ants in different chambers carry out assorted tasks, such as caring for the young ants or storing food. The large room at the right is built around a tree's roots; on the roots are four aphids, little insects, often spoken of as ant cows. Aphids suck plant juices and produce a sweet sirupy substance called honeydew, which serves as food for certain varieties of ants. An ant strokes an aphid's back, causing it to excrete honeydew, which is then licked up by the ant. Ants take good care of their aphids. They drive away enemies, see that the aphids have enough roots to give them a good food supply, and generally keep them warm and safe.

Rockefeller 'Chills' Bid To Nominate Him In '68

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

ABOARD SS INDEPENDENCE (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has made his strongest statement yet to kill off moves by party moderates to push him for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination.

"I do not want to be president," Rockefeller told reporters on the sun deck of this National Governors Conference cruise liner en route to the Virgin Islands.

Gov. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland, who has never wavered in his support of Rockefeller as the best candidate the GOP could nominate, said the New Yorker's disclaimer sounded "pretty definite."

"I'm convinced he won't run unless he is drafted," Agnew said. "If he were drafted, it would take a pretty emphatic individual to turn it down. But did anybody ever hear of a genuine draft?"

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller of Arkansas, who discussed the statement with Agnew, said his brother's stand is "no different" now than it was before.

"I am not a candidate," Rockefeller told newsmen Tuesday. "I do not intend to be a candidate. I do not want to be president."

"Do you really mean it?" a reporter asked.

"You hear me loud and clear," Rockefeller replied.

Rockefeller, still plugging for Michigan Gov. George Romney, said he did not believe the New Hampshire primary next March would be decisive.

"I lost in New Hampshire and I didn't quit," he said, referring to the 1964 campaign for the Republican nomination.

Romney himself preserved the political fiction that he has not yet decided whether to run. But he said he will make this decision "very soon." If he runs, he said, he expects to campaign extensively in New Hampshire.

Former Gov. Henry Bellmon of Oklahoma, campaign manager for former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, said in an interview that while Nixon will step up political activity in the next two months, he expects no formal announcement of candidacy until mid-January.

Bellmon said he regards Romney as the only opponent now in sight. The Nixon camp, he said, is convinced that Gov. Ronald Reagan of California is making none of the moves that could be expected at this point from a serious contender.

Headed by Gov. John Connally of Texas, Democrats worked to present a resolution of general support for President Johnson's Vietnam war course.

Connally assailed Romney at a news conference for his assertion he had been "brainwashed" on the war by U.S. officials in Saigon.

"Anybody who aspires to the presidency of the United States is going to have to take a categorical position on the Vietnam war," he said. "It won't be enough just to criticize or say the President isn't telling the truth."

Thailand Due To Hike Viet Troop Total

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials say Thailand will be the next nation increasing its troop contributions to the allied war effort in Vietnam. But the bulk of an expected 115,000 fresh troops will come from South Vietnam and the United States.

Officials say they expect South Vietnam to add 65,000 men to its popular forces guarding the hamlets and villages, thus freeing more Vietnamese regular troops for combat.

The United States has announced it will add 45,000 more men to its force levels in Vietnam, bringing the total to 525,000 by next July 30. There are approximately 490,000 in Vietnam now.

Thailand has sent 2,200 men to South Vietnam, and a 150-man Thai naval group and a small air transport contingent has been committed.

The additions are not expected to exceed 1,500 men. Thai officials have said the increase is under study while U.S. authorities arrange necessary equipment and logistic support.

Reports Burglary

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Ronald Allman of Centerville, Montgomery County, reported to police Wednesday his residence had been burglarized and that his loss was about $30,000—$20,000 worth of rare coins, and $10,000 in jewelry. He also said a gun had been taken from his home.

Two Recognized For Test Scores

Two East Liverpool High School seniors have been awarded letters of commendation for their performances in the 1967 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, Clifford Lynch, principal, announced today.

James Flora, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Flora of Macrum St., and Dale Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Richard Jones of 1520 Wyoming Ave., received the commendation awards.

They were among 40,000 students in the United States who scored in the upper 2 per cent of those who will graduate from high school in 1968. The commended students rank just below the 14,000 semi-finalists announced in September, of which Malcolm Ogilvie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Ogilvie of Blazer Ln., is one.

2 Waive Hearing On Counterfeit Money Charges

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) —Two men are in the Jefferson County Jail here awaiting transfer to Columbus after waiving a preliminary hearing on charges of passing counterfeit money in neighboring Belmont County.

Waiving the hearing Tuesday were Paul Durant, 33, of Cambridge, Ohio, and Benjamin Knowles, 28, of Cambridge and Durham, N. C. U. S. Commissioner Joseph J. Freedman ordered them held in lieu of $1,000 bond.

Barbara McDaniel, 27, of Cambridge is being held in the Belmont County Jail on a similar charge.

Authorities called in Secret Service agents after counterfeit $20 bills turned up recently in several stores in the St. Clairsville area.

Belmont County Sheriff George Neff said bogus bills also had turned up at a department store in Bridgeport. Another man, Larry L. Gibson, 25, of Zanesville, was to appear before a U.S. Commissioner in Zanesville today on charges of selling counterfeit money. He was arrested last Saturday, and Secret Service agents accused him of selling $600 worth of bogus $20 bills.

Rockefeller 'Chills' Bid To Nominate Him In '68

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

ABOARD SS INDEPENDENCE (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has made his strongest statement yet to kill off moves by party moderates to push him for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination.

"I do not want to be president," Rockefeller told reporters on the sun deck of this National Governors Conference cruise liner en route to the Virgin Islands.

Gov. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland, who has never wavered in his support of Rockefeller as the best candidate the GOP could nominate, said the New Yorker's disclaimer sounded "pretty definite."
